Juvenile Charged In Death of Boy

A 17-year-old Duncan youth was charged today with manslaughter in the mysterious death last week of a 14-year-old boy near the up-island city.

Duncan RCMP laid the charge after intensive investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Hugh George Nesbitt near his Bazett Road home last Thursday night.

The accused youth appeared in Duncan juvenile court this morning and was remanded without plea for eight days.

$1,000 BAIL

He was released in the custody of his parents on $1,000 bail.

Duncan lawyer David Williams, who is acting as Crown prosecutor, said after court he will apply at the next hearing to have the case transferred to a higher court.

Mr. Williams said he will also ask the attorney-general's department to cancel the inquest which has already begun into the cause of Nesbitt's death.

The body of the victim was to be cremated today. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Peter's Anglican Church with Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh officiating.

ON WAY HOME

Nesbitt died only 100 yards from his home after an altercation with some older youths from the area. He and a 16-year-old friend, Conrad Wohler, had been for a swim at Maple Bay and were on their way home when the incident occurred.

It is understood a car passed them on the road, then stopped and one of the occupants asked them what they had shouted at them as they passed. There were two boys and two girls in the car.

RAN AWAY

According to Wohler, the youths in the car got out and he and Nesbitt tried to get away. Wohler ran off and as he did so he saw Nesbitt trying to climb a fence to get on to his home property.

Wohler said he heard one of the girls in the car shout "Leave him alone" as he ran away. Wohler hid and when the car had gone he returned to the scene.

NO MARKS

He found his friend dying in the grass beside the road. Police said there were no outer marks of violence on Nesbitt's body.

It is understood an autopsy has revealed brain injury.

Nesbitt was a student at Shawnigan Lake Boys' School. He lived with his mother, grandmother and 11-year-old sister.

'SELL MORE IN B.C.' BENNETT URGES U.K.

By DOUG MARSHALL

LONDON (CP)—Premier Bennett of British Columbia today opened a drive to persuade British manufacturers to sell more goods in his province.

Bennett told a press conference that B.C. last year sold more than $128,000,000 worth of goods to Britain and bought only $50,000,000 worth in return. He said he wanted a 100-per-cent increase in British sales to B.C. to even the balance.

"We're having a trade fair in Vancouver in 1964 and are anxious that British firms display their goods there and send their salesmen," he said.

The salmon fishing, fruit growing and mining industries in B.C. all are eager to buy British goods, he said, and there are considerable sales opportunities for British marine and railway equipment.

Bennett noted that the Panama Canal made freight costs from Britain cheaper than they are from central Canada. He also hoped that some British firms would set up subsidiaries in B.C. because they would be nearer the primary products and could sell up and down the Pacific coast and to the Far East.

Bennett, who arrived last week after attending the provincial premiers' meeting in Nova Scotia, said he plans to stay "just a few days."

'Everybody Richer, Nobody Gets Poorer'

LONDON (CP) — Premier W. A. C. Bennett painted a glowing picture for U.K. newsmen today of British Columbia's dynamic and prospering financial position.

"Social Credit is genuine competitive free enterprise in action aimed at making everybody richer and nobody poorer," the premier said at a press conference.

"We operate in peacetime as other capitalist systems operate in war."

He described the provincial takeover of the B.C. Electric as a "fair evaluation for shares" that should cause prospective British exporters no concern.

REPERCUSSION?

Bank Raises Lending Rate

OTTAWA (CP) — The Bank of Canada increased its lending rate to four per cent from 3½ Sunday in what may have been another indirect repercussion from the proposed United States tax on American purchases of foreign securities.

Louis Rasminsky, governor of the bank, said in a statement that the rate increase "should not restrict the availability of credit in Canada."

The central bank's lending rate applies to infrequent advances to the eight chartered banks and is considered the leading indicator of the cost of credit in Canada.

In an indirect reference to the aftermath of the July 18 tax proposal to Congress by President Kennedy, the statement said:

"In announcing the change, the governor of the bank described it as a technical adjustment related to the increased uncertainty and upward pressure on interest rates which had developed in Canadian securities markets during the past few weeks."

RESERVES DROP

Last Tuesday, Finance Minister Gordon announced that Canada's foreign exchange reserves declined sharply in July, particularly on July 18 and 19 immediately after the U.S. tax proposal was unveiled.

Canada's holdings of gold and U.S. dollars dropped by $190,600,000 to $2,501,000,000 in July. This comprised a drain of $110,900,000 in ordinary foreign exchange dealings and repayment of $79,700,000 to the International Monetary Fund on a loan received during the 1962 foreign exchange crisis.

Mr. Gordon said Wednesday that the drain in the exchange fund did not represent a run on the Canadian dollar. "It was a walk—perhaps a fast walk, but it didn't reach the danger level," he told reporters.

Sunday's announcement about the bank rate stressed that the change is not intended to signal a basic shift in the central bank's monetary policy. The bank was still aiming at pro-

Singer Having Ward's Baby

LONDON (AP) — Julie Gulliver says she is going to have a baby by the late Dr. Stephen Ward, the weekly newspaper The People reports.

The copyrighted article in the Sunday newspaper said the 22-year-old singer met Ward, a central figure in the Profumo sex-and-security scandal, four months before he died from an overdose of sleeping pills he took as a jury was about to convict him of living off the earnings of prostitutes.

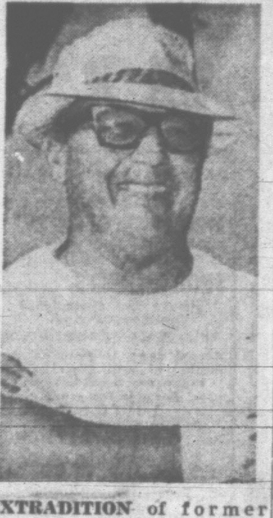
"All I wanted to do was to give him peace of mind," Miss Gulliver said. "My baby is due to be born in March. If it is a boy, I shall call him Stephen."

Meanwhile, Ward's lawyer cast doubt on the value of evidence offered by Joe Wade, a professional gambler who came forward after Ward's trial and said he could have cleared him.

Wade was reported recovering near Oxford from an overdose of sleeping pills taken Saturday at his hotel. He was in hospital for a time but walked out Saturday night—against medical advice, his wife said.

The nature of Wade's evidence has not been made public. However, Wade spoke to Ward's lawyer, Jack Wheatley, who told reporters Sunday:

"I did not think he had any evidence which could have been of use."



EXTRADITION of former Venezuelan dictator Marcos Perez Jiminez from the U.S. is to be approved by U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk, it was announced today. Perez has been in jail in Miami since Dec. 12 pending outcome of Venezuela's request for extradition on charges of embezzling more than $13,000,000 in government funds and for committing four political murders.

MAIL ROBBERY TIPSTER SPURS SEARCH FOR 5

LONDON (AP) — An informer's tip sent detectives combing London's sleazy East End today for five criminals reported missing from their homes since history's greatest train robbery.

No arrests were made, but Scotland Yard posted a watch at each of the five addresses.

About 15 masked men halted the Glasgow-London mail train last Thursday and made off with bags of registered mail worth more than the equivalent of $7,500,000. Most of the loot was old currency being returned to London for destruction.

The precision with which the gang worked aroused speculation that the master mind was a former military man.

Spurred by reward offers totalling £260,000, hundreds of Britons called police stations claiming to have information that might help the police.

PLEA TO SENATE

Rusk Opens N-Pact Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk urged the U.S. Senate today to ratify the test-ban treaty, saying it should slow the arms race without damage to the security of the United States.

Rusk testified before the Senate foreign relations committee as the first witness in the Kennedy administration's drive for Senate approval of the U.S.-British-Soviet pact to outlaw all nuclear explosions except those under ground.

Invited to the session were members of the Senate armed services and joint atomic energy committees, both of which have an interest in the test-ban issue.

Rusk, seeking to counter possible arguments against the pact that some senators might raise, emphasized that the signing of the treaty by East Germany will in no way imply U.S. recognition of that Communist East German regime.

He said East German authorities will subscribe to the treaty in Moscow, and added:

"The Soviet Union may notify us of that act. We are under no obligation to accept that notification and we have no intention of doing so, but the East German regime would have committed itself to abide by the provisions of the treaty."

TREATY SIGNIFICANT

Telling the senators that this treaty may prove to be one of the most significant since the founding of the United States, Rusk said:

"The United States and the Soviet Union already have enough nuclear power to inflict enormous destruction on each other. Still, the search for bigger, more destructive weapons goes on. . . .

"Yet greater armament has not demonstrably brought greater security. The treaty, if observed, should slow this spiral, without damage to our relative strength.

Rusk expressed confidence that if any nation tries sneak testing in violation of the treaty, "we will know about it —and we will be ready at all times to resume testing in all environments, and promptly. . . ."

REDUCE POLLUTION

The state secretary also said the pact will help deter the spread of atomic weapons and reduce the radioactive pollution of this planet.

"If the promise of this treaty can be realized, if we can now take even this one step along a new course, the frail and fearful mankind may find another step and another until confidence replaces terror and hope takes over from despair. . . .

Storm Disrupts Seafair Race

SEATTLE (AP) — A tumultuous thunder and rain storm swirled across Seattle and Lake Washington Sunday, disrupting the Seafair Trophy hydroplane race and taxing emergency services in the area to capacity.

(For local storm story see Page 13).

Several boats were overturned on the big lake just east of the city as wind gusts up to 30 miles an hour swept across the packed area where the course for the unlimited hydroplane race is laid out.

A log boom where hundreds of pleasure boats were moored to view the race broke in several places.

No deaths or severe injuries were reported despite the confusion from the rush to cover from the crowded beaches and along the log boom.

In the Vancouver area the wind hit when hundreds of persons were fishing in small boats. A marina operator at Horseshoe Bay in suburban West Vancouver said there must have been 200 boats in the area when the wind struck.

Many boats were swamped in the rising seas caused by the sudden wind.

The storm swept on into the B.C. interior and fears were expressed that the associated lightning would start fires in forests that have not had appreciable rain this month.

More than 200 small forest fires were started by lightning in Washington and Oregon.

JOMO KENYATTA

Whites Cheer Mau Mau Head

NAIROBI (AP) — White European farmers who lived through the Mau Mau emergency applauded Prime Minister Joma Kenyatta today when he urged them to forgive and forget and work with African natives for a new Kenya.

"If I have made a mistake I ask you to forgive me and vice versa," Kenyatta told the settlers. This was the first time white farmers had attended a Kenyatta meeting since his release form a seven-year jail sentence for organizing and being a member of the terrorist Mau Mau.

Many said before going to today's meeting that Kenyatta's speech would enable them to decide whether to stay in Kenya.

Kenyatta was loudly applauded when he said:

"We want you to stay and to farm well in this country. Let us try to join hands for the benefit of Kenya. This is the policy of the government. All of us — white, black and yellow — are going to join hands and look forward to the future. In agriculture, finance and the civil service we need your continued co-operation."

B.C. Electric Talks Started

VANCOUVER (CP)—Representatives of the provincial government and the British Columbia Power Corporation today began talks aimed at reaching an out-of-court settlement in the confused B.C. Electric Company situation.

GIRLS OF AFRICAN NATIONS SHOWING WAY

Bra-Less Swims in Europe by '73?

LONDON (Reuters) — European women by 1973 probably will think nothing of sunbathing on a beach in bare bosoms, an authoritative British fashion magazine predicted today.

Tailor and Cutter, which usually confines itself to men's fashions, said increased travel and sun worshipping all tended toward the nude upper half.

An article called Keeping Abreast of Fashion said that with the rising importance of the Negro races the traditional styles of African tribes may set future fashions.

It quoted one of Italy's leading couturiers, Emilio Pucci, as saying recently he thought European women would find nothing strange or scandalous in leaving off their bras in public.

"The less artificial and far more natural scope of the physical life of the girl in the African interior means that she will inevitably shape up a deal more happily without bust support than does her white sister," the article said.

"Devoid of a bra since first she needed one, the African girl is as good as a male: Firm, muscular and shaped as nature intended.

"Debilitated by centuries of artificial civilization, cramped into the peculiar shapes. . . which hinder their natural development, white women may need a century or two of freedom before their idle chest muscles can once again overcome the effects of near-atrophy . . ."

James Hawkins of Victoria is one of 35 full-time ministers enrolled in the McGarvey Fellowship program at Abilene Christian College, Texas.

Purpose of the program, now in its second year of operation, is to provide a greater appreciation of the Restoration Movement and its relation to modern religious thought.

Joining Hawkins in this program of study are ministers from 15 of the United States, the Canal Zone, Mexico and Ontario.

The fellowships provide room, board, tuition and fees. Courses offered are "Biblical Criticism and Modern Thought" by Dr. J. D. Thomas, and "The Restoration Movement" by Dr. J. W. Roberts.

. . . RUSK

"For 18 years we have held the Communist drive in check largely by the deterrent force of our massive military strength. We shall maintain that overwhelming strength until we are certain that freedom can be assured by other means.

"But throughout we have known that a lasting peace could not be founded upon armed might alone. It can be secured only by durable international institutions and by a respect for law and its procedures. . . ."

In response to other questions, Rusk testified that the U.S. will continue its program of underground testing and be in a state of readiness to resume other types of testing.

He also testified he believes the U.S. should maintain its Johnston Island testing ground in the Pacific in full readiness in case it becomes necessary to resume atmospheric testing.

Rusk also said that if the U.S. perfected a technique for digging a harbor or a canal with atomic explosions, he thought it could be done under the treaty.

But he said that the thought the treaty would prohibit a space craft propelled by a series of nuclear explosions—though not one driven by nuclear reactors.

LOCAL BRIEFS

There was a spectacular four-car collision on Pat Bay Highway during Sunday afternoon's thunderstorm but no one was injured.

The pile-up occurred at Beaver Lake entrance when a line of heavy traffic slowed. Visibility was poor in the heavy rain.

In the lead was a vehicle driven by Winifred Atkines, 2740 Doncaster. A car driven by George Jackson, 3600 Doncaster, ran into the rear of her car, according to Saanich police.

Then, police said, a car driven by Leslie H. Smith, 2011 Crest Road, ran into the rear of Mr. Jackson's vehicle. It in turn was rammed by a car driven by Peter A. Hedstrom, 312 Beechwood.

* * *

A woman injured when her car went out of control early Sunday on Wallace Drive at West Saanich Road is reported in good condition today at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Saanich police said Miss Shirley Joynson, 512 Simcoe, lost control of her car as she drove out of Wallace on to West Saanich. The car hit an embankment.

Miss Joynson was taken to hospital with knee and wrist abrasions.

U.S. Warns Disarmers

GENEVA (Reuters) — The United States warned the 17-nation disarmament conference today against "exaggerated hopes and irrational exceptions" following the partial nuclear test-ban accord signed in Moscow last week.

American delegate Charles Stelle said it would be difficult to remain patient "especially after having tasted the first fruit of success in 18 years. . ."

"Agreements on further measures, no matter how much we all desire them, may not come quickly, for the problems and differences which have prevented any agreement for so long have not yet been resolved.

Deportation For Hanna

MONTREAL (CP)—George Christian Hanna, the man without a country, has been arrested aboard a ship in Montreal harbor, it was disclosed today.

A spokesman for the immigration department indicated an attempt will be made again to deport the swarthy, stocky sailor.

The spokesman said Hanna was picked up Sunday aboard he Egyptian freighter Star of Suez.

. . . BANK RATE

moting conditions favorable to economic expansion while helping to maintain international balance.

MAINTAIN POSITION

"The change announced today should not restrict the availability of credit in Canada and it should help to maintain Canada's international payments position without having adverse effects on the balance of payments of other countries."

The rate had been set at 3½ per cent since May 6, when it was cut from four per cent in a move described by Mr. Rasminsky as an encouragement of easier credit and economic expansion.

The May 6 reduction was the fourth since the rate was fixed at six per cent in June, 1962, as part of the government austerity program to refill Canada's low foreign exchange reserves.

A low rate set by the Bank of Canada tends to make credit easier to obtain, but changes are not necessarily reflected in the rates of commercial lending institutions.

The central bank rate is rarely applied, and then only as a minimum charge on advances to the chartered banks. Before the 1962 austerity program, the rate was a floating one, fluctuating every week with the demands of the money market.

HOLDINGS INCREASED

The fixed rate of six per cent was dropped to 5½ last September, five per cent in October and four per cent in November. Each cut was preceded by a healthy increase in foreign exchange holdings.

President Kennedy's proposed tax on purchases of bonds and securities in Canada and 21 other countries was aimed at halting a drain from the U.S. foreign exchange reserves.

In Washington negotiations subsequent to the July 18 surprise announcement, the Canadian government won exemptions on new issues of stocks and bonds and on mortgages and private loans.

The tax proposal still is before Congress and strong opposition to it has developed in various U.S. quarters as well as from the Japanese government.

Mr. Gordon said Wednesday the U.S. government has left the door open for further discussions about a possible total Canadian exemption from the U.S. tax.

Nasser Stirs Fresh Crisis

CAIRO (Reuters) — New tensions loomed in the Middle East today following a declaration by President Nasser that Egyptian armed forces are preparing to "wash out the shame" of the 1948 Arab-Israeli war.

In a welcome-home speech at Alexandria Sunday to 1,500 Egyptian troops returning from fighting on the republican side in the Yemen civil war, Nasser said:

"You must prepare to restore to the Palestinian Arabs their usurped rights. We must put right the humiliation which the Arabs suffered in 1948."

The Vancouver Island Better Business Bureau, established almost a year ago, now has over 450 members and is expected to top 500 members by the end of the year.

Manager William Tindall said that Eric Slegg of Slegg Bros. of Sidney and Robert Gibson of the Gibson Shopping Centre, Sooke, have been added to the boar dof directors.

'WHITE CLOUD HANGING NEAR THE GROUND'

Poison Spray Sickens 38

TOPPENISH, Wash. (AP) — "I noticed this kind of white cloud sort of hanging near t' ground, so I went out of my shed and there on t ground were two of my heifers dead.

"Then three more fell over and my 10 other cows began coughing and heaving, dropping and getting up. In a minute or two I started to choke and could hardly breath."

This was how rancher Ray Cerna, 51, described the start of a freak crop dusting mishap that sent 38 men, women and children to a hospital Saturday night after exposure to a poisonous insecticide.

Only four were kept overnight—Cerna, his son, Tony, 19, Tony's seven-month-old daughter, Sonya, and another rancher, Pedro Batin, 55. They were released Sunday morning and doctors said none suffered any lasting ill effects.

The 38 were residents of an area of a little more than a square mile in the lower Yakima Valley about seven miles west of here. Everyone in the area was evacuated for observation and treatment.

The state agriculture department ordered an immediate investigation.

A weather condition known as a thermal inversion held the toxic spray in the air instead of allowing it to settle normally to the ground. Two crop dusting planes were applying the insecticide in the early evening to a hop field near Cerna's vegetable farm.

Chinese Rap United States' Race Problems

PEKING (Reuters) — Two Russian correspondents today walked out of a 10,000-strong rally here today at which trade union leader Liu Ning Yi attacked the Kennedy administration for "fascist atrocities" against American Negroes.

The newspaper men staged the third such Russian walkout in less than two weeks at a point in Liu's speech when he attacked the Soviet government for signing the partial nuclear test ban treaty.

Among those present at the rally condemning racial discrimination in the United States, held in Peking's parliament building, were Premier Chou En-lai, Foreign Minister Chen Yi and diplomatic envoys of African countries. Liu also said American Negroes will one day become the real masters of the United States.

TAKE SPOTLIGHT

American racial troubles took the spotlight here last week when Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung made his first public statement in nearly four years on the subject.

Today, it replaced China's campaign against the Soviet Union as the No. 1 theme in the Chinese press, with editorials, reports, articles, poems and cartoons.

Diplomatic observers see the campaign as aimed at influencing African opinion and making Africans see the Chinese as their true champion in contrast to the Russians who now are accused of selling out the interests of the African people.

Liu portrayed President Kennedy as a man "conniving with the Ku Klux Klan and the white citizens' councils."

Kennedy's Civil Rights Bill and other measures were described as "hypocritical promises which he has no intention of carrying out."

Liu also criticized the Russians, calling them "certain self-styled Marxist Leninists" for "whitewashing" Kennedy.

VIOLENCE ONLY WAY

He said "reactionaries and revisionists" (Americans and Russians) were trying to persuade American Negroes to use only peaceful means while recent events had shown that violent struggle was the only correct way for Negroes.

Liu, vice-chairman of the All-China Trade Union Federation, said the Negro struggle had "dealt a heavy blow to the reactionary Kennedy administration."

Predicting that Negroes will one day rule the United States, he said: "The future does not belong to the imperialists or the racists. The American Negro will become the real masters of the U.S. Long live the victory of the American Negro."

U.S. OFFERS $50 MILLION FOR QUAKE-HIT SKOPJE

BRDO, Yugoslavia (AP) — The United States offered Yugoslavia $50,000,000 Sunday to help rebuild the earthquake-shattered city of Skopje.

The offer was made, after consultations by visiting Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman and immediately accepted by President Tito.

The money would be in Yugoslav dinars of which the United States has acquired an excess through the sale of surplus farm products to Yugoslavia.

Freeman said half of the sum would be an outright grant and the other half a long-term loan.

TRAVEL COSTS HIT MPs

Pay Boost Fine But Inequitable

Greater Victoria's Conservative MP George Chatterton has defended pay raises for members of parliament, but says they are not equitable.

The Esquimalt-Saanich member had sought adjustments to MP's travelling allowances.

This would benefit members such as himself—with more than 9,000 miles a year to travel just getting to and from Ottawa—and help them to come out as well off as Ontario members when salaries are counted.

At the same time, he is prepared to take part of the responsibility for salary and allowance increases that put the Canadian MP in the $18,000-a-year category.

The last session voted for $4,000 boosts in both salaries and non-taxable allowances for a total $18,000, compared with the old $10,000 of which only $2,000 was tax-free.

Mr. Chatterton admits his own case may be extreme, having fought three election campaigns in two years. He also has a family of four children of school age which he must move across the country.

"Two thousand dollars is inadequate for that purpose," he said.

"People in Ontario don't have to maintain two houses, two cars . . . I'm not begrudging the $6,000 to Ontario members, but it is true that their expenses are not as great.

"People who go a long way have had to spend money out of their own pockets."

LOSES CONTACT

But the member refuses to relinquish his home in Victoria as a means of beating the expense.

"If a member lives in Ottawa he loses contact with his constituents," Mr. Chatterton said.

With membership in the federal House now a full-time job, many good potential candidates are reluctant to run. The raises should correct this situation, he said.

Mr. Chatterton agrees with Tory leader John Diefenbaker that the leaders of the smaller minority parties should not have been granted additional allowances besides the general pay hike.

This, the Conservative leader feels, will perpetuate the smaller parties in the House, which goes against British parliamentary tradition.

Treaty Lists 42 Nations

LONDON (AP)—Six more envoys signed the British copy of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty today, bringing the total to 42 since the treaty was opened for signing in London last week.

Signatures also are being taken in Washington and Moscow. Some nations are signing in all three capitals, others in only one or two. Any signature on the treaty binds the country to refrain from testing nuclear weapons in any environment except underground.

Today's signers in London represented Tunisia, Iceland, Malaya, Loas, Trinidad and Tobago and Sweden.

Cuban Power Fight

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The exile newspaper Patria says a struggle for power is under way in Cuba among Premier Castro, Blas Roca and Ernesto Guevara. Patria says Castro is pro-Chinese, Communist party head Roca favors an independent line, and economic chief Guevara likes the Russians.

Duck Research Spurs Check On Pesticides

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interior Secretary Stewart Udall called on Congress today to lift the present $2,565,000 limit on appropriations for pesticide research, citing a new report on the complex effects of pesticides on wildlife.

The interior department report discloses that among samples of adult and young ducks and eggs collected more than 100 miles north of any known insecticide application, the eggs and immature ducks contained more pesticide residues than any adult samples.

DDT and related compounds were involved in the Canadian samples which were taken north of Great Slave Lake.

Scientists assume that the adult ducks were exposed to pesticides somewhere on migration on wintering areas and "passed the residues along to their progeny in a yet unexplained manner that apparently concentrates the chemical residues," the department said.

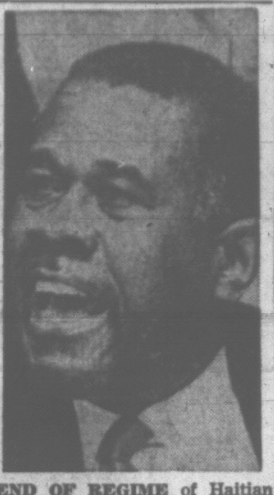
CONTAMINATION SPREADS

The report says "contamination of wild forms is widespread," despite a report by the entomological society of America that 75 per cent of the United States has never been treated by any insecticides and that only five per cent is treated each year.

Supporting its contention that contamination is widespread, the interior department report said "25 of 26 specimens of bald eagle analysed by the service contain DDT; and of 2,300 specimens of birds and mammals in 22 states and the three provinces of Canada, 75 per cent contained residues when analysed.

"Even in remote areas of the world animals have residues. Water fowl and their eggs in the far north and resident fish in streams in Alaska were collected on areas far from any known pesticide application, and they contained residues of insecticides as did the surrounding vegetation.

"Also, marine fish from different oceans of the world have been found to contain DDT."



END OF REGIME of Haitian dictator Francois Duvalier was called for in New York by Paul E. Magliore, former president of Haiti. "Everyone is united as a whole to get Duvalier out," he said. "We are behind the military activities of General Leon Cantave." (AP Wirephoto).

Red Crooks Executed

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Three men, including a factory's chief accountant, have been executed by firing squad for stealing and selling 6,250 women's sweaters, it was learned here today.

The latest issue of the newspaper Ukrainian Pravda reaching here said a gang of "robbers and bribe-takers" were tried by a court at Odessa. Three of them were jailed for 15 years each and three sentenced to be shot.

It said the group operated from two factories and managed to smuggle the sweaters out and sell them in Kiev stores.

Police confiscated cash and gold and silver found in the homes of some of the gang.

Cuba Fires Teachers

HAVANA (AP) — Fifty-six teachers have lost their jobs in Oriente province, the government disclosed Friday, because of "their lack of co-operation in activties of the teaching profession and other causes."

Party Shakeup in India Hits 15 Chief Ministers

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—Chief ministers of Indian states offered their resignations Saturday and all central cabinet colleagues were expected to follow suit after the ruling Congress party adopted a plan to shake itself up.

Several of Premier Jawaharlal Nehru's closest cabinet colleagues have offered their resignations. The mass resignation move will affect 15 central government ministers and 15 chief ministers of states.

The party's working committee will meet Aug. 20 to consider the question further. By that time Nehru is expected to have decided who should leave office to take up party work and who should stay.

REORGANIZE

The ministers were asked to resign so Nehru could pick those he wants to help reorganize the Congress party, a spokesman said.

Nehru himself had offered to resign but Saturday decided to stay on at the party's request.

The 73-year-old prime minister appears to have lost much of the firm and steady grip on events that have guided India since it gained independence 16 years ago.

Indian opposition parties will likely join forces to move a motion of no confidence in the government but it is not expected to be approved because of the Congress party's large majority.

WEAKNESS SEEN

Three main issues have made many Indians seriously question Nehru's leadership, believing he has shown hesitancy and weakness as head of the government:

An agreement signed by India with the Voice of America for the use of a powerful American transmitter, to be based in Calcutta, in return for broadcasting use three hours a day. The agreement is a breach of India's non-alignment policy, many Indians believe, and Nehru is seeking its revision, saying it had not been considered by the cabinet;

The joint air exercises planned over India by British and U.S. forces this fall, aimed at training Indians in the use of radar. Nehru's critics claim the exercises are preparation for an air umbrella over India, which Nehru has refused to accept, in case of Communist Chinese attack;

Whether Nehru, who has shown signs lately of age in his fading voice, his tired eyes and his lack of decision, is losing his grip on the party leadership.

This weakness of command has come at a time when India is faced with renewed fears of Chinese invasion.

Cutting the Cake

WHEN PREMIER BENNETT naturally prides himself on producing another revenue surplus last year of some $40 millions, obviously he is in no position to demand larger revenues from the federal government. If he has any sense of national responsibility he will not do so. But other provinces, mainly Ontario and Quebec, still regard the federal treasury as inexhaustible.

The first approach to the old problem of dividing Canada's cake fairly is a federal-provincial conference on Mr. Pearson's plan for municipal loans, but this, in the wider context, must be regarded as peripheral. A little later on the national and provincial governments will meet to consider a complete re-division of their revenue fields.

If Ontario and Quebec have their way, the federal government will retreat still further, after many former retreats, out of the income, corporate and estate tax fields. Where can it then raise enough money to pay its bills?

The provincial governments never answer that question. How Ottawa finances its budget is strictly its own business, though the taxpayer knows that all the money will come out of his pocket no matter which government collects it.

The forthcoming federal-provincial conference, like the many others in the past, thus tackles its problems with the cart placed before the horse. Instead of arguing about the division of revenues all our governments should first consider how much they can afford to spend in total, how much the taxpayer can afford, what the traffic will bear.

It is not bearing even the present load of the federal government and of several provincial governments. That is plain from huge federal and provincial deficits. If they are to be cured only by tax increases the cost of maintaining a household or producing any product in Canada will be drastically raised.

If this is what our eleven governments intend, let them say so and then the public will know, at least, where it stands. Much better, the governments should fix, in round figures, the amount of money that they can prudently take from the taxpayer, the tax burden that the nation's econmy can carry and still remain competitive at home and abroad. After this approximate measurement has been taken it will be time enough to consider how much of the available revenue should be taken by the federal, how much by the provincial governments.

In considering this question all the provinces should remember that none of them can escape the present derangement of federal finance, that all of them should co-operate in repairing it in their own selfish interests if they are not concerned with the broader interests of the nation.

Mr. Nehru In Trouble

CONTINUING PRESSURE from Red China, dissension among his ministers and public doubts over his ability to set a resolute, definite path for India are all combining to create trouble for Prime Minister Nehru.

As India's parliament prepares to meet tomorrow for its monsoon session, sharp criticism is emerging from the opposition. The defence against it is weakened by ministers working at cross purposes in vital departments and Mr. Nehru's apparent reluctance to fulfill his pledge to bring them into line with the shake-up he promised and which most informed Indians consider necessary. The wholesale resignation of ministers may bring about a more effective administration but doubts linger.

The once all-popular successor to Mahatma Gandhi is no longer the leader whose policies and personal leadership remain above question. His position is apparently deteriorating after the revival of strength it drew from the unifying forces of Red China's earlier thrusts in the northern mountains.

Not that Nehru lacks friends and supporters. One senior national Congress member declares that "It is a national disgrace to burden today a man who carried all our burdens so valiantly for 16 years."

But while these words may represent a substantial amount of public sentiment, the question persists: "Is that man prepared to shed any or all of his burdens and, if so, are his colleagues now prepared to lift them as a team without rancor and mutual competition."

In the relatively new independent nation of India, Mr. Nehru's government shows the familiar signs of growing old. How enfeebling the process may be could be shown in the coming parliamentary session.

The Water Board Lesson

PLANS FOR THE SECOND stage of the Greater Victoria Water District tunnel to bring supplies from Sooke Lake to Goldstream have been approved. They present to the people of this community an interesting example of prudent financing as well as the virtues of a unified service.

This is a Greater Victoria project insofar as the water authority includes representatives from the city and surrounding municipalities.

By careful management the authority has built up sufficient funds to pay for the next stage in tunnel driving. The funds have come from bulk water sales and from watershed logging returns. When the job is started during the winter, costs will be met without borrowing, and hence without debt charges. The project will also benefit from federal subsidy as a winter works project.

This is part of an over-all plan to bring sufficient water for a future lower-island population of 500,000 to a delivery point, eliminate the need for repair and replacement of a round-about pipe that snakes its way over almost four times as many miles above ground as the direct route, and will provide better service in the process.

Its prudent financing is possible because the consumers of Greater Victoria have paid a little more for their supplies in the last year or two and because the market for watershed timber, logged selectively, has been favorable to the seller.

In this stage of development the water district is concerned specifically with delivery of water to Goldstream. Eventually, and in progressive stages, greater volume and greater pressure will be assured to give Saanich improved service.

The point which should be noted, particularly by Saanich, is that joint action by the city and municipal representatives, "amalgamated" for this purpose, is producing results of exceptional promise to the northern municipality. Here is a utility to which many people in Saanich should give consideration when they voice their fears over loss of autonomy through unification of services for general community benefit.

What's Going On Down There?

IN THE INTERESTS OF NAtional defence, food potential and further mineral exploitation, the United States is being urged to triple its expenditure on studies of the sea by 1972.

A figure reaching $350 million in that year would do much, authorities say, to pick up the slack in oceanographic research. That tempo of research, it is suggested, would help to close the gap between American and Russian studies of the ocean and provide the United States with much of the information it lacks in an age when submarines have found the fabled "northwest" passage and when the mountains and valleys under the sea are of vital topographical interest to nuclear-powered submarines.

The need is not only for broader study. Also essential is better equipment, more effective vessels and greater opportunity for the development of underwater scientists.

It would be pleasant to believe that this campaign for more research was concerned only with increasing the food supply of the world and exploiting more of the wealth on and under the ocean floor. That is vastly important, of course. But President Kennedy's comments on oceanography and the desirability of extending knowledge in the field, have struck a somewhat more ominous note. "Knowledge of the oceans," he said, "is more than a matter of curiosity. Our very survival may depend on it."

With ocean on all but one of its sides, Canada will doubtless be deeply interested in what the American studies may achieve.

THE AGE OF THE MODEL T

By B. A. TOBIN

When a Car Was More Than a Car

THE bond of affection between the Arab and his steed has long been admired as an example of one of the world's finest sentiments. Despite the fact that few persons can claim to have come across an actual, direct quote on the topic from any Arab's horse it is taken for granted that such mutual affection has existed. And it is significant of our mechanical age that many who may have doubts about that man-and-horse relationship will readily give credence to claims of a similar bond of affection between man and car.

Tobin

I was sharply reminded of this while looking through the current issue of Newsweek, in which the better part of a page is given over to a picture and admiring recollections of the Model T Ford. The particular model they showed was the two-seater coupe, and it stirred the corpuscles to see it for it was a faithful depiction of one I once owned.

Memory, to be truthful, holds mine as even shorter, narrower and taller than the one pictured, but this may be due to the erosion of time.

Proud Beauty

It was about 1931 when I bought Scrammy. It was standing by the sidewalk at a service station where the Douglas Building now rises, and it was beautiful. I believe it must have been a 1921 model or close to it, otherwise, even with the reasonable prices of those days, it would not have been selling for $65.

Black—as all Fords from 1914 to 1925 were—tall enough that one could almost stand upright within its shapely square body, high off the ground so that no conceivable rut could deter it, its nickelled coffin handles shining bravely on each of its two doors, the handle of its crank reaching invitingly near any passerby, it was a sight to inspire affection in anyone.

I was inspired. I bought it.

I thus began an affair that was to end only with the death of Scrammy in front of an undertaking parlor one evening some three years later. Somewhere, even today, I am sure that at least a part of Scrammy still lives—a brass hubcap perhaps, or a wheel bolt, a piece of indestructible tin from a mudguard, or a sheet of glass from its encompassing windows.

New Life

Or perhaps, through a process of industrial metempsychosis, the steel of Scrammy lives on today in a Rolls Royce or some other fitting form.

No mere mechanical contraption could have survived the injuries which Scrammy survived; no mere conglomeration of wood, metal and rubber could have given the service demanded and received. Only the addition of some intangible quality—determination, devotion, love, call it what you will—could have kept Scrammy on the road.

As time went on, Scrammy went on, but it needed help. It had a windshield wiper, but the windshield wipers of 1921 operated by hand. While the driver's feet juggled with the reverse, brake and low-high pedals, the left hand held the wheel and the right draped gracefully over the hand throttle. Even today I imagine you could spot a Model T man by his steering—that left hand up at the top of the wheel does it all.

Visibility Nil

It was the windshield wiper system that rang the deathknell for Scrammy. One dark night when rain lashed the broad expanse of windshield and there wasn't time to keep the wiper moving, it seemed a good idea to follow the streetcar tracks into town from Victoria West. But the track passed within 18 inches of a telephone pole, and so did Scrammy.

The broken front spring was easily repaired: A block of wood lashed to the axle with wire held the leaves at almost proper height. The resulting list, which threw the radiator hose connection adrift, was solved by using a piece of stretchy inner tube for a hose. The crack in the crankcase could not be closed, but bottles of crankcase gleanings, bought for 10 cents a quart and poured in frequently, kept things running.

But it proved a mortal wound in the end. Big-end bearings occasionally shuddered their bolts off, to fall into the oil pan. The latter accumulated a thick layer of metal scrapings, reamings and bits. And although connecting rods could be replaced handily for about 50 cents at the junk yard, and tires and inner tubes could similarly be purchased for 10 to 50 cents, there was something about a broken shaft that spelled finality.

A junkman paid me $5 for Scrammy's remains, although I am sure they were worth four times that then — and forty times that today.

A Press View of Britain's Press

An Editorial in The Manchester Guardian Weekly

OTHER things have been prostituted, in the salacious case in which Stephen Ward was found guilty last week on two charges of living on immoral earnings, than the bodies of a few young girls. One of them, not discussed much because it is so personal, is the idea of genuine and durable human relationships, of the close bond between a man and a woman which includes a physical sex relationship but is not circumscribed by it; another is the function of the press.

The immense publicity focused on the girls and their clients, and on the tawdry high living they enjoy, has served to glorify a way of life which is without truth or beauty or any of the depth of fellowship and understanding which men and women are able to share.

The girls concerned have been acclaimed daily for so many weeks that some of their juniors must be asking whether this is not the life for them. (The "Mandy Club" started by some 15-year-olds may be an outcrop of sick humor, or it may be something more significant.)

Not Final

Ward is dead; the "Ward case" as such is over. But it is not necessarily the last of its kind, and one is bound to ask whether sections of the press have not set a new low standard by which they will judge their future achievements. If Miss Keeler and Miss Rice-Davies are still proud of their profession, many a journalist must be ashamed of his.

These newspapers—and they may as well be named as the "Daily Mirror," the "Sunday Mirror" and the "News of the World" — have deliberately debased values which a civilized society cannot afford to be without. The Mirror group (chairman Mr. Cecil King) and the "News of the World" (chairman Sir William Carr) have competed for the privilege of purveying pornography, as defined in the Oxford English Dictionary as "the description of the life, manners, etc., of prostitutes and their patrons."

Large Sums

Large sums of money have been paid to augment the immoral earnings of prostitutes, so that the newspapers' readers could share vicariously in this concept of the good life. The "News of the World," to do it justice, did not claim to start with any principles other than that, however foul the muck-heap, the people have a right to see it raked.

The Mirror group did. It claims that its high principles sometimes have to be overridden in the national interest. On June 20 the "Daily Mirror" told its readers that a newspaper had a duty to publish facts "particularly when the press has satisfied itself that democracy, or the basis of the British way of life, or the public interest is at stake." It went on:

"This conceded, this duty fulfilled, the "Daily Mirror" group of newspapers agrees with Lord Shawcross that pimps, prostitutes, and perverts should not benefit from their notoriety or degradation."

Simpler Task

Ward could hardly have disclaimed notoriety and degradation. His defence counsel last week told the jury that, "If this trial was concerned with establishing that Ward led a thoroughly immoral life, a demoralized and undisciplined life, your task would be a simple one."

This was said in defence of a man whose drawings the "Sunday Mirror" bought to show to its readers, and to whose portrait in his pyjama trousers the "Daily Mirror" devoted its front page on the opening day of the trial. Christine Keeler is the girl for whose biography the Mirror group negotiated and whose doings, whether relevant to the trial or not, it has faithfully chronicled ever since. What feature of democracy or the British way of life does the "Mirror" suggest it is protecting by putting money into these pockets?

The question has a judicial as well as a social aspect. An article in a newspaper is not a sworn statement, but if the ostensible author gives evidence later on the subject of his or her article, it will be thought odd if the two accounts do not agree. Dr. Ward's counsel, in his closing speech, addressed the jury about the reliability of witnesses, and observed that a woman who is living with a man might have some spite against him, or a woman might have some sort of financial or mercenary motive for telling a story. "Every person in this case," Miss Rice-Davies said at the committal hearing, "is under contract to some newspaper."

Bad Influence

Is there not an inducement to others to seek contracts by out-Keelering Keeler in their revelations which, if false, might pervert the course of justice? Is this a point which the "News of the World" considered before deciding to join the auction for the most salacious revelations? And did it consider whether the purchase of memoirs might help to stimulate further activities of the kind recounted, implied, or hinted at in them?

August 12, 1903 — Paris: Eighty-four bodies have been recovered and the death list probably will exceed one hundred in the underground railway disaster which occurred here last night.

August 12, 1923 — Dublin: It was officially announced today that there will be no immediate release of political prisoners.

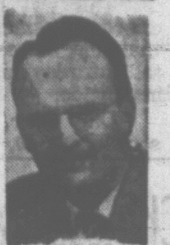
August 12, 1943 — London: Aneta, Netherlands news agency, reported today the execution by the Germans of 16 additional patriots in Holland.

OTTAWA:

No Early Election

By Victor Mackie

NOW THAT members of parliament are receiving indemnities of $18,000 there is little likelihood that there will be an early election. The M.P.'s who have been scrambling to try and make ends meet, often without success, will not be inclined to toss aside their new comfortable income for the hazards and high cost of an election campaign.



Mackie

While the members of the opposition may mutter and make sounds about bringing about the downfall of the Liberal minority adminstration there is some doubt here that they really mean the threats. Latest to talk tough and declare, as a warning to the Liberals, that the "honeymoon is over", is the New Democratic Party.

But when the time comes in the House of Commons to turn-out and vote to defeat the government there will be probably a large number of opposition members who will be counted among the missing. Certainly during the last hectic days of the session that closed this month for the summer recess it was absenteeism by opposition members that saved the government from defeat.

For example in the last few hours before the House rose there was a vote called on a move to kill the controversial sales tax on building materials and machinery. When the vote was tabulated it was found there were 48 of the 95 Conservatives in the House, 11 of the 24 Social Crediters and 13 of the 17 New Democrats. The three opposition parties voted together. But between them they could only muster 72 votes against the Liberals 91 votes.

Out of the 264 voting members — excluding the speaker—101 were absent or did not vote because they were paired. Reports were that a total of 28 were paired which would mean that 73 were absent or deliberately stayed away from the chamber when the vote was taken.

No member of parliament wants an early election.

Many of them are still paying off the expenses of the last two campaigns, or at least of the 1963 contest. They want to recoup financially before they go into another battle. The new raise in pay to $18,000 including $6,000 in tax free expenses will go a long way towards meeting the bills.

Favorable Remarks

Bob Thompson, the leader of the Social Credit group, has had some favorable things to say about the Liberal administration. The Progressive Conservative are busy rebuilding their party and organization after the disasters of the cabinet disintegration prior to the last election and the defeat at the polls.

The NDP is the only group in opposition that is making noises about seriously challenging the minority government. But part of this could be discounted as a pep talk for the rally of the faithful in Regina.

The Liberals least of all should be contemplating an early election. That party lost much of its prestige over the bungled budget and its bad footwork during the latter half of the last session. Now it has two months this summer to regain its balance and go into the resumed session after Sept. 30 more sure of itself.

But there is no doubt that the budget and the way that the raise in indemnities was handled, did little to enhance the popularity of the Liberal party in the country. It will want at least a year to pass before thinking of a general election. By that time it may have rebuilt its prestige and regained the confidence of the electorate.

After their two months' summer vacation the M.P.'s should return to parliament ready to settle down to some work. There are several thorny problems ahead.

The Canadian contributory pension legislation will arouse a prolonged debate. The enactment of a law to provide a trusteeship for five maritime unions and thereby seek to stop violence and strife on the Great Lakes may produce lengthy arguments. The agreement between Canada and the United States for the acquisition of nuclear weapons by Canada will be sure to provoke a verbal explosion.

With such questions before them M.P.'s should be in their seats.

As Our Readers See It

New Era

Walter Lippmann's article of July 15, under the heading "Entering New Era", would seem to show it to be very shallow thinking to think of the word revolution as belonging exclusively to Russia.

In fact Russia has been merely one of the tools used by the master hand to move the Western nations into helping the backward countries to keep them from turning Communist in order to carry out the fulfilment of the prophecy in Isaiah 40:4 where it says every valley (low level of society) shall be exalted, and every mountain (kingdom) shall be brought low. Look what has happened in regard to this last since 1914. Indeed, during the war Professor Julian Huxley quoted H. G. Wells' statement that we were in the midst of one of the great historical world revolutions and it was made possible by science and its application and mentioned "the astonishing increase of knowledge due to scientific facts which have laid the foundation for the great change."

Couple this statement with the prophecy by Daniel 12:4 that at the time of the end (of the old era) knowledge would be increased together with Igor Sikorsky's experience of having knowledge given to him for his inventions through what he called intuition, and other inventors such as Thomas Edison receiving help in this way, and we have further evidence of a supernatural intelligence giving foreknowledge to the prophets centuries ago of His plan for the betterment of earthly affairs which we see being carried out today.

Isaiah 40 also stated that the crooked shall be made straight, which could account for the upheaval in human affairs until this is fully accomplished.

'No Other People Could Have Withstood What Russians Did'

By ALAN HARVEY

MOSCOW (CP) — Any Canadian wishing to peer behind the stony Soviet mask of veto and recrimination should have a word with Ellen Romanova. She knows the story from the inside.

She has lived through it for the last three decades, sharing privation and suffering with her Soviet countrymen as the world's first socialist revolution bumped along its stoical course from dirt roads and mud huts in 1917 to space ships and sputniks in 1963.

She is a unique "Canadian" interpreter of the Soviet scene because she was born in Winnipeg and grew up there and in Saskatoon, acquiring an accent that still has an impeccable Prairie twang; because she is neither an embittered misfit nor a one-track zealot; and because she flaunts a stubborn independence rare in this intimidated capital of communism.

Thirty-one years ago Ellen Romanova sat in a Grade 8 classroom in William Whyte school in Winnipeg, serenely contemplating many happy years in Canada. Months later, at the age of 16, she was in the Soviet Union with her mother and two young brothers, there to stay through thick and thin.

With a balanced view maintained even at the height of the Stalinist terror, Mrs. Romanova acknowledges that "mistakes were made in the past" but appeals for a greater effort of understanding by the West, saying she sincerely believes closer contacts could do much for both sides.

"No other people in the world could have withstood what the Russians did," she said.

"They started from scratch. They had nothing after the revolution — no doctors, no teachers, no engineers, nothing. The country was hundreds of years back in the sticks. The people were mostly illiterate.

"The aristocrats and the experts were either dead or had fled. Thousands of motherless, fatherless, homeless children roamed the country ragged and starving, hanging out in hovels or banding together to steal.

"Men and women exhausted from lack of sleep and overwork, hardly able to do their sums, went to evening classes, existing mainly on black bread and cabbage soup."

When the people finally built something "out of their blood and sinews" along came the war and knocked it all down.

Talking breathlessly once she got started, this spunky, big-hearted woman, who was once a raving beauty and still draws stares at 46, poured out the story of a crowded life, in snatches on a park bench beside the huge Lenin sports stadium and later in her two-room, ninth-floor apartment by the Moscow River.

ELLEN ROMANOVA

PROUD OF BATHROOM

Over a dish called summer flapjacks made from a recipe in the July, 1958, number of an English magazine, she apologized for the glaring green paint—"never get around to a finishing layer"—and pointed to a pile of Pat Boone records.

"I love the language I was born with and listening to the records brings back happy memories."

She motioned to the bathroom. "And that's my pride and joy. I'm in it two to five times a day, no kidding. I can't get over the novelty of having a bath of my own. I'm a fish by nature."

Mrs. Romanova, nee Giventhal, is a sturdy, spirited, good-natured woman with handsome copper hair. She has been through so much that nothing worries her now. She spares no effort for people she likes and is careless about money.

The move that changed her life came in 1932. Her mother, from a poor family in the Ukraine, emigrated to Canada in 1910 after working as a governess. There she met and married another Ukraine emigrant, by coincidence one of her former pupils.

The marriage broke up. The determined woman from the Ukraine went back to Russia, taking her three children though she knew the difficulties.

'BIG ADVENTURE'

"No words can describe it," recalls Ellen. "When I think back I am astonished that it all seemed one big adventure. The Russia that I live in today is a new world.

"Everything was so different then. The inconveniences were boundless. To people living in established countries it is hard to convey the full flavor. You have to live through it, live with it.

"There was the drabness of it all, the way people dressed, the lack of amenities—and yet there was the tremendous friendliness and the joy of the people when they found we had come to share their troubles and help restore their ravished country.

"They had a pride in the fact that it was their country, that it belonged to them and depended entirely on their efforts. I think finally that the root of their strength and endurance lies in the knowledge that what has been achieved at such inhuman effort they will give up to no one whatever the cost."

After arriving from Canada, the family lived in an old hotel near the Kremlin. They had no room and the four of them took turns getting rest in a "kind of armchair thing" in the corridor —good training for tough post-war years when she lived 11 years in a basement room 12 feet square.

HUSBAND KILLED

Her first husband, a navy man, was killed in 1941 when his trawler hit a mine. Her kid brother Joe, a promising sculptor, died along with hundreds of young volunteers in an untold epic of heroism outside Moscow. Her other brother, Alex, lost his right leg below the knee after five operations. He now is a Moscow press photographer whose work has won awards in several countries, including Canada.

Mrs. Romanova is separated from her second husband and lives with her 23-year-old student son by her first marriage. Her strong body and laughing eyes betray few signs of a gruelling life. A pell-mell person, she dashes about Moscow in a small "tin can of a car" doing odd jobs connected with the English language — translating, interpreting, dubbing films and teaching.

Her son was born in 1939 and she stayed at his side through the war, travelling on cattle trains, living in a cubby hole at a circus through the kindness of a group of midgets, selling her last Canadian dress to buy a tin pail full of butter and fat which was all the nourishment she could get for a long time.

SUPPORTS SYSTEM

She has no complaints about the past. Looking at conditions today, she says she is not a politician and therefore not competent to pronounce on the merits or demerits of any political system, but "what has been achieved here could not have been achieved under a different system.

"Everything had to be under centralized government control."

Communal services in the Soviet Union, she says, are the cheapest and best in the world. She praises the free medical services, nursery schools for children, the comprehensive educational system, the encouragement accorded special talents, the attention to sport, the extremely low rents for apartments and the stipends paid to worthy students in the free universities.

Mrs. Romanova's mother, who knew no English on landing in Canada and became a teacher in the language a year later, died in 1939. Ellen's father, Jack Giventhal, now 80, lives in Saskatoon.

"I would love to see dear old Dad and Canada once more. I think Canada is a wonderful country and the people are clean and healthy-minded.

"I am happy to have two great countries to call my own. There is so much trouble in the world. Two giant systems are at strife. The world wants peace. Surely a way can be found?"

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. WALTER ALVAREZ

Contact Lenses

Many people, and even some physicians keep asking if contact lenses can safely be used, or if there are any serious objections to them. Actually, I am much impressed by the fact that often, nowadays, when I meet an attractive woman, to my surprise I find that she is wearing contact lenses.

Alvarez

Such women tell me that they won't wear anything else. One of them just said, "If I can't wear contact lenses I won't wear any glasses." Occasionally this woman has to take a lens out for a few minutes when she has some dust in an eye. Also, at times, if she suddenly looks to one side, the lens will flip out and she has to catch it and put it back in. But these difficulties of course are minor and are to be disregarded.

It usually takes about two weeks for a person to get accustomed to the lenses. At first they are foreign bodies which, naturally, produce many tears. As one would expect, there are some hypersensitive persons who just can't or won't go through the period of adjustment.

A near-sighted person gets such a thrill when for the first time, standing at some distance from a mirror, she can see herself clearly as she never did before. Without glasses she saw only a blurred image of herself and the world.

* * *

I can imagine why some people just won't or can't wear contact lenses because they do not easily adjust to new and uncomfortable things. I'll never forget seeing a highly sensitive, nervous woman put on her first pair of bifocal glasses. In 30 seconds she had them off saying, "Throw them away; I won't wear them." She just wouldn't make any effort to get used to them.

To show that the big thing is to make an effort to adjust—I might say that I, who am more than normally sensitive to most stimuli, in 1932 was able to put on bifocal glasses and walk right out of the optician's office. While I had a little trouble with double vision on stairs, I soon got used to it; and that is the way people must behave with contact lenses. They must be patient until they can get accustomed to them.

There are cases in which a person with contact lenses scratches her cornea (the clear window of the eye). She should then immediately see her opthalmologist because any infection of a scratch might have serious consequences.

* * *

During the years between September, 1952, and December 31, 1959, Dr. Jeremiah Stamler and his associates, made a study of 275 men under the age of 50 who had one or more attacks of coronary heart disease.

Because women are much less likely to have a coronary attack than are men, it was thought worthwhile to study the effect of somewhat feminizing the men by giving them large doses of female hormone. The result was that the mortality rates in the treated group were reduced by about a half.

Other similar studies, such as those of J. Marmorston and his associates alo indicated that treatment of this type can reduce the tendency of a heart attack to return. One objection is that some men object to the loss of sexual potency that results.

HOME GARDEN

Storm the Greenhouses!

At this time of year the amateur's greenhouse will be either full of plants or just about empty.

Jack

Houses operated on a year-round basis never seem to reach a nearly emtpy period, while those used only in spring are usually storage sheds for the rest of the year.

In my experience with both all-year and part-year structures, August has always proved the best period for a major clean-up and scrub-down.

It may be a little easier to find time for the job this month, certainly easier than it will be in the lawn-making and planting month of September. Also, the weather is usually settled enough to be able to put most greenhouse plants outdoors for a few days.

For that is the first part of the job, to get the house emptied of plants or the hundred and one items that find shelter in an unused house.

Next comes a thorough sweep-down to remove cobwebs from rafters, walls, under benches, and every nook and corner. This is followed by a thorough hosing with enough force to dislodge unwanted residents but not quite enough to push out the glass.

Soap and water comes next. A lot of us are getting a little hazy on the benefits of good old Florence Nightingale soap and water cleanliness, and there are the younger ones who have never been enlightened in this matter.

A pail of suds and a long-handled, round-headed brush do a good job on the inside and outside of the structure. Include the glass, the woodwork, the brickwork or the concrete.

To the suds can be added a few drops of disinfectant such as lysol. This is a dilute carbolic acid, so be sure not to use enough to harm the hands or burn the face if splashed.

A final hose-down and then the repairs. Replace cracked panes, repin and putty loose ones, repair vents and see that hinges are tight. Painting, both inside and outside, should be done every year to preserve the woodwork. Check and repair the heating system.

The last job is the washing of all the pots containing plants to be returned to the building. This will help considerably in controlling pests during the winter.

A clean, snug greenhouse on a winter's day is worth this bit of work in August.

LOCAL GRAIN SHIPMENTS SHOW HUGE INCREASE

Grain shipments through Victoria totalled 6,221,897 bushels in the 1962-63 crop year which ended July 31 — a rise of more than 1,000,000 bushels from the previous year.

Port of Vancouver shipments were the third highest on record at 153,052,812 bushels while volume at Prince Rupert and New Westminster dropped from previous years.

Red China was the largest single market from grain handled through B.C. ports at 51,700,000 bushels followed by Japan at 47,300,000 bushels.

Banks Decline in Wavering Market

Increase in the Bank of Canada discount rate was reflected in declines in bank stocks today while prices in other stocks wavered uncertainly.

International Nickel, with a rise of 1¾ to 65½ helped pull up the Toronto industrial index fractionally.

There was a special transaction in Toronto of 5,000 shares of B.C. Power at 24 with the stock easing off to 23⅞.

AT TORONTO prices wavered uncertainly during light mid-afternoon trading. Golds advanced.

Royal Bank fell 1¼ to 71½ and Bank of Nova Scotia was down 1 to 68½. Other losers were Bank of Montreal ⅝, Toronto-Dominion ½ and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ¼.

Among industrial gainers Canada Chemical, DuPont and Investors Syndicate A picked up ¼. Texaco was up ½ and Weston A ahead ⅜. Gains of ⅛ went to BA Oil, Shell Canada and Steel Company of Canada.

Abitibi fell ⅞ and Dominion Foundries and Steel dipped ½ among industrial losers. CPR off ⅜ and Imperial Oil and Interprovincial Pipe Line both down ¼.

In speculative mines Lake Dufault dropped 30 cents to $7.45, Wiltsey fell 1½ to 16 cents and Satellite dipped ½ to 21½ cents.

Medallion was down 10 cents to $3.55 and Northcal picked up 1½ to 45 cents among western oils.

Toronto industrial index closed up .56 and at New York the Dow-Jones industrial closed up 1.88.

AT MONTREAL banks continued to suffer heavy losses toward 2 p.m. today. Trading remained moderate.

Royal Bank dropped 1⅛ and Bank of Montreal was down ¾.

Bell Telephone dropped ⅛ and Noranda and Power Corp. lost ⅛ each.

International Nickel led the gainers, climbing 2¼. CIL rose ½, Hollinger added ¼ and Steel Co. and Fraser were both better by ⅛.

In mining issues, Interprovincial Mining and South Dufault lost ½ a cent each. Jubilee dropped 30 cents and Lingside fell one.

AT NEW YORK steels rallied in an irregularly higher stock market late this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5,000,000 shares compared with 4,040,000 Friday.

Gains off ractions to about a point among key stocks outnumbered losers, but the margin was not great and there were plenty of soft spots.

Parke, Davis, up more than 2, looked the volume leader for the third straight session. Other drugs were mostly down on news of price-fixing charges.

As steels came up, Youngstown Sheet rose about 2, Crucible and Jones and Laughlin more than a point each, U.S. Steel and Republic about a point.

Chrysler, ahead more than a point, was outstanding in a narrow-mixed auto section.

Goodrich and International Nickel rose about a point each.

Rails moved upward fractionally on a broad front. Tobaccos and most of the nonferrous metals were fractional losers. Oils were narrowly mixed, aerospace issues slightly higher.

Burroughs was active and added 2⅛ at 28¾ on a block of 10,000 shares.

AT LONDON with sentiment cheered by a particularly encouraging report from the National Institute of Economic Social Research on the economic position and prospects, London stock markets got off to a good start and equities showed useful gains today.

Some price rises are the result of favorable weekend investment comment but last week's firm tone was maintained and the advance could well continue.

Dollar stocks were firm although Canadians were restrained by the rise to four per cent in Canadian bank rate. Canadian bank shares were dull.

Oils were harder but there was little movement in mines so far although goldfields were an isolated firm spot.

Gilt-edged opened steady, a feature in equities was a sharp rise in Oxendale.

AT VANCOUVER trading was light. Bethlehem Copper was up at $4.90, and Granduc at $4.25. Western Mines was at $3.25, and A-J Steel "A" at 8. Cowichan Copper was down at $1.09 and B.C. Power at $23 7-8.

Toronto-Dominion Boosts Interest Paid Depositors

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto-Dominion Bank has announced an increase in rates of interest paid on term deposits.

Effective immediately, rates on deposit receipts, which are issued for various terms up to 364 days, are increased by one-quarter of 1 per cent. The new rate on deposit receipts for a term of 30 to 59 days is 3⅝ per cent and on 270 to 364 days, 4 per cent.

On certificates of deposit, issued for periods of one to six years, the rate on certificates for one year to less than two years has been increased from 3⅞ per cent to 4¼ per cent. On two and three-year certificates the new rate is 4½ per cent, an increase of one-quarter of 1 per cent. Certificates of four years to less than five years now will bear interest of 4¾ per cent; and certificates of five years to less than six years will bear 4⅞ per cent.

$ EXCHANGE

VICTORIA — Banks buying cheques at 8 premium, notes 7⅞ premium and buying silver at 5⅞. Selling cheques at 8¾ premium, notes 8⅛ premium.

MONTREAL (CP) — The U.S. dollar was at a premium of 8 5/16, down ¼ at $1.08 3/16 premium in terms of Canadian funds, the Bank of Montreal reported near noon today. Pound sterling down ⅝ at $3.03 1/16.

NEW YORK (CP) — Canadian dollar up 7/64 at 92 27/64 in terms of U.S. funds. Pound sterling up 1/64 at $2.80 3/32.

Drug Company Linked With Price-Fixing?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Federal Trade Commission ruled Sunday that Chas. Pfizer & Company, Incorporated, used unfair methods to obtain a patent on an antibiotic and that this set the stage for monopoly and price-fixing in a $100,000,000 market.

Reversing a hearing examiner's decision, the commission said prices of tetracycline, probably the leading antibiotic on the market, were rigged by Pfizer, American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Bristol Laboratories, Incorporated, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Squibb, and the Upjohn Company.

Spokesmen for Pfizer, Cyanamid and Bristol Laboratories denied the charges and said the ruling would be appealed to the courts. In case of appeal, the commission's order would be delayed until after final court action.

The commission said sales of the drug involved might run substantially more than $1,000,000,000 over the 17-year life of the Pfizer patent.

ORDERED TO CEASE

The commission ordered the companies to cease any conspiracy, exchange of information, or other acts designed to set prices of antibiotics.

The five commissioners agreed on the general finding in the case, although commissioner Philip Elman thought the commission should revoke Pfizer's patent privileges and commissioner Sigurd Anderson held that the cease-and-desist order should not have covered all antibiotics.

The ruling said both Cyanamid and Pfizer either withheld information or gave false information in proceedings before the patent office.

At one point, Cyanamid withdrew its contest of Pfizer's patent. Cyanamid holds a patent on 55 chlorotetracycline, known as aureomycin, another valuable antibiotic and one from which tetracycline can be produced.

Commissioner A. Leon Higginbotham Jr. wrote in the commission's main opinion that the record showed price uniformity, identical bidding and identical dosage forms, coupled with frequent contacts among the firms including the exchange of up-to-date price lists.

'A LONGING FOR FREEDOM TO DO WHAT ONE WANTS'

The author of this article is one of the hundreds of East Germans who have escaped to the West despite the Berlin wall, barbed wire, mine fields and trigger-happy guards. On the eve of the second anniversary of the wall she recalls her life behind it and the reasons people risk their lives to escape. She uses a pseudonym to protect her family and friends still in East Germany.

By KATHERINA THOMAS

FRANKFURT, West Germany (AP) — I lived for 16 months behind the Berlin wall. Except for the year my husband spent in jail during the height of the Stalinist frenzy in 1952-53, they were my worst months under communism.

Eight months ago my husband and I managed to escape. It meant leaving a large family home and garden where we had spent 24 happy married years. It meant leaving behind almost everything we owned. It meant leaving friends with whom we shared hard and unforgettable years.

It was a sacrifice and a great risk. Other people might still escape by the route we took so I won't go into details.

But we read every few days of the dangers people run to escape. Some are killed by the Communist border guards.

What drives people to gamble their lives in order to leave their homes?

I'm sure the chief reason is the longing for freedom to think and do what one wants.

NO ONE STARVES

Food is poorly distributed there. Variety is limited. The shops are poorly stocked. It always seems that just the thing you want is sold out. But no one starves and no one goes without the real necessities. And no one—or at least no one I ever heard of—leaves at the risk of his life because of nunger or material things.

It is simply that after a while you can't breathe any more. You are too restricted. Your ideas count for nothing if they do not agree with those of the Communists. Your individual wishes are ignored. A person's individuality and freedom count for nothing. This is what people learn to hate. This is why they leave.

Bourbon Men Blast Markup

NEW YORK (CP) — United States whisky producers are seeking U.S. government help to break down what they say are Canadian barriers blocking sales of United States whisky in Canada.

In a brief to be filed with the department of commerce Monday, Vice-Admiral William J. Marshall, president of the Bourbon Institute, says that while bourbon is the largest selling whisky in the world, Canadian discriminations limit bourbon sales there to 9,500 cases a year—less than one drink for every 10 U.S. tourists in Canada, to say nothing of Canadians.

Prime cause, the brief says, is the system of arbitrary provincial markups which contribute to raising the cost of bourbon at least $2.00 a bottle over Canadian whiskies. No similar markup is made against Canadian whisky in the United States, the brief says.

QUITTING CLASSES at University of Alabama is Negro student James A. Hood. His lawyer and university officials announced Hood's withdrawal was due to his physical and mental condition. Hood and Vivian Malone, also a Negro, registered two months ago despite efforts of Alabama Governor George Wallace to prevent them.

Subsidy Favors East Coasters Say Fish Firms

VANCOUVER (CP)—The federal government's program of subsidies for shipbuilding discriminates in favor of the east coast fishing industry, the royal commission on taxation was told today as it opened a week of hearings here.

The Fisheries Association of British Columbia, whose member firms produce about 95 per cent of B.C. salmon and 90 per cent of the province's herring catch, came before the Carter commission in search of a better tax deal so Canadian fleets could compete effectively against the state-supported ships of Russia and Japan.

Specifically, the association asked the federal government to grant a tax-deductible allowance of about 30 per cent of the amount spent in capital investment.

The existing accelerated depreciation allowances are not good enough, the commission was told in the brief presented by the association.

CITES INSTANCES

And so far as the subsidy program is concerned, "these regulations are of little application to the British Columbia fishing industry because the classes of vessels which are eligible for subsidies are not in practical use in the British Columbia fishing industry . . . The regulations discriminate in favor of the east coast industry."

Along with the investment allowance, the association also asked that the industry be allowed to deduce, as expenses, asked that the industry be allowed to deduct, as expenses, the advances made to fishermen each year.

Present tax laws permit fish firms to deduct only "bad debts" and a small blanket reserve.

The association's brief said it is necessary to finance fishermen in advance and it can amount to "many thousands of dollars per fisherman." In poor years it is often necessary to finance the fisherman for his day-to-day living requirements.

Many of these accounts are not fully paid off, the brief said.

It asked that the amount by which "advances to fishermen" increased in a year be deducted from income tax. This, said the brief, would be comparable to the allowances given mining and oil companies for exploration and development expenses.

Like many other representatives of private-enterprise groups that have appeared before the six-member commission so far, the association said co-operatives should not enjoy a tax advantage over corporations. It said the recent expansion of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative "has been viewed with alarm by the member companies of this association."

ABORTION MILL CLOSED DOWN BY 2 ARRESTS

TORONTO (CP) — Police said Sunday an extensive abortion organization, which used blindfolds on its patients to reduce the possibiity of identification, was broken up with the arrest of two men.

The operation involved only two men but encompassed the whole metropolitan Toronto area, police said. One man made contacts with women seeking abortions, then took them to a house in suburban Scarborough where they were blindfolded and operated upon by a second man.

Roger Oliver Lavis, 61, of Toronto, a chiropractor, was charged with two counts of procuring miscarriages. Eugene Staacke, 26, of Scarboroughw as charged with conspiracy.

Police said the abortions had been going on for three or four years, but declined to estimate how many had been performed.

WINNIPEG CHEERS YOUNG MUSICIANS

Canada's 92-piece National Youth Orchestra took six curtain calls in Winnipeg's civic auditorium Tuesday night and is now en route to Victoria for a concert in the Butchart Gardens next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

In Winnipeg, 3,000 music lovers compelled the orchestra to stand six times and raised lusty cheers for conductor Walter Susskind.

In Wednesday's Winnipeg Tribune, music critic Roy Maley wrote:

"Magnificent is the one word that would describe Tuesday night's concert . . . an unforgettable feast . . . a feast of sublime artistry."

A Toronto critic wrote:

"It is doubtful if there is a better orchestra on this continent today."

The musicians, ranging in age from 14 to 24, are chosen by audition from all across Canada. Among them are 12 British Columbians and five Victorians—Veronica Milton, Joan Meredith, Betty Gahn, Corrinne Field and Fergus Heywood.

The orchestra is playing in Saskatoon Thursday night; Edmonton Friday; Calgary Saturday; Vancouver Tuesday and Victoria Wednesday.

Duffers Note: Blind Golfer Wins With 86

Claude Pattemore shot an 86 Sunday.

So?

Pattemore is blind. And no blind golfer has ever shot as low a score in North American tournament play.

Despite his fine effort Canada lost to the U.S. 12½ to 11½ in the annual international blind golfers' team championships at Toronto.

Other members of the Canadian team were Phil Lederhouse, Prince Albert; Harold Mitchell, Hamilton; and Nick Genovese, Dundas Ont.

Victoria golfer Ron Hewlitt carved himself a slice of glory, teaming with Lederhouse to lead the West to a 6½-5½ victory over the East in an all-Canada competition. Mitchell and Genovese made up the East team.

Otherwise in sport it was a busy weekend . . .

HAM RICHARDSON

RIVALS CLAIM:

Richardson Best Amateur in Tennis

QUEBEC (CP)—"He's the best amateur tennis player in the world."

The player so described was Ham Richardson, gentlemanly former Rhodes scholar who won the Eastern Canada championships Sunday night.

Speaking of him in unison were Ray Senkowski and Bill Lenoir, two top-ranked U.S. players whipped by Richardson in the final and semifinal respectively.

Richardson, a tall trimly-built securities salesman from Dallas, Texas, used his booming, precisely-placed first serve and classic backhand to demolish Senkowski in less than an hour in Sunday's final.

Richardson won 6-0, 6-1, 6-3.

"He had the ball on a yo-yo," said Senkowski, a heavy-set, 22-year-old commerce student from Detroit who upset Canada's top player Bob Bedard and Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., to get to the finals.

Lenoir, a rangy, 20-year-old student from Tucson, Ariz., who lost in the three straight sets to Richardson in Saturday's one-sided semifinal, said:

"I've played against Roy Emerson and Chuck McKinley, but Richardson's the best. I've had about 10 different players tell me he's got the best backhand in amateur tennis."

REAP REVENGE

Lenoir, rated No. 13 in the U.S., and Senkowski, rated 28th had some measure of revenge in the men's doubles final. They teamed together to outlast Richardson and Reed, sixth-ranked American, 6-8, 7-5, 6-4.

The men's singles and doubles were postponed to the evening from Sunday afternoon because of rain.

Favored Ann Barclay of Toronto left Sunday afternoon to go to Toronto for the Ontario provincial championships, leaving three events — the women's singles and doubles and the mixed doubles—to be awarded by default.

Ann, 23-year-old blonde who is retiring this month to go to university and become a teacher, said she had given her word of honor she would be in Toronto Monday. She had been leading powerful but erratic 18-year-old Vicki Berner of Vancouver 6-3 when their singles match was postponed by rain at the start of the second set.

WINS $25,000 SEAFAIR

Tahoe Miss Fastest

SEATTLE (AP)—Tahoe Miss, driven by Chuck Thompson, won the $25,000 Seafair Trophy race on Lake Washington Sunday despite a second-place finish in the final heat.

Miss Bardahl, the gold cup champion driven by Ron Musson, whipped Tahoe Miss by 300 yards in the last heat and the two wound up with 1,100 points each. Tahoe Miss had the faster time for the 45 miles of racing and was declared the winner.

Tahoe Miss covered the distance in 24 minutes, 40 seconds. Bardahl's time was 24:46.2.

Miss Exide of Seattle and Tempo of St. Petersburg, Fla., also tied in points with 652 each, but Exide won third place on the basis of speed.

Rex Manchester drove Miss Eagle Electric, which formerly carried the name of Miss Spokane, to fifth place in the overall standings, and Tempest of Seattle, with Chuck Hickling as pilot, was sixth.

Miss Thriftway was placed seventh and Notre Dame, of Detroit, eighth, although neither had sufficient points to earn places in the final heat. Owner Willard Rhodes had anounced prior to the race that he would retire Miss Thriftway, one of the most successful competitors in unlimited hydroplane racing history.

Bill Muncey took Thriftway to the front in heat 1-A and won easily at an average speed of 112.5, beating out Miss Bardahl by 200 feet. Exide was third, Notre Dame fourth and Tempo fifth.

Thriftway bowed out in the second lap of heat 2-B when its engine sputtered and quit during a bow-to-bow duel with Bardahl.

Yankees' New Gimmick Too Much for Angels

By Associated Press

It's not bad enough that New York Yankees are making a rout of the American League pennant race in their usual fashion, but now they've come up with a new gimmick!

'They're sending up their pinch-hitters two or three times in a game.

So you get him out the first time he comes up and the second or third time he kicks your head in. Unfair? Well, not quite.

Take Elston Howard and Hector Lopez. Howard went in to bat for Yogi Berra in the eighth inning of Sunday's game with Los Angeles Angels and flied out in routine fashion. In the same inning Lopez batted for Al Downing and flied out. No damage done.

But both of them stayed in the game.

So Angels go into the ninth with a 4-1 lead and promptly retire the first two Yankees. But the next two draw walks and Howard comes up again. So Art Fowler comes on to face him. His first pitch lands in the left-field seats and it's a tie game.

So Lopez comes up again in the 10th with a runner on second and singles up the middle, driving in the tie-breaking run. He scored a second run a few minutes later on an Angel error.

So Yankees win 6-4, extend their winning string to six, Angels' losing string to seven and boost the New York first-place margin over Chicago White Sox to nine full games.

CHICAGO SPLITS

White Sox split a pair with Detroit Tigers, Tigers winning the first 7-2 and White Sox the second, 3-2, on Dave Nicholson's 18th homer of the season with one out in the 11th.

Minnesota Twins closed to within a half game of White Sox on the strength of their sixth straight victory, 5-2 over Boston Red Sox while Cleveland Indians edged Kansas City Athletics 2-1 and Baltimore Orioles beat Washington Senators 6-2.

New York defeated Los Angeles 2-1 Saturday, while Chicago defeated Detroit 5-1, Minnesota defeated Boston 5-3, Washington edged Baltimore 6-5 and Kansas City defeated Cleveland 6-3.

The Yankee victory at Los Angeles Sunday was their 19th in 25 games and their eighth in 10 extra-inning affairs this season. Howard's dramatic shot, his 23rd homer of the season, was the turning point.

Athletics Have Turn to Worry

Now its Athletics' turn to worry about who's going to get in the Senior Amateur Baseball League playoffs.

If they lose one more game, they won't be in the playoffs at all.

Losing both sides of a Saturday afternoon doubleheader to league-champion Transports put Athletics in their unhappy position.

Even if they win both their remaining games, they'll only tie third with Builders, and will have to go into a sudden-death playoff game.

Transports played the role of spoilers very effectively in the Saturday games, dumping the A's 3-1 and 9-1 at Royal Athletic Park.

TWO HITS, THREE RUNS

Athletics pitcher Bob Mabee held Transports to two hits in the opening game, a double by Jim Moody and a single by Art Worth. Those hits came in the third inning after two walks, however, and they produced three runs.

In the second game, Worth drove in four runs on two hits, as Transport pitchers George Brice and John Yankoski allowed only one hit between them.

Canucks Take Team Contest

Canadian swingers defeated United States rivals 7½-2½ at Victoria Golf Club Sunday in an international team match that launched the week-long, 41st annual Seniors' North West Golf Association tournament.

Some entrants played qualifying rounds Sunday but most of the veterans stepped out today for the 18-hole qualifying competitions at the Oak Bay links.

CELTIC-RANGERS TILT

No Atheists in Court

WARMS UP FANS

GLASGOW (CP) — Fifteen soccer fans were due in court today charged with rowdy behavior during Saturday's match between the city's arch-rivals, Rangers and Celtic.

The new season started in pouring rain with Rangers cruising to a 3-0 victory over the young home team at Parkhead Stadium with goals from newcomer Jim Forrest and George McLean. Fighting broke out among the 60,000 crowd after Forrest hammered in the third goal.

Six fans were arrested inside the stadium, but fighting continued in the street outside. Traffic was halted as bottles and stones filled the air. A car driver was taken to hospital after a missile shattered his windshield.

Rangers-Celtic matches always produce plenty of black eyes and broken noses. Magistrates once considered ordering the match to be played behind closed doors because the Monday morning charge sheet got so long.

Legend has it that the intense rivalry is more of a religious than a sporting war. It is said that in soccer's early days Rangers only took on Protestants and Celtic only Roman Catholics.

There is a story told in Glasgow pubs about two travellers in a railway carriage.

"Do you follow Rangers or Celtic?" one asked his companion.

"Neither," was the reply.

"Then you must be an atheist," said the astounded soccer fan.

Carnarvon Bats Boom; Bag Pony League Title

NORTH BURNABY—Victoria Carnarvan All-Stars hauled out their big guns Sunday to dump Surrey-Delta twice and retain the B.C. Pony League baseball championship.

After losing Saturday's opener, 2-1, the Carnarvons beat the mainlanders 7-2 in the second game Sunday afternoon to tie the best-of-three series. They then trounced Surrey again 7-1 in the final game to take the crown.

Brian Lucas notched 13 strikeouts and allowed no bases-on-balls in the afternoon game as Ike McKay, Rick Taylor and Bill Lemon helped pound out Carnarvon's victory.

McKay belted a home run in the fifth inning to drive in two runs, and Lemon homered in the sixth to drive in two more.

McKay and Taylor also picked up triples.

In the final go-round for the title Sunday night, Brian Brossard pitched a two-hitter and fired six strike-outs as Carnarvon held Surrey-Delta to a single run.

Brian Craig singled, Phil Pimlott doubled, and Bill Lemon homered again to drive in three runs in a big third inning for Carnarvons.

By the fifth, Carnarvons had the game all their own way as Brian Craig walked, Pimlott singled and Brossard doubled to score two more runs.

Carnarvon hosts teams from Washington, Oregon and Hawaii in the Pony League regional tournament at Victoria's Carnarvon Park starting Wednesday.

Bombers, Lions Cry Over Wounded Lists

By The Canadian Press

The sick and the wounded formed a swelling line out of Winnipeg Blue Bombers' camp last week, leaving coach Bud Grant to face tonight's return hassle with Calgary Stampeders with a major manpower shuffle.

Bombers, out to avenge a 36-27 defeat in Calgary last Tuesday, meet the Stampeders at Winnipeg Stadium in one part of a Western Football Conference double bill. In Vancouver, British Columbia Lions go against Edmonton Eskimos.

The Lions and Stamps are tied for first place with one win apiece. Saskatchewan Roughriders split their two games while Winnipeg and Edmonton both lost their openers.

News from Bombers' sick quarters took an ominous turn last week.

Linebacker Dave Burkholder Tuesday aggravated a shoulder injury picked up in an exhibition game in Hamilton. A medical estimate was that he would be out for at least two weeks.

Wednesday it was end Ernie Pitts with a shoulder injury. Thursday, the club discovered Ron Latourelle was suffering from mononucleosis, an ailment likely to put him on a rest cure for a month.

RETURNS TO ROSTER

Grant promptly returned veteran Canadian halfback Frank Fraser to the active roster to replace Latourelle.

Guard Sherwyn Thorson may handle the bulk of Burkholder's linebacker duties.

Back at Calgary, the Stamps were reported four-point favorites.

The team worked on a few new offensive patterns during the weekend which coach Bobby Dobbs described as "nothing radical."

Tony Pajaczkowski appeared Saturday to have fought off an upset stomach but defensive halfback Jerry Keeling missed a practice because of the flu.

However Dobbs expects he will have the same 30 players in action which defeated bombers last week.

LIONS INJURED TOO

Injuries during the weekend also struck the Lions' camp, plaguing coach Dave Skrien with trouble at offensive tackle.

Bill Frank was suffering from a wrenched knee brought on during the league opener against Saskatchewan Thursday and Lonnie Dennis was still limping Sunday from a persistent pulled hamstring muscle.

Mike Martin, defensive end who suffered a bruised hip in the Roughrider game, will start. The rest of the team was reported healthy.

The worst jolt to hit the Edmonton team came during their plane flight to Vancouver. The players were jostled on the plane but came out of it with nothing more serious than a scare.

Halfback Sammie Harris will take the place of traded Bobby Walden. The speedy Iowa halfback will join Joe Hernandez, Johnny Bright and Mike Lashuk.

Keyes said also he will start with quarterback Don Getty and take a good look at James Earl Wright.

FULL HOUSE EXPECTED FOR LIONS' TV CLASH

A near-capacity crowd is predicted for the Royal Theatre tonight as B.C. Lions make their second closed-circuit television appearance before Victoria fans.

Less than 200 seats remained unsold this morning for the Western Football Conference game between Lions and Edmonton Eskimos.

Game time is 8:30 p.m.

Seven more league games of the Lions are scheduled for the TV presentation.

All proceeds from the series will go to aid minor football on Vancouver Island and officials of the Lions have announced that profits will be used to train coaches and officials and to buy equipment. Some of the money may also be used to underwrite clinics.

Ticats Have No Fear of Trimble

HAMILTON (CP) — There was a time when Jim Trimble was a feared man in Tigertown.

But never again will they call him Jungle Jim. The former bwana of Hamilton Tiger-Cats no longer is safe in the lair of the Tabbies.

Now coach of Montreal Alouettes, Trimble spent his most embarrassing evening Saturday on the field where he has known some of his greatest triumphs.

The Ticats, like wild animals, clawed their way to a 30-7 win over the Alouettes in their opening game of the Eastern Football Conference season.

With the roar of 25,709 fans behind them—largest crowd at Civic Stadium in years — the Ticats showed little respect for their former coach as they whipped the Als at every turn.

So heated was the contest that a grand total of 270 yards was handed out in penalties and fisticuffs broke out near the end. Big Angelo Mosca, a former Alouette, and Montreal's Bobby Jack Oliver were ejected for their part in the fray. Each picked up an automatic $50 fine.

TELL THE STORY

The statistics tell the story far better than adjectives:

1. Montreal's feared ground attack picked up a total of only 36 yards. Hamilton rushed for 176.

2. Montreal quarterback Sandy Stephens — and rookie Ron Maddocks who replaced him for one series—completed only nine of 23 passes for 114 yards. Old Bernie Faloney and Frank Cosentino were 13 for 23 and moved the Ticats 245 yards through the air.

3. Montreal made only nine first downs, Hamilton 24.

4. The Als were in Hamilton territory only twice in the entire game—both times in the fourth quarter when it was a hopeless cause.

"Condolence is the word," Trimble told reporters after the game. "I'm disappointed in every department on our showing."

GIBSON'S BOWLADROME (1950) LTD.

ROY DOUGLAS PEGGY TRICKETT WAYNE HENDRY ROD HENDRY

Gibson's Bowladrome announces the appointment of Rod Hendry as General Manager and Mr. Roy Douglas as manager. Mr. Hendry has been with Gibson's for the past 9 years. Mr. Douglas has a background of 12 years in the bowling business and is past president of both the B.C. Proprietors' Association and the Vancouver 5 Pin Bowling Association. Peggy Trickett, secretary of the local W.I.B.C., is chief instructor in charge of ladies and 10 pin leagues. Wayne Hendry, who last year was manager of the Victoria College Western Canada team, and one of Victoria's top 5 pin bowlers, will be available for personalized instruction for beginners and those wanting to improve their game. Throughout the summer and fall they will be featuring free bowling instruction for individuals and groups.

Gibson's, a locally-owned and operated house, is the largest establishment in Western Canada featuring both 5 pins and 10 pins and also incorporating an air-conditioned billiard room with regulation 6'x12' tables and a modern grill for full course meals and snacks under the friendly management of Edie Barnes. A free nursery service is provided for ladies with pre-school-age children, during instruction periods and league sessions. Situated in the heart of Victoria's downtown area, and with its own free parking lot, Gibson's has been serving Victoria's bowlers for more than 30 years. The management and staff cordially invite the citizens of Greater Victoria to drop in and inspect their facilities for bowling, billiards, and meals.

City Minor Boxla Clubs Have Rough Weekend

It was almost a lost weekend for Victoria clubs competing in provincial minor lacrosse playoffs at New Westminster.

All they could collect in five tries was half a title.

The half crown was earned by Saanich Employees, who battled through two tremendous overtime periods Sunday to finish in an 11-11 deadlock with Vancouver Legion in the two-game total-goals series for the juvenile "A" championship.

Both clubs will hold the championship trophy for six months.

One other playoff—for the peewee title—also went into overtime, but in that one Victoria City was edged by one goal, losing a thrill-packed two-game series to North Burnaby 21-20.

In Sunday's windup of the bantam boxla final, Saanich Butler Brothers played to a 7-7 deadlock with Sapperton but a five-goal edge earned in Saturday's opener gave Sapperton the title by an 18-13 count.

Sapperton's juvenile "B" squad followed up Saturday's 8-5 triumph with a 16-6 victory Sunday to trim Butlers 24-14 in the series.

The midget title was decided in one game Sunday and North Burnaby grabbed the crown with a 10-3 win over Victoria City.

In what some lacrosse officials rated the best peewee game ever played in the B.C. finals, Norburns bagged their winning tally with less than a minute remaining in the 10-minute overtime session.

BOUNCED BACK

Norburns, who had edged Victoria 11-10 Saturday, forged into a 3-0 lead in Sunday's first period and appeared headed for an easy win. But Victoria bounced back to trail by only one goal at half time and then evened the count at 6-6 after three quarters.

Victoria finished the game with a 9-8 lead but all square on the series.

Mike Beaulac sent Victoria ahead in overtime but D. Taylor tied it up and M. Crook fired the Burnaby winner in the final minute.

PLAYERS INJURED

Victoria was hampered by the loss of Tom Somner, who suffered a fractured arm on Saturday, and defenceman Graham Arthur, who went out with a leg injury in Sunday's second period.

Officials have arranged for the peewee finalists to play preliminaries at two Victoria-New Westminster senior Inter-City League playoffs this week at Westminster Wednesday and at Victoria Friday.

Packing a two-goal lead after Saturday's 6-4 win in the juvenile "A" series, Saanich forged into an 8-5 second period lead in Sunday's game. Then Legion surged back to score six straight goals and barely missed a series victory when Victoria's Ron Zilkie broke away for a goal in the final minute of regulation time to make the Legion margin 7-5 and square the series at 11-11.

Neither club could score in the two overtime sessions.

B.C. SOFTBALL

Imps Bow Out In Semifinals

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver Pattisons retained the B.C. major men's open softball title Sunday night, blanking Vancouver Realtors 5-0 behind the stellar piching of Buster Moberg.

Pattisons now advance to the western Canada finals in Calgary, beginning Friday.

The club came off the floor to defeat a surprisingly-strong Victoria Imperials team 3-2 in a semifinal game Sunday afternoon. Victoria had beaten Vancouver Eldorados 5-1 in a quarter-final contest while the previously-undefeated Pattisons dropped a 5-3 decision to the realtors.

The Pattisons quarter-final loss in the double-knockout tournament necessitated their beating Realtors 1-0 in a Sunday night contest to give the clubs 4-1 records and pit them together again for the final.

Moberg, a 27-year-old mechanic, hurled a two-hitter in the 1-0 victory and gave up only four hits in the final game.

The Victoria team was the surprise of the tournament. They held the lead twice in the semifinal game, forcing Pattisons to come from behind.

ANGLING LUCK WAS JUST PLAIN LOUSY

NEW YORK (AP) — Michael Rampino, 28, his son Frank, 4, and 12-year-old brother-in-law, Richard Malfitan, went fishing off Brooklyn Saturday. Their luck was lousy, no matter how you look at it.

Rampino, who had not caught a fish all day, hooked a wad of paper. He reeled it in and unrolled 49 $100 bills.

After a quick trip home to talk it over with his wife, Rampino took the bills to a police station. There detectives examined them briefly and gave him the word: "Counterfeit."

Showers Halt Incogs In Bid for Top Berth

Rain wrecked Sunday's battle at Duncan for first place in the Victoria and District Cricket Association.

Incogs, trailing front-running Cowichan by two points in league standings, had scored 66 runs for three wickets against Cowichan bowling when thunder showers washed out further play.

The match will be scored as a draw.

Rain also stopped play at Beacon Hill, early in the match between Five C's and Alcos.

On Saturday, Jack Sparks took three Albion wickets for 17 runs and batted for 15, not out, to pace Oak Bay to a six-wicket win.

Despite 27 by Keith Bickmore, Albions managed only 48 runs and Oak Bay replied with 49 for four wickets.

McLarens Get Extra Rest

McLarens will be more rested than expected when they resume Senior Men's Softball League playoffs at Heywood Avenue tonight.

Meeting a squad of old-timers at Central Park Sunday in a benefit tussle, McLarens had to work for only 2½ innings. They were trailing the veterans 2-0 when rain washed out play.

The frisky oldsters have requested and been granted a replay at a later date.

A collection raised $53 for injured players Tony Gee and Eddie Loo.

McLarens meet Imperials at 6:30 tonight. Both clubs have lost once in the double-loss elimination playoff and tonight's winner goes up against unbeaten Sooke Tuesday night.

Shamrocks Host Royals Tonight

Victoria Shamrocks warm up for their Inter-City Lacrosse League semifinals with New Westminster in the last league game of the season tonight, but the tussle doesn't mean a thing in league standings.

Vancouver clinched first place and a bye into the playoff final last week, New Westminster is safe in second spot, and Shamrocks have wrapped up third position.

The best-of-seven semi-final series gets under way in New Westminster Wednesday, then moves to Victoria for the second game Friday at Memorial Arena.

Nanaimo ended their season Saturday night in Nanaimo with a 16-5 trouncing of Shamrocks.

BIONDA HAS 103

Jack Ferguson picked up two goals to finish the season with 52 goals, 42 assists for 94 points, second only to New Westminster's Jack Bionda.

Bionda has now clinched the individual scoring race with 50 goals and 53 assists for 103 points.

Shamrocks were never in contention after the first 20 minutes as Tom McVie sparked the Coaltowners with four goals.

Ron Jay scored three of Victoria's tallies, Sohen Gill collected the other two.

ON BISLEY TEAM

One B.C. Shot In First 18

CONNAUGHT RANGES, Ont. —J. W. Lightburn of Peachland is the only one from British Columbia among 18 Canadian marksmen who will be invited to make up the 1964 Bisley team.

The team, which will represent Canada at the National Rifle Association matches in England, is chosen from the top scorers in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association matches that wound up here Saturday.

Major B. E. (Bert) Besteck of Winnipeg, a member of the 39th Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, won the Governor-General's match.

The 45-year-old sharpshooter fired 215 out of a possible 225 to win the major award. Ralph Grant, an 18-year-old cadet from Dartmouth, N.S., was second, just one point behind.

FIGHT RESULTS

MANILA—Marcel Juban, 118, Manila, outpointed Curly Aquirre, 117½, Manila, 12.

Griffith Wins

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — World welterweight champion Emile Griffith piled up an early lead on his youth and speed and withstood two late rallies by veteran Holly Mims to score a unanimous 10-round decision in a non-title bout Saturday night.

Gene Delays Decision Despite Cruel Beating

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene Fullmer, mauled, bruised and badly beaten in his effort to regain the world middleweight boxing title, returned to the United States to mull over the possibility of retirement.

"I have no plans for retiring and no plans for going on," Fullmer said Sunday night en route to his home in West Jordan, Utah. "I'm going home to talk it over with my family."

The 32-year-old boxer was cut and battered and drenched with his own blood Saturday before suffering a seventh round TKO at the hands of champion Dick Tiger in Ibadan, Nigeria in West Africa.

He returned to the U.S. by plane Sunday night and planned to go on to Utah today.

FAVORS QUITTING

His wife, Delores, said in West Jordan shortly after the fight that she hopes Gene, a former champion, will call it quits. Mrs. Fullmer, who has refused to watch her husband fight, also repeated that he had promised to retire if he failed to beat the Nigerian champion. Fullmer was non-commital.

"He was a great champion," Mrs. Fullmer said of her husband, "but we feel he should quit now."

The fight, the first title bout ever held in Nigeria, was scheduled for 15 rounds but Marv Jenson, Fullmer's manager, asked that it be stopped at the end of the seventh when the bleeding Fullmer was virtually defenceless against Tiger's two-handed attack.

"I wanted to stop it in the fifth," Jenson said, "But Gene insisted on going on."

There were no knockdowns, but Fullmer was cut over the bridge of the nose and blinded in the later rounds by a cut over the right eye that bled freely. His body was marked by angry, red welts and the bruises still showed on his face when he returned to the U.S.

"I was going to come out fighting," the 32-year-old mink rancher said. "But he was sharper than I was. I guess he caught me a couple of times in the early rounds which must have knocked the sharpness out of me. But right until the end I thought I had a chance."

UNDERWROTE BOUT

The Nigerian government underwrote the bout, putting up $280,000 in guarantees. Fullmer was guarranteed $50,000 and $10,000 in expenses and Tiger $100,000. The bout drew a crowd of about 30,000 to the outdoor Liberty Stadium, but there was no announcement from promoter Jack Solomons on total attendance or receipts.

The fight was the third between Tiger and Fullmer. Tiger lifted the title from Gene with a 15-round decision in San Francisco last year and they fought to a 15-round draw in Las Vegas earlier this year.

There was no immediate comment from the Tiger camp as to further title bouts, but European champion Lazlo Papp of Hungary, Joey Giardello and welterweight champion Emile Griffith of the U.S. have been mentioned as possibilities.

U.S. Has Monopoly On Wightman Cup

CLEVELAND (AP) — The United States Wightman Cup team, led by Darlene Hard of Los Angeles, soared to a 4-1 lead over Britain Sunday and captured the international tennis trophy for the 29th time. Britain has won it six times.

Miss Hard, ranked No. 1 in the United States, clinched the trophy with a 6-3, 6-0 victory over Christine Truman, Britain's No. 2 player.

JIM BERRY
. . . clean sweep

Delays Didn't Bother Berry

Delays and the clanging sounds of metal crunching against metal apparently don't bother stock-car driver Jim Berry.

At least, that's the way it appeared Saturday night at Western Speedway.

Berry had piloted his stocker to victories in the trophy dash and first heat. To make it a clean sweep before about 2,000 fans he needed only a triumph in the main event—the annual 40-lap chase for the Roy White Memorial Trophy.

They started the feature with 21 cars and had to halt proceedings after eight cars piled up on the first lap. Berry and his rivals tried again. This time the wheel-jockeys made it to the second lap before the fun started. Ten cars crunched and spun and officials signalled for another re-start.

By now the field was down to 14 cars, including Berry's machine. The third start was the lucky one and when the checkered flag dropped it was Berry out in front to wrap up his sweep and collect the trophy.

Brian Willson, second in the trophy dash, also nabbed the runner-up slot in the main, followed by Gerry Sylvester and Dave Cooper.

Results:

Trophy dash—1. Jim Berry; 2. Brian Willson; 3. Dave Brown.

First heat—1. Jim Berry. 2. Jack McTellan; 3. Tom Eardley.

Second heat—1. Wally Lum; 2. Harold Sjostrom; 3. Gordie Alberg.

Third heat—1. Gerry Sylvester; 2. Dave Cooper; 3. Dave Brown.

Fourth heat—1. Bill Smith; 2. Fred Bull; 3. Lloyd Mulally.

Main event—1. Jim Berry; 2. Brian Willson; 3. Gerry Sylvester; 4. Dave Cooper.

Longshots Romp in Features

Times News Services

Longshots had a good day Saturday in feature races on tracks across the continent.

Tona started it off at Saratoga Springs, N.Y., scoring a nose victory over heavily-favored Lamb Chop in the 83rd running of the $57,400 Alabama Stakes.

The chestnut daughter of Nashua came from next to last in the field of nine three-year-old fillies for her upset win. She returned $45.80 to those in the crowd of 24,421 who backed her with $2 to win and earned $37,310 in the 1¼-mile event.

At Chicago's Arlington Park, Bounding Main, a 36-1 choice, squeezed through a narrow opening on the rail and won the $56,450 Arlington Handicap in a photo finish with Helenic Hero, the 5-2 favorite.

Bounding Main paid $74.80, $24.40 and $10.60 and earned $34,300 for his first stakes victory.

At Vancouver, Mr. Tails, a 10-1 longshot, held on for a four-length win over Swirling Webb in the 1 1/16-mile British Columbia Derby Trial.

Victory for Mr. Tails, ridden by Jimmy Broomfield, was worth $2,800.

Saturday's co-feature, an Invitational Handicap of one mile, was won by Doketo.

'Molotov Cocktails' Burn Police Station

MUNCEY, Ont. (CP) — Police blamed a group of hit-and-run raiders for the partial destruction of the RCMP detachment building here at the Muncey Indian Reserve, 20 miles south of London, Ont.

They said four "Molotov cocktails"—bottles filled with gasoline—were thrown into the building and immediately a fire started which ruined furniture, papers and filing cabinets. The blaze burned itself out before firemen arrived and three of the bottles were recovered intact.

There is no evidence the attack stemmed from racial animosity, police said. However, Dennis Alsop of Ontario Provincial Police said: "A certain faction in the area seems to have a feeling of resentment against the authorities."

BROADWAY STARS Robert Goulet and Carol Lawrence, who were married today in New York, smiled for photographers Sunday on arrival at Idlewild Airport. They will honeymoon in Toronto, where Goulet is scheduled to appear at CNE. (AP Wirephoto.)

WHAT'S NEW

Cat-Napping In Class To Continue

BERGAMO, Italy (AP) — The "study while you snooze" experiment on schoolboys in this north Italian city has proved so promising that the slumber sessions will be expanded when school reopens in October.

The technique of learning by hypnotism was tried last spring on 30 Bergamo teenagers at San Vincenzo Roman Catholic boarding school for boys.

One essential ingredient was the hypnotic voice of Mario Bellini, 43, who runs a clinic of psychosomatic medicine in Milan. He devised the education method, which worked this way:

A teacher gave his lecture on, for instance, a passage of poetry and the poet's meaning. Tape recorders on each desk took it all down.

Then the boys pressed the playback buttons. The first part of the tape contained a talk by Bellini to induce sleep. As his voice droned through the individual earphones, heads nodded and the students slumbered at their desks.

PLAYED BACK

While they slept, the teacher's lecture was played back. At the end another Bellini talk woke the boys.

Each boy, the bright and the slow alike, was able to recite the poem from memory and explain its meaning.

Professor Augusto Ermentini, Milan neurologist and psychiatrist, said: "The technique is flawless in learning, for instance, a poem or a certain number of words in a foreign language."

The experiment has been applied only to boys 13 to 16 in the areas of history, geography, literature and foreign language. It will be tried on a larger scale when school resumes.

"What psychoanalysts call the unconscious element stays awake, and it is this that absorbs the teacher's words," Ermentini said.

Insurance Housing Opened to Negroes

NEW YORK (AP)—The biggest U.S. landlord, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, is opening its doors to Negro and other non-white tenants.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, calls it "a major break-through" in the Negro's drive to get good housing — one of the prime goals in the current civil rights struggle.

The Metropolitan decision means that white-only projects such as Park Fairfax, in Alexandria, Va., near Washington, and Park Chester, the 38,000-person development in the New York city, will have Negro tenants. In Park Chester, one family already is scheduled to move in.

It also means that the other Metropolitan projects in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York will accept Negro applications who will be considered potential tenants without regard to race, creed or color.

In all, Metropolitan is landlord to 34,170 families.

Delta Votes Aug. 31 On 2 Liquor Outlets

A SAILOR WAS CHARGED WITH THEFT of this truck after it was involved in a collision on Trans-Canada Highway near Burnside shortly after midnight Saturday. Police said William Leader, of HMCS Margaree, crossed the centre line and collided with a car driven by Walter E. Davis, 1615 Camosun. Leader was treated for minor acid burns at St. Joseph's Hospital. He reserved plea when he appeared in city magistrate's court this morning on the theft charge. Mr. Davis, alone in his car at the time of the accident, escaped injury despite heavy damage to his car.

Topics of the Day

Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi will be the guest speaker at a meeting of Victoria Social Credit Association tonight at 8 in the Knights of Pythias Hall, Cormorant Street.

Three persons were treated at St. Joseph's Hospital and then discharged after receiving minor injuries in a Sunday afternoon accident on Yates Street.

A car driven by Malcolm Branter, 860 Victoria, was in collision with one driven by Joseph McDonough, 461 Kipling.

Mr. McDonough, his wife Beth, and Mrs. Hazel Bingham, 469 Kipling, were taken to hospital.

* * *

Harold Potter of Munn Road was belligerent and swore when he was arrested for impaired driving, Esquimalt police said in magistrate's court Saturday.

He was fined $250 and his licence was suspended by Magistrate William Ostler.

Police evidence showed Potter drove at high speed on Admirals Road, weaving across the centre line and causing an oncoming car to swerve to avoid a collision. Potter drove off the first time he was stopped by police.

Tender call, returnable Sept. 4, for tunneling up to 12,000 feet in the Japan Gulch area has been issued by Greater Victoria Water Board. The board decided this spring to resume construction of a proposed five-mile tunnel from Sooke Lake to Goldstream watershed which will replace the present 27-mile water pipeline and increase capacity of the system. Some 3,000 of the 30,000-foot project was tunneled two years ago.

Saanich burning permits, which were withdrawn last week due to dry weather, have been reinstated following rain over the weekend.

A spokesman for Saanich Fire Department said outside burning in the municipality will be allowed with the usual permit.

Complaints made by Victoria residents against a low-flying Comox-based jet Saturday are being investigated by the RCAF.

The plane, which startled a number of residents in Gordon Head and Oak Bay Saturday afternoon, is believed to be a CF101 Voodoo jet on its way back to Comox base from Portland.

Willy Foreland, 1717 Howroyd, was fined $175 in city magistrate's court Saturday for failing to remain at the scene of an accident and $40 for careless driving.

Evidence showed he hit a car on Government Street and drove off through a red light. He was followed and abandoned his car at Quadra and Fisgard. A policeman arrested Foreland as he ran away from his car.

A character witness for Foreland testified the accused was both honest and reliable.

SURVEY GUMS UP THE SAWS

There are petitions and then there are petitions, City Hall learned again today.

Some time ago, council was petitioned to remove a group of Linden trees lining the boulevards of Ross Street because they spattered parked cars with a gummy substance.

Normally, aldermen give every consideration to petitions but they hesitated this time and ordered a door-by-door survey of homeowners.

The count showed 13 in favor of keeping the trees and only five against, city parks committee was informed.

Nun Killed In Yukon Car Crash

Sister Mary Ignatia of the Sisters of St. Ann was killed instantly in a road accident 20 miles out of Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, Sunday afternoon, it was learned here today.

Sister Mary, who was 61, came to Victoria as a child from Winnipeg and was formerly on the nursing staff of St. Joseph's Hospital here.

According to an RCMP report to the provincial headquarters of the order, Sister Mary was driving with a woman companion from Dawson City to Whitehorse when her car skidded out of control and plunged into a ditch.

Her companion, Mrs. Jessie McCausland of Dawson, suffered only minor injuries and was taken to hospital at Whitehorse. RCMP officers took the body of Sister Mary to Whitehorse.

BURIAL HERE

The remains will be brought to Victoria for burial in the Sisters of St. Ann plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Sister Mary Ignatia, whose family name was Elizabeth Parker, joined the order of St. Ann in 1921 and followed a very active career.

She founded a mission station in Japan in 1934, returning to Canada after the Second World War in a repatriation ship.

Later she was superior at the Bulkley Valley mission at Smithers, B.C., and had just recently completed a six-year mandate at St. Mary's Hospital, Dawson City.

Sister Mary leaves a sister, Mrs. Teresa Gillespie, in Victoria.

U.S. RAIL FANS ABOARD

'Cariboo Special' Makes Tracks Here

An international train known as the "Cariboo County Special" from San Francisco is due to visit Victoria Aug. 30, it was learned today.

Bringing some 200 railway enthusiasts from California, the diesel-driven train will travel from San Francisco via several different railroads and through the Cariboo over Pacific Great Eastern tracks.

On the return journey, the train will cross to Vancouver Island by barge and is scheduled to reach the railyard alongside the Silver Spring brewery in Victoria West at 3 p.m., Aug. 30.

It will be met here by Petty Officer Joseph Thwaites of the Royal Canadian Navy and a number of other local rail fans.

"ROYAL WELCOME"

"The train has been chartered by a rail fan club in California," PO Thwaites said, "and we hope many local residents will give the visitors a royal welcome."

The 200 California fans are paying $495 and $660 each for the round trip, including meals and berths.

From Victoria West, the train leaves for Lake Cowichan and Nanaimo at 10 a.m. Aug. 31 and is due to reach Nanaimo at 9 p.m.

It is scheduled to leave Nanaimo at 12:30 a.m., Sept. 1, for Vancouver and the return journey to Vancouver.

Pats Competing In Automatic Rifle Competitions

Eighteen members of the First Battalion Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, Victoria, are competing in rifle, sub-machine-gun and pistol competitions at Connaught Rifle Range, Ottawa, this week.

The 1st Bn. PPCLI members, Western Command's entry in the competition, are part of the 210 top regular army marksmen, competing, from across Canada.

This is the first year the light automatic rifle is being used in competition. In previous years the light machine-gun was used.

Big Show, No Damage By Electrical Storm

One-Way Plan For Blanshard, Rose Streets

Traffic Speedup Seen by Garnett

A one-way traffic system for three blocks of Blanshard and Rose Streets was recommended by city works committee today.

Under the plan, northbound traffic would use Blanshard between Queens and Hillside and southbound traffic would use Rose Street between Queens and Hillside.

Two-way traffic would continue on the rest of Blanshard and Rose Streets.

START SOON

Construction work to extend Rose Street from its present terminus at Bay to the intersection of Queens and Blanshard is expected to begin in a few days.

Once completed, the extension will provide a wedge-shaped traffic system on the two streets between Hillside and Queens.

Northbound traffic on Blanshard would continue past Queens to Hillside where it could turn right or left. Cars headed for the Mayfair Shopping Plaza would travel along Hillside for a block and turn north again on Rose Street.

Southbound traffic would run along Rose to Queens and on to Blanshard.

FEWER SIGNALS

City engineer J. C. Garnett said the plan would facilitate traffic circulation and reduce the need for traffic signals along the routes, although a new traffic signal will have to be installed at Hillside and Rose.

He added that both the Rose Street extension and revamping of the Fountain Circle with traffic signals are expected to be completed by Oct. 15.

Committee voted to preserve the water fountain now standing in the Roundabout for reerection elsewhere in the city, after Mr. Garnett said it will have to be removed soon as part of the circle reconstruction project.

Another Display Possible Tonight

An electrical storm which crackled and crashed over most of B.C., Washington, Oregon and part of Idaho on Sunday afternoon, was relatively easy on southern Vancouver Island.

Although lightning struck repeatedly in forested areas, accompanying thunder showers extinquished most fires before they could spread far.

However, a number of fires were reported still burning today in Washington State.

Victorians flocked to Dallas Road and other viewpoints for a better look at the electrical storm, rare in these parts.

And weatherman Bill Mackie today said another lightning show is possible tonight.

City fire department rushed to Beacon Hill Park where lightning struck a tree on the lookout, starting a small grass fire at about 3:25 p.m. But the blaze was drowned by the rain before firemen arrived.

POWER FAILURES

A B.C. Hydro spokesman reported a number of transformers were hit by lighting, causing spotty power failures over a wide area.

Among areas affected were parts of the city, Esquimalt, Oak Bay, Prospect Lake, Sidney, Gordon Head and Cobble Hill.

B.C. Telephone services were not affected.

Winds which accompanied the storm, gusting up to 35 miles per hour, made navigation difficult for small boats in the Strait of Juan de Fuca, but did not affect waters up the west coast.

BOATS SCURRY

At Brentwood, waves and lightning bolts sent boats scurrying for shelter.

No boats were reported damaged or swamped.

Heavy thunder showers made for poor visibility in places, and several drivers on the Island Highway south of Duncan pulled off the road to wait out the storm.

A B.C. Forest Service spokesman reported eight fires, including two at Langford, were started by lightning.

37th THUNDERSTORM

The weatherman said this was the 37th thunderstorm in this area in 64 years. This means Victoria has on an average only one storm of this kind every two years.

But the old storm centre off the coast of Washington could send up another patch of thunder and lightning tonight, Mr. Mackie said.

Apart from this, weather generally will remain sunny, with temperatures ranging from 67 on the coast to 75 inland, he said.

MRS. MAGGIE BELL . . . stayed in coma

City Woman Dies After Car Crash

A 78-year-old woman, injured in what at first was thought to be a hit-and-run accident on the Malahat Aug. 4, died Sunday night at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Mrs. Maggie Bell, 2348 Cadboro Bay Road, never regained consciousness.

RCMP announced today they called off the search for a hit-and-run car after discovering that in fact it never left the scene.

At the time police said a hit-and-run car caused the vehicle in which Mrs. Bell was riding to go off the road.

Road blocks were thrown up around the area and the search went on for several days.

But Shawnigan Lake RCMP now say the witness who reported the hit-and-run car decided several days later it hadn't been involved in the crash.

Then RCMP police discovered the vehicle involved had remained at the scene all the time. Apparently it only slightly touched the bumper of the car in which Mrs. Bell was travelling.

However, the collision was enough to throw the car out of control. It spun around, slid on the gravel beside the road and overturned in a ditch.

NOT IDENTIFIED

Mrs. Bell was in a car driven by James Wilson, 2951 Glasgow. Police have not released the name of the driver of the other car.

Police said today the accident occrred when the two cars, both going south, converged from a two-lane section of road into a one-lane.

Mrs. Bell was born in Nottingham, England, and came to Canada in 1904. Her husband, Sidney, died June 9.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced. McCall Bros. is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Bell is survived by a son, Charles of Victoria; five daughters. Mrs. John Macalister and Mrs. Joseph Macalister, both of Macalister, B.C.; Margaret, at home, and Mrs. Jack Girardau and Mrs. William Francis, both of Victoria; 16 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

TUESDAY MEETINGS

Victoria Kiwanis Club: 12:10 p.m., Empress Hotel; guest speakers will be federal forestry minister J. R. Nicholson and Oak Bay MLA Allan MacFarlane.

Victoria North Kiwanis Club: 6 p.m., Mattick's Farm; golf and dinner at 7:30 p.m.

94-Year-Old Club Woman Dies in Sleep

Mrs. Ruth P. Bradshaw, 94, a resident of Victoria for 56 years, died in her sleep at a local nursing home Saturday.

Funeral services will be held in McCall Brothers' floral chapel Wednesday at 3 p.m., followed by cremation.

Mrs. Bradshaw was the widow of C. W. Bradshaw, Victoria barrister, who died here 29 years ago. She had been a member of First Baptist Church since 1908, was a member of the Local Council of Women and treasurer of the Women's Canadian Club.

During the First World War she was in charge of a Canadian Red Cross workroom and was reputed to have knitted one sock or made a pair of pyjamas every day from 1914 to 1918.

Mrs. Bradshaw was also active in Victoria Musical Arts Society and attended the Victoria Symphony Society concerts regularly until about two years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. D. R. (Kathryn) Blade of Oakland, California, and Mrs. J. Maurice (Alexe) Green of 3911 Smugglers Cove Road; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Motorists Happy With Parking Ban Car Club Reports

Motorists are happy about the parking ban on the west side of Government Street even if merchants are complaining, city works committee learned today.

Directors of the Victoria branch, B.C. Automobile Association, "commend you and the city council for the steps recently taken to relieve traffic congestion on Government Street," a letter said.

"With the growth of the Greater Victoria area the merchants can best be served by a motoring public that has easy access to the centre of the city and sufficient parking area to go to on reaching their destination," branch chairman G. C. Parrott wrote.

"Congested streets caused by 'on-the-street parking' can eventually deter the motorist from doing his business in the downtown area."

Blood Bank Low—Deposits Asked

Blood donors are urgently needed by Victoria's Red Cross clinic.

They are asked to visit Red Cross House, 1046 Fort Street, on Tuesday and Wednesday from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

"With many people away on holiday, our blood bank is low and there are many demands on it," a spokesman said.

TRUSTEES TO PREVIEW SEX EDUCATION FILMS

Films and tapes on sex education which may be used in local junior high schools will be examined Wednesday by Greater Victoria school trustees.

Dr. J. L. M. Whitbread, senior metropolitan medical health officer, will show the films to trustees, and will discuss with them proposals for sex education in schools.

Trustees earlier welcomed a proposal by the Metropolitan Health Board in June, that a "pilot study" of sex education be conducted next term in a junior high school.

Lectures under this plan would be given by a physician.

Ask The Times

Q. Now that football season is here again, could you please explain the system of first, second and third downs in Canadian football D.L.

A. When a team gets possession of the ball in Canadian football it is given three attempts to advance the ball 10 yards. Each attempt is called a "down," which ends when the ball is grounded, the ball carrier is tackled or the team scores.

If successful in gaining 10 or more yards, the team gets another series of three downs. If it fails, possession of the ball then goes to the opposing club, which begins a series of downs.

Q. How did the city of Yellowknife get its name? L.S.

A. Yellowknife, N.W.T., was named after a northern Indian tribe, the Yellowknifes, who carried bright-colored yellow knives, made of native copper.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Shipyards Diversify . . . Profits Multiply

By MONTE ROBERTS
Times Marine Reporter

Victoria Machinery Depot is living up to its middle name these days.

It is combing the world for markets for the machinery.

Friday, for instance, two machinery contracts were fulfilled and shipped—one to New Zealand, one to Alberta.

Alongside the wall under the 100-ton crane at Government Graving Dock, the freighter Cap Palmas took aboard the second of three shipments of heat exchanger and heat processing equipment for a New Zealand oil refinery.

The total contract, in the half-million area, was won by VMD in competition with fabricators all over the world. The equipment is destined for the New Zealand Refining Co., a new enterprise set up near Whangarei.

VMD's second shipment Friday was a giant tower for a gas plant in Alberta—a tower that was loaded on three flat cars for the barge haul to the mainland, then by rail to the prairies.

The silo-sized steel vessel is a de-ethenizer, and I refuse to guarantee the spelling or even attempt to explain its function.

We waterfront wanderers tend to think of our two big shipyards in terms of keel-layings, launchings, and commissioning.

But it's all too obvious that comparatively unglamorous jobs, such as VMD's efforts noted above, are essential to keep the yards in business.

Both Yarrows and VMD deserve a pat on the back for an excellent program of diversification — and the courage to lay out large sums of money for plant expansion in the face of ever keener competition at home and abroad.

It sometimes takes quite a while, but the tide eventually brings in most of the goodies to this corner of the beach.

Only last week I learned of a note written by Capt. G. H. Hayes, Second Canadian Escort Squadron, to Capt. C. P. Nixon, Fifth Cortron, at the end of 1962.

The occasion was a sad one —Cortron Five of Halifax had wrested the gunnery trophy from Cortron Two—of Esquimalt.

But the note was Cassius Clayish:

"It is requested that, as temporary custodian, you take good care of our hardware."

Some time ago it was suggested that the Fraternity of Waterfront Watchers should rally around and join the World Ship Society, so we could form a branch of our own in Victoria.

I regret to report that, as far as I can ascertain, only one new member has joined, bringing the total here to 10 or 11—about half what's needed for a branch.

This is a pity, because the publication issued by the society each month is well worth the membership fee of $5 a year.

Let's try again, FOWW. For further information, telephone EV 3-8050 between 4 and 6 p.m. Or send your application direct to Frank Edwards, the Vancouver branch president, at 1645 Marine Drive, North Vancouver.

Invited to the Wedding? Give Her a Special Gift

By PENNY SAVER

We haven't kept an accurate count, but our social department staff is convinced that there are more weddings scheduled this year for late summer and fall than took place during spring.

If true, it is fortunate for those who are invited to attend! Many stores have specials this time of year on items that will make lovely wedding or shower presents. Here's your opportunity to buy the kind of gift you like to give at a price you can afford.

One store I shopped in has line of vases on sale, all at less than half price. They have red rose design on creamy white background and come in various shapes, sizes and styles. Regular prices range from $3.99 to $7.95 and are reduced to the sale prices of $1.99 to $3.95.

Same store has distinctive wall plaques selling for $9.49 that are ordinarily $18. Black wrought iron in scroll design makes a striking frame for the three dimensional flower motif on concave white background. Plaques have orchid daffodil or rose in delicate pastel colors.

If you're fond of flowers and like to be reminded of their summer beauty all year round by seeing them on your teacups, take advantage of a special another store is offering. They have cups and saucers on sale at $1.25 each or three for $2.98. You have a choice of style, in ordinary tall cups or tall ones with pedestal base. And you certainly have a choice of patterns—there are 12 different ones in both styles. Remember Victoria with a cup decorated with pink, white and blue hydrangeas, pansies or forget-me-nots.

Call Penny at 382-3131 if you would like to know where I shopped for these items.

THE BETTER HALF

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Here's Advice for Women With Home and Career Too

Lowman

I believe that the business woman, or the woman who has been in business or had a career, is a splendid marital bet. She has learned to discipline her moods, to organize, to look her best, and to get places on time. She is also apt to be understanding of her husband's fatigue when he returns home from work.

However, the woman who continues to work after her marriage must watch out for a tendency to relax to the point of dowdiness when she returns home after a hard day in the office. She may also neglect her beauty care. She is often just as weary as her husband is.

If she is going to lubricate her skin properly and roll up her hair, she must do so when both she and her better half are at home. She is apt to do one of two things; forego her beauty routine in order to look attractive for him or indulge in it and look unattractive. This is not necessary.

If this is your problem, make the following a rule of your day. Take a half-hour when you first arrive at home for a relaxing bath. Before getting into the tub cleanse your face and neck and apply a lubricating cream to them. Pat it in. The heat from the water will aid in its absorption. This gives the cream time to soak into the skin and soften it.

There are also night creams which leave little grease, and an eye cream does not detract from your attractive appearance. This can be patted in gently over the lids and under the eyes just before going to sleep.

You can roll your hair up or pin-curl it and still be alluring. Wear a becoming turban. Wrap silk or net around your head to cover the curlers. You can create many different shapes.

Just a change from your working clothes to something more glamorous is restful. Today there are so many charming housecoats, lounging pyjamas and shifts, that you can be comfortable and lazy while looking your prettiest.

An hour spent this way after your return from work will add greatly to the pleasure of your companionship with your husband and will also go a long way toward promoting romance and beauty.

If you would like to have my free leaflet "The Married Woman" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 62 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

The engagement has been announced of Gloria, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mobey, 418 Alpha Terrace, to Mr. Jon Stirling Parker, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Parker of Barrie, Ont. Miss Mobey is a graduate of the 1962 class of Royal Jubilee Hospital. The marriage will take place at St. John's Anglican Church in Victoria on Saturday, August 31, at 8 p.m. (Miss Mobey's photo by Chevrons; Mr. Parker by Meyers Studios.)

TODAY'S RECIPE

CHICKEN MOUSSE

Four and one-half cups chicken broth, 3 envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1 teaspoon onion powder, 1 quart (about 1½ lbs.) finely diced chicken or turkey, 1 pint shredded carrots, 3 cups heavy cream (whipped), 2 cans (6 oz. each) broiled mushroom crowns, ½ cup mushroom broth, ½ cup cider vinegar, ½ cup dark brown sugar, 1 tablespoon whole mixed pickling spices.

Place 1½ cups chicken broth in a small saucepan and sprinkle in gelatin. Place over low heat and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat and stir in remaining 3 cups chicken broth and the onion powder.

Pour into a 4-quart bowl and chill mixture to the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Stir in chicken and carrots, then fold in whipped cream.

Turn into a lightly oiled 3-quart mold or into two 1½-quart molds and chill until firm, preferably overnight.

Meanwhile drain mushrooms. Combine ½ cup mushroom broth with vinegar, brown sugar and pickling spices and bring to boil. Place mushrooms in jar or other suitable container and pour hot vinegar mixture over mushrooms.

Cover tightly and place in refrigerator for at least 24 hours.

Unmold Chicken Mousse and garnish with pickled broiled mushrooms and carrot rings with parsley or watercress bouquets. (Nine large or 18 medium servings.)

DEAR ABBY . . .

Itching for Scratch!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My brother and I caught poison ivy again this year for the third year in a row, and our father is making us pay for the shots with our own money. Last year when we caught it, he said that now that we knew where the poison ivy was, if we ever caught it again we'd have to pay the expenses. Abby, isn't it bad enough to be covered with poison ivy without having to spend our berry-picking money to get well? If you print this in your column our father might change his mind.

DAVID and STEVIE (11, 13).

DEAR BOYS: I'll print your letter, but I'm afraid it's hopeless. Your father is trying to teach you that money doesn't grow on trees. You've got to scratch for it.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my 25-year-old daughter. She is still single and doesn't seem the least bit concerned about it. When the subject of marriage comes up, she laughs it off. As far as I can see, she has no intention of getting married, and I don't care for the idea of having an old maid for a daughter. What can I do?

WORRIED MOTHER.

DEAR WORRIED: Be thankful that your daughter is content. Or would you rather she be married and miserable? Or worse yet, divorced and living at home again with a couple of youngsters to raise?

DEAR ABBY: What should the mother of a teen-age boy do when a girl's mother doesn't give her daughter a deadline to be home after a date? I suppose I should feel flattered that the girl's mother trusts my son with her daughter, but it doesn't seem right to send a 17-year-old boy off with a 16-year-old girl without telling them when to be home. I believe it's the girl's mother who should set the deadline. But if she doesn't, then what?

MRS. P.

DEAR MRS. P.: Tell your son what time you want him home, and that should settle it.

DEAR ABBY: The woman who "lied" nine years off her age in order to capture a certain widower reminded me of my own experience. When I met this very attractive older gentleman, I wanted so much to be considered "wife" material that I added five years to my age so he wouldn't think I was too "young" for him. We are married now, and couldn't be happier. I later confessed my scheme, and we both had a good laugh.

FRAN.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Wed In United States

Mrs. J. W. Brewsaugh of Ganges on Salt Spring Island has received news of the marriage of her son, PO Jack Hayes, USN, to Mrs. Sarah Cumo. The wedding took place in Sidney, N.Y., and the honeymoon was spent at Syracuse, N.Y. PO Hayes has rejoined his ship, the destroyer-escort, USS Bronstein, which is on a cruise to San Diego, Seattle and Victoria. Mrs. Hayes is in San Diego where they will make their new home. PO Hayes is well-known to residents of Salt Spring Island.

From Winnipeg

Miss Marty Komar and her girl friend, Miss Umi Abe were weekend visitors in the city from Winnipeg. They were guests of Miss Komar's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cuff at their home on Arrow Road.

A Surprise

Mrs. C. C. Wakelin recently entertained at a surprise party in her Sharp Road home on Salt Spring Island in honor of Mrs. J. S. Jones who leaves shortly with her husband for an extended visit to Great Britain and continental Europe. On behalf of the guests, Mrs. Neil Smith presented the honor guest with a train case. Others present were Mrs. S. P. Beech, Mrs. E. H. Newman, Mrs. J. Inglin, Mrs. N. Smith, Mrs. M. Jones, Mrs. W. Stewart and Mrs. Dennis Seward. While overseas, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will spend several months at Guernsey, Channel Island, as guests of their daughter, Mrs. D. Foard, a former resident of Salt Spring Island.

Birthday Party

Fifty friends of Mr. Bryan Gray met recently for a surprise party in his honor and to mark his 21st birthday. Gathering was held at the Ferndale Road home of Mr. John Balloch. Assisting as hostess was Miss Sally Powell. Entertainment was provided by Mr. Bob Foulds, formerly of the Wayward Trio. Here from Vancouver for the party were Miss Lorraine Crossley, Mr. Del Kyle and Mr. Gordon Storey.

Gifts for Home

Mrs. Frank Unwin entertained at her home on Burdick Avenue recently for Miss Barbara Johnston. Mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. David Johnston was presented with cream gladioli en corsage, and Miss Johnston with pink gladioli.

The tea table was centred with an arrangement of white heather and pink gladioli. Mrs. H. G. MacKenzie presided. Games were played and gifts for her new home were presented to Miss Johnston.

Other guests were Mrs. T. Oie, Mrs. Alex MacKenzie, Mrs. F. Grossmith, Mrs. C. M. Smith, Mrs. W. Holland, Mrs. E. I. Robinson, Mrs. G. Cotton, Mrs. H. Southin, Mrs. A. Sabiston, Mrs. W. Stewart, Mrs. M. Pearce, Mrs. M. Coppinger, Mrs. J D. Gillan, Mrs. George Twist and Miss Pamela Gillan.

Motor Trip

Sqdn.-Ldr. and Mrs. P. Biggs have as guests at their Kremlin Street home, their son-in-law and daughter Flt. Lt. and Mrs. A. P. Michalchan and their daughter Cathy. The visitors motored from the RCAF station in Centralia, Ont., and will leave again for the east toward the end of this week.

Co-Hostesses

Miss Eleanor Colwell and Miss Sharon Nesbitt entertained in the latter's home on Parkside Crescent to honor bride-elect Miss Heather Murray. A shower of presents, suspended from the beams, greeted the honor guest on her arrival. She was presented with a corsage of red rosebuds while her mother, Mrs. J. B. Murray, received pink carnations. Favorite recipes of guests were also given to Miss Murray. Those present were Mrs. M. C. Nesbitt, Mrs. R. Dunnett, Mrs. N. Henson, and the Misses Linda-Jean MacLean, Mary Barnard, Rikki Bridges, Maureen Butler, Gail Bonner, Susan Ross, Wendy Ross, Lynn Wells, Daphne Walsh and Sylvia Campbell. Unable to attend but sending gifts were the Misses Sharon Smith, Marion Marson and Marie Lindford.

RAY PERRAULT WED SATURDAY

MISSION (CP)—British Columbia lost one of its most eligible bachelors Saturday when provincial Liberal Leader Ray Perrault took as his bride Barbara Joan Walker.

The 37-year-old politician was married in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church by Rev. A. M. Dickenson. Guests included a number of members of parliament and the B.C. legislature.

The bride, a North Vancouver school teacher, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walker of Mission.

Sunday Afternoon Wedding For Fern Sharron Rodger

Chapel of Royal Jubilee Hospital was the setting, Sunday afternoon, when Fern Sharron Rodger exchanged wedding vows with Leslie Phillip Potter. Rev. H. M. Wingfield, Nanaimo, officiated.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rodger of Extension, B.C., and groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Potter of Red Deer, Alta.

Couple are spending their honeymoon in Banff and visiting the groom's parents at Red Deer before returning to Victoria to make their home at 1093 Foul Bay Road.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of elegant white brocade that had lily point sleeves. Skirt was caught into pouffs by fabric bows. Frosty pearl headpiece held in place her misty fingertip veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of white gladioli set off by inset of red sweetheart roses. An opal ring left to her by her grandmother, the late Mrs. Ethel Rodger, was bride's "something old."

Bride's sister, Mrs. Jack Foglietta was matron of honor. She chose a pale turquoise linen dress with headband and veil en tone. The bridesmaid, Miss Alice Kristmanson was similarly gowned in yellow linen with matching headpiece. Both carried white gladioli and pink sweetheart roses in their bouquets.

Bruce Shewan was the best man and guests were ushered to their pews by Ron Nowicki.

At the reception held in the dining room of the Ingraham Hotel, A. B. Marshall proposed the toast to his niece's happiness.

Before leaving on the honeymoon trip the bride changed to a chestnut brown dress with matching waist-length jacket, shoes in moth shade, white lace gloves and whispy white hat with small velvet bows.

Victoria Man Married in Alberta

A wedding of interest to Victorians took place in the Rimbey United Church recently when Norma Eileen Seely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moller of Rimbey, Alta., exchanged vows with Bruce Gregory Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Simpson of Victoria. Rev. R. Clegg officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

White taffeta and nylon chiffon fashioned the bridal gown that had a lace bodice with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. Floor-length skirt featured a dropped waistline and was accented with panels of lace.

Her fingertip veil pouffed from a tiara of tiny pearl sequins. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and red rosebuds and was given in marriage by her father.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Keith Bland, as matron of honor and Miss Laurie Simpson and Miss Lynda Reed, Victoria, as bridesmaids, wore pink gowns of taffeta overlaid with nylon and lace-skirt panels and lace bodice. They had matching pink lace hats and carried bouquets of pink roses, lily of the valley and pink sweet peas.

Flower girl was the bride's sister, Betty Moller. She wore a pink nylon sheer dress with pleated skirt and matching hat. Pink roses and sweet peas were in the nosegay she carried.

Best man, William Wilson and groomsmen, Wayne Begg and Michael Wickstrom all travelled from Victoria to attend the wedding. Ushers were Donald Seely and Edward Moller, the bride's brothers.

Decorations of pink and white streamers and bells over head table and pansy floral arrangements on guests' tables at the reception held in the church recreation room were done by the Ladies Aid Society. A wedding cake, set in a mist of pink tulle, centred the head table. O. B. Moore, an old family friend, proposed the toast to the bride.

Other Victorians present for the wedding were the groom's parents and Mr. and Mrs. D. Burnett.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip through Montana, Idaho and Washington, the bride wore a pink linen sheath with matching jacket and shoes, white accessories and white rose corsage.

Couple is now living in Vancouver.

Bizarre Peppermint Lounge Caters Now to Lively Arts

MONTREAL (CP)—The shifting population of Montreal's St. Lawrence Boulevard has seen some bizarre trends come and go.

One of the most unsettling was the establishment two years ago of the Peppermint Lounge, where twisting debutantes and dowagers rubbed shoulders with minor Montreal gangsterdom.

Months passed, fashions changed, city permits were issued and revoked, and the non-stop orchestra stopped playing.

Soon only the ghosts of departed twisters disturbed the dust of the dance floor.

Until a McGill co-ed came up with a new twist on the Peppermint Lounge.

"We can use the bar for pottery," says Eve Norton, an ethereal, 21-year-old blonde who paints in the Peppermint Lounge windows.

"When we have art classes, we can pose models on the bandstand.

"The kitchen will be ideal for ceramics."

The Lounge has become the Lively Arts Centre, billed as a Paradise for Montreal's young, eager, and impoverished artists. It is based on the medieval concept of a workshop where a group of artists work together but independently, in their various media.

BE SMART—

Skirts are longer: we like the length just below the knee. Disregard anything longer this season, but Chanel's length should make you think. New skirts have more movement at the hemlines, are softly full or pleated, though the slimline's here to stay.

Data Goes to Uncle in Scotland

Delving through files in a newspaper library is nothing new for Miss Maureen Dunlop, a visitor in Victoria from Newton-Stewart, Scotland.

Until recently she was secretary to the editor of the Galloway Gazette. "It's a weekly newspaper," she says, "not very big. But I'm surprised to find many Scots in Victoria know it."

Her skirmish into the files in the Times library this week had nothing to do with the Gazette, however.

It was to fulfil a promise made to an uncle (by marriage) Mr. Jim Sproat of Laggan, Gatehouse-of-Fleet, Scotland. When he heard she was coming to Vancouver Island for a summer vacation with cousins, "several times removed," he commissioned her to look up some information for him.

Data he wanted has to do with Sproat Lake and the family for whom it is named. He had an idea he might be related to this family.

So his niece has been doing research for him during her visit here.

She's found a good many interesting facts, too, some in the Times library and others at the provincial library.

And she tells you in her delightful Scottish accent that "it looks now as if my uncle is right—and that he is related to the Sproat family out here.

"In fact, there may be a connection on my aunt's side of the family, too."

Miss Dunlop travelled to Victoria with a second cousin, Mrs. A. McKeachie and her son, Mr. Tom McKeachie, who were returning after a visit to relatives in Scotland.

She expects to leave again by air for the British Isles next weekend.

First news of a vital scientific triumph that will bring untold beauty and happiness to millions of anxious women.
2nd Debut for Mother
Since She May Now Lift Her Face Out of Lines and Wrinkles at Home
The "Wiesbaden Discovery" has now come to Canada and is available to you—you'll make heads turn your way once more and again enjoy the rapt attentions that were bestowed upon you at the time of your first debut. You will look somewhat as though your face has been suddenly given a fresher, younger looking smoothness, which restores the extra and all-important lost impact to the beauty your facial features have always had. Medical and other scientific journals have sung their praise of this valuable scientific work (done in Wiesbaden, Germany) which now brings you a real second debut with all the excitement of being newly admired—actually stared at.
How 2nd DEBUT works quickly
The active ingredient that enables 2nd DEBUT to give a more youthful facial skin in such a short time is a heretofore unknown and living part of human skin. Our scientists designate it as CEF 600. Placed on the face, this natural ingredient immediately penetrates the outer skin layer and carries into it millions of tiny loads of pure water that skin has lost during the natural aging process. This water finds its way under lines and wrinkles and as it accumulates there, it pushes these unwanted indentations upward. The face and neck look younger again. The result is actually startling to the user herself.
This ingredient (CEF 600), extracted from real tissue, is compounded into a smooth-flowing and delightful-to-use substance that is neither cream nor lotion. It is used nightly, and daily under-make-up, so that during 24 hours of the day it is carrying water into the skin to get you ready for your 2nd DEBUT.
We Have a Limited Supply—Because of the slowness and care with which CEF 600 is extracted, only a limited supply of 2nd DEBUT is available. The large 4 ounce size of 2nd DEBUT is $3.75. But so that no women needing 2nd DEBUT need be without it, you can get a one ounce clinical vial (a full 2 week supply) priced at $1.25.
2nd Début WITH CEF 600
The better drug and department stores should now have a limited supply

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Love is out-of-date . . . passe . . . love is for squares . . . it's something they used to have when they had horses and buggies . . . Mom and Dad could tell you about it, but—not nowadays

"Love has got to be sort of old-fashioned . . . I'm beginning to see that in the next generation people won't fall in love at all. They'll just have relationships . . ."

Shelley Winters, always the forthright one, delivered this prophecy a few nights ago. She was sitting across from a new beau, tall, athletic-looking actor-writer-poet-singer Henry Madden. He was open-throated and casual; he had just come from playing basketball.

In her Cadillac, she had driven us from her off-B'way show "Cages," to meet him at Allen's, a pleasant and informal bar at 73rd and Second Ave.

SIX WEEKS OFF

It's because she's taking six weeks off to do a film in Italy, "The Time of Indifference," that we talked about love flying away forever from the world.

"The theme is that love has ceased to exist in our time," Shelley said.

"Do you really believe this?" I turned on the tape recorder to play the 20 Questions Celebrity Quiz.

"Not in my time—but in the next generation" Shelley had ordered a steak tartare. "Now most youngsters come from broken homes. Love "ever after" seems an outmoded idea to them. They don't believe it can happen . . . a life partner that you stay with after your children grow up."

HOPE NOT

Q. You mean eventually there won't be any marriage at all?

A. Now don't try to get me into that! I'm saying I hope it doesn't happen. Life without love can be very cold and barren and unbeautiful.

Q. You're living in the most sophisticated circle in the world. In your group do you see any successful marriages?

A. Very few. The ones that are, are marvelous. The Frederic Marches. Lunt and Fontaine. . .

Q. Do you think you can still have a successful marriage? (She has been married to Mack Paul Mayer, Chicago manufacturer; Vittorio Gassman, and Anthony Franciosa.)

A. Yes, as I get older I'm smarter and I perhaps would be a better wife than I was a few years ago. When there was a decision to make before, my work won out . . . and not my husband. I had a drive to be a good actress. It's very hard to ask a man to take a secondary place to a career.

Q. But you might have then become a secondary actress and been unhappy?

A. Very true. But that Oscar's a very unsatisfactory companion and escort!

Q. Is there any fidelity in your group any more?

A. I don't think people love "ever after" any more. Especially men. People don't get married with the idea that it's for keeps. They just sort of try it out.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Getting up very early Sunday so you can have a nice breakfast with the children, and go to church, is a wonderful idea —right up to the moment you're supposed to get out of bed.

SOLUTION WEDNESDAY

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe.

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia to Daniel Cain, 10, Gary, Ind., for his question:

How many different motions has the earth?

The round earth spins around on its axis like a top. This motion is its rotation, and each rotation takes 24 hours minus four minutes. In a year, our busy globe has to make a 600-million-mile journey around the sun. This is its revolution. The earth and everything on it revolves around its orbit at an average speed of 18.5 miles a second.

The entire solar system is also on the move. It is traveling a vast orbit around the giant pinwheel of stars called the galaxy. The average speed of this galactic revolution is 170 miles a second. The earth, with the rest of the solar system, completes one of these staggering orbits in about 200 million years.

The earth's axis also moves. The two poles do not remain pointing to the same fixed spots in the heavens. They wander around in wobbly circles about 40 feet wide. The north pole also wanders around in wobbling motion called precession. Each one of these wandering circles takes 26,000 years.

The motion of precision is somewhat like the wobble of a spinning top that is beginning to slow down. As the north pole swings around, it points to first one spot and then another in the heavens. The Pole Star is the one which hangs directly over the north pole. Because of the motion of the precession, a number of different stars play the role of the Pole Star.

Our globe is surrounded on all sides by the star-studded heavens. From our place on the face of the earth, we look up at one view of outer space. But our world is moving, and as it moves we move with it to face a different view of the heavens. The heavenly bodies rise and set each day and night as the earth rotates. The changing constellations appear throughout the year as the earth revolves around the sun.

The earth's rotation speed varies from 1,000 miles an hour at the equator to nothing at the poles. The orbital speed is a little faster in December when the earth is closer to the sun. The average speed at which we circle the sun is 66,600 miles an hour. The average speed at which the solar system whirls through the galaxy is 612,000 miles an hour.

Andy sends a 15-inch World Book globe to Kendall Knight, age 13, of Franklinton, La., for his question:

Which state produces the most salt?

Louisiana is one of our biggest salt producing states, but it does not head the list. Michigan produces more than five million tons of salt each year, which makes it the largest salt producing state of America. Second is New York state, producing three and a half million tons of salt each year. And third is Louisiana, producing more than three and a quarter million tons of salt a year.

In an average year, the United States produces some 22 million tons of salt, most of which is used for various processes in industry. Some of this mountain of salt comes from brine wells and springs, some is taken from the sea and some is mined from the earth.

9 IN MEMORIAM

BOYLE—In loving memory of Mum and Dad, Jeanie and John Boyle, who both left us so suddenly.
"Till we meet again."
—Margaret, Douglas and Tommy.

ROE — In loving memory of our daughter Phyllis, who passed away August 12, 1950.

Take her in Thine arms, dear Lord,
And ever let her be
A messenger of love
Between our hearts and Thee.

—Ever remembered by Mom, Dad, and sisters Judy and Linda.

WEBB—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary-Ann Webb, who passed away Aug. 11, 1960.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

—Fondly remembered and sadly missed by her family.

SAMUELSON—In loving memory of Charles Swan who passed away Aug. 12, 1961.

The flowers we place upon your grave,
May wither and decay,
But love for you who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.

—Sadly missed by his wife Adelaide and daughters.

BRIDGE LESSON

By OSWALD JACOBY

South won the opening diamond lead with the ace and started about the business of drawing trumps. His plan was to let West hold a diamond after trumps were drawn and eventually discard one or two clubs on dummy's long diamonds.

Opening lead—♦ Q

South would have succeeded in his plans if East hadn't been thinking also.

East let South hold the first trump. He wanted to see if South had been dealt five or six trumps. When West followed to the second trump East knew that South had a five-card suit.

East also knew that South had jumped right to four spades after his partner's raise to two. What could South have for that bid?

He only held a five-card trump suit, nothing in clubs and just the ace of diamonds. South was marked with the ace and king of hearts.

How many hearts did South hold? Only those two! With three hearts he would surely have ruffed one in dummy before playing two rounds of trump.

Now East was ready for operation "Beat the declarer." He led the four of clubs. West produced the ten spot and forced one of dummy's honors. Later on West got the lead with a diamond and played a club to give East two club tricks.

42 EDUCATION

VOCATIONAL TRAINING OPPORTUNITY
BRITISH COLUMBIA VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
VICTORIA
(Sponsored jointly by the Federal-Provincial Governments)

I. VOCATIONAL PREPARATORY PROGRAM:

This program is designed for unemployed persons who are having difficulty in obtaining employment due to a low academic standing.

Depending upon the applicants accepted for training, the program will consist of two courses:

1. To improve the standard of those with lower than Grade X education to a Grade X equivalency, General Program.
2. To improve the standard of those with lower than Grade XII education to a Grade XII equivalency, General Program.

The successful completion of either of these two courses may lead the person into direct employment or qualify him for entry into specific Vocational training.

The courses of five months' duration will commence on September 3, 1963, and will be in operation 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

Prospective applicants must be at least 18 years of age; have been out of school for at least one year; and be registered as unemployed.

Application should be made immediately to the National Employment Service office, Victoria.

II. COMMERCIAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMME:

This program is designed to provide training in typing and shorthand to bring suitable applicants up to acceptable commercial standards.

Applicants must be registered with the National Employment Service as unemployed and must have previous experience in typing and shorthand.

Commencement date for the training of those approved will depend upon vacancies occurring in the class presently in operation.

FRONTIERS OF SCIENCE

THE TALKATIVE DOLPHIN - Part 1

TODAY MANY SCIENTISTS, SUCH AS ASTRONOMER PROF. BRACEWELL AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY, ACCEPT THE PROBABILITY OF INTELLIGENT LIFE ELSEWHERE IN THE UNIVERSE, AND EXPECT SOME DAY TO MAKE CONTACT.
BUT BEFORE MAN COULD BENEFIT FROM THE KNOWLEDGE OF OTHERS POSSIBLY FAR MORE ADVANCED IN TECHNOLOGY, A METHOD OF COMMUNICATION IS NEEDED.
ALL MAN'S COMMUNICATION ON EARTH HAS BEEN WITH HIS OWN SPECIES — AND ALL RACES OF MEN THINK AND VOICE THEIR THOUGHTS IN BASICALLY THE SAME WAY.
BUT HOW COULD WE TALK TO ANOTHER SPECIES ALTOGETHER, WITH UNKNOWN THOUGHT PATTERNS? THE SECRET MAY BE CLOSE TO HAND, IN A REMARKABLE SCIENTIFIC EXPERIMENT INVOLVING TALKING TO DOLPHINS!

CORN!
CORN!
CORN!
It's corn time again at Berryland! Corn must be super-fresh to be good and that is what it is at Berryland. That is also why all the 10,000 Victorians bought their corn at our road stand last year. From now on, and we hope until past Thanksgiving, we will have lots of good corn for all Victoria. We welcome all our old and new friends to come and get the best corn that can be grown in B.C. We have corn for your daily needs, for your parties and for your freezer. In one word Berryland is "The Place" for good corn! Come one—come all!

Andy Stephen Looks at TV

CATCHING UP: The lazy, hazy, TV repeat summer is almost over as August slips by and we look to the new shows on the launching pad for presentation next month.

Stephen

Among the forerunners will be Bob Hope starting his first year of weekly TV appearances with full-hour specials.

His year of specials is rounding into shape at a quick clip. Dean Martin, Tuesday Weld, Barbara Streisand, Les Brown and his Band of Renown and special guest James Garner will help him launch the new series Friday, September 27, with a full-hour comedy revue.

One week later, Friday, Oct. 4, Hope presents the first of 28 dramatic productions. He will host for the entire series, as well as star in six variety specials and two comedy-dramas.

Attractions in the series will include Rod Serling's "A Killing at Sundial" with Stuart Whitman, Angie Dickinson and Melvin Douglas.

Others will star Eleanor Parker, Jeffrey Hunter and Neville Brand in "Seven Miles of Bad Road"; "One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovitch" with Jason Robards, Jr.; and "The Fifth Passenger" with Mel Ferrer and Dana Wynter.

Also in the work are Eugene Burdick's first TV story "The Candidate"; John O'Hara's first property for filmed TV, "It's Mental Work," adapted by Rod Serling; and A. E. Hotchener's "A Wind of Hurricane Force."

Among the six comedy specials—to be interlaced with dramas during the season—will be a 90-minute program filmed overseas during Hope's annual Christmas starlift to entertain servicemen.

A quick glance at the star lineup and the roster of writers would indicate viewers can expect some good fare from the television factories in Hollywood.

* * *

A full-hour color special filmed in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul will be presented on NBC-TV next May.

The program is being produced by the Southern Baptist Convention in co-operation with the NBC television Religious Program unit. Travelling with nearly a ton of photographic equipment, the task force spent seven weeks this summer following the New Testament trail of Paul's missionary journeys through the deserts and mountains of the Middle East, across Turkey and into Greece and Italy.

* * *

Some people never get out of a rut after they've been type-set. Jack Elam, who played an itinerant U.S. marshal in the lemon of the season The Outlaws, will play an itinerant U.S. marshal in the new western dramatic series Temple Houston premiering this fall.

* * *

Channel 6 will carry a replay of tonight's B.C.-Edmonton football game on Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. The game will probably be picked up in the first quarter but fans throughout V.I. will catch the Lions in action.

STEELHEAD — TROUT — DEER—GROUSE. A SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE.

Yes, here is the answer to the fisherman's prayer! The ideal lodge for the hunter! On the bank of the famous Cowichan River, this property has all the amenities and modern features of a city residence and yet offers absolute seclusion, miles away from everybody. Standing in 7½ acres of level landscaped land, with 850' of river frontage, the residence is completely furnished and in first-class decorative order throughout. The accommodation includes living room, 25 ft x 17 ft, with fieldstone fireplace; rod and gun room; 5 bedrooms; Pembroke bathroom with separate toilet; shower room with toilet; oil heating; first-class automatic lighting plant.

Here you can wake up to the ripple of the river, step outside and enjoy the serenity of this little paradise, surrounded by thousands of game-infested acres of unspoiled countryside.

This is indeed a rare opportunity for the sportsman or the nature lover, to procure a beautiful country lodge, miles away from all the noise and nonsense of this modern world! Asking $25,000, fully furnished, with terms. Mr. Eric Charman, Fairfield Realty, 335 Cook, EV 5-9765 (including afternoons and evenings).

Skopje Plans Prefab City

SKOPJE, Yulgoslavia (Reuters) — Building teams from all parts of Yugoslavia today started planning the reconstruction of this city which was shattered by an earthquake 17 days ago.

They will first build fabricated houses containing 10,500 apartments and hope to complete them in two or three months.

All republics of Yugoslavia and the capital of Belgrade each will be responsible for building one housing development.

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ESQUIMALT
LOCAL IMPROVEMENT
NOTICE OF INITIATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

The Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt, in pursuance of the powers contained in Section 589 of the "Municipal Act," intends to construct under local improvement the following sidewalks:

1. A concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly boundary of Canteen Road to the westerly boundary of Lot 174 of Plan 2854, and a concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Lot A of Plan 13654 to a point thirty-six feet west of the easterly boundary of Lot 1 of Plan 7445, the cost in respect of which is to be borne by the owners abutting. The total estimated cost of the work is $5,688.00.

2. A concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Lot 243 of Plan 2854 to the westerly boundary of Lampson Street, and a concrete sidewalk ten feet wide on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Thornton Street to the westerly boundary of Lot A of Plan 15195 and from the westerly boundary of Lot 1 of Plan 8233 to the westerly boundary of Lampson Street, the cost in respect of the width in excess of five feet on the south side to be borne by the Corporation. The total estimated cost of the work is $9,045.00, of which an estimated cost of $6,086.00 will be assessed upon the properties abutting on the said work and an estimated amount of $2,959.00 will be borne by the Corporation.

3. A concrete sidewalk of varying widths on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly boundary of Lot B of Plan 15294 to the westerly boundary of Lot 11 of Plan 1385 and a concrete sidewalk of varying widths on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly property line of Lot 10, Block D of Plan 292 to the easterly property line of Lot 2 of Plan 330, the cost in respect of the widths in excess of five feet on both sides to be borne by the Corporation. The total estimated cost of the work is $13,828.00, of which an estimated cost of $7,683.00 will be assessed upon the properties abutting on the said work and an estimated amount of $6,145.00 will be borne by the Corporation.

Repayment of the portion of the cost of the works to be assessed upon the lots abutting on the said works may be paid in cash without interest within thirty (30) days after the special assessment rolls have been certified by the Court of Revision or with interest in 15 annual instalments.

Persons desiring to petition against undertaking the said work must do so on or before 4:00 p.m. on September 13th, 1963.

FORMULA FOR SUCCESS in teen-age marriage is to delay having a family until the couple is well established. That's the opinion of Bobby and Clara Mims who were 16 and 14 when they were married more than seven years ago. Last week they had their first child. Mims said he would discourage his son from marrying a 14-year-old—". . . especially if they planned to have children immediately."

Association Won't Budge In Fish Fight

Fisheries Association of B.C. is adamant that only the price of pink salmon should be included in arbitration terms of reference to settle the salmon fishing dispute.

United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union, on the other hand, holds that the arbiter, Mr. Justice Victor L. Dryer, should establish terms and scope of arbitration and wants the association to sign a document agreeing to this.

VETO EXPECTED

The association's decision—expected within a day or two—likely will veto the union suggestion, leaving settlement of the dispute as much up in the air as during the actual strike, which ended a week ago.

The parties are agreed only that an arbiter should deal with the matter.

The union wants all matters in dispute originally to come before the Supreme Court justice, or to let him decide his own terms, and claims the fisheries association at one point agreed verbally to the same thing.

"There is only the one matter in dispute" (pink salmon price), association secretary Kenneth M. Campbell said today.

He was replying to the question of why the association holds to this reasoning when prices of three other species, shore workers' and tendermen's wages and hours, and fishermen's welfare benefits were also in dispute.

AGREED UPON

Mr. Campbell said the association feels these other matters have been agreed upon directly or indirectly.

"A better question might be why is the union not recognizing that?" he said.

"The shore workers and tendermen have settled with our offer, and there is also the fact that the union agreed on the other fish prices," Mr. Campbell said.

He referred to a sealed offer submitted by the union July 19 to conciliation officer R. G. Clements, in which the prices of sockeye, coho and chums came down to the last association offer. The sealed envelope was never opened, but fishermen were made aware of its contents before they voted to end the strike.

Since welfare benefits were never a major item in dispute, this leaves only the price of pink salmon unsettled, the association insists.

CONTROL MOVE

Meanwhile, federal fisheries authorities have cancelled trolling for salmon at the mouth of the Fraser between Sunday midnight and midnight Oct. 12, except during net fishing for sockeye and pinks in the area.

This is a control measure for the fall spawning season.

V.I. ROUNDUP

Annual Forays For Marauders?

FULFORD — The three-day Salt Spring Island Pirate Festival which ended Sunday may become an annual event, Charles Horel, president of the island's Chamber of Commerce, said today.

The festival, supported by all island community groups, was considered a great success.

It ended with waterfront activities which included a salmon derby, scuba diving, spear-fishing contest, the Salt Spring Lions sea fiesta, boat races and water skiing exhibitions.

The event attracted hundreds of visitors from Vancouver Island, the Lower Mainland and Washington. Many arrived aboard private yachts.

On Saturday an 11-man Indian war canoe race was won by the Cole Bay Reserve entry, Miss Cheam, a 52-foot long canoe.

Deadhead Protest

DUNCAN — The Cowichan Fish and Game Asociation will protest again to the B.C. government a private firm is dumping deadheads near a public boat launching ramp.

The ramp is at Cowichan Bay between the firm's booming grounds and a row of houses.

The piece of shoreline in question is government property, set aside three years ago for public use.

Arnie Williams, association secretary, said some time ago the association, in a letter, asked the department of lands to order the removal of the logs.

He said the government investigated the association's complaint by sending an official to the bay.

He said the association never received a report on the result.

"We are not only unhappy about the continuous dumping of deadheads. We are also afraid that one of these days a boat will crash into the deadheads," he said. "For non-swimmers that would be disastrous."

Fishermen Safe

TOFINO—Two men aboard the trawler Paloma escaped injuries when their boat hit a reef at the entrance of Ahousat harbor Sunday night.

Arthur Charles and Walter Campbell of Ahousat, were taken to shore safely.

The troller is still stuck fast and the seiner Pacific Beze today is attempting to refloat her.

Magistrate Tours

NANAIMO—Magistrate Lionel Beevor-Potts, recently appointed magistrate for central and northern Vancouver Island, has left on a tour of magistrate courts.

He will acquaint himself with problems peculiar to each area.

In his absence, Eric Winch, newly-appointed magistrate, will conduct Nanaimo police court.

Magistrate Beevor-Potts will visit the Albernis, Courtenay, Campbell River, Port Hardy, Port Alice, Alert Bay, Tofino, Ucluelet and Tahsis.

He will return to Nanaimo at the end of the week.

Bursary Winners

PORT ALBERNI—Nine students in the Port Alberni area have been awarded bursaries for higher education.

Dirkje Deviet was awarded the $200 Kinsmen bursary and the Alberni Elementary PTA award and the Knights of Columbus bursary of $200 was awarded to Henry Kuiperi.

Other winners are: Dennis George Madkoro, MacMillan, Bloedel and Powell River bursary of $500; second MacMillan, Bloedel and Powell River bursary of $250 was awarded to Daniel Paul Gonu; IWA Local 1-85 bursary of $500 to Dina Louise Simons; bursary given by Mr. and Mrs. F. Armour Ford to Brigit Bledsoe; Somass Legion branch of the Women's Auxiliary to West General Hospital $200 to Glenys Ferryman; Alberni Valley branch, Registered Nurses' Association, $150, to Lynn Watson; Alberni District Teachers' Association, $200, to Cheryl McGarrigle.

CONNIE MACK KINGS

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP) — Kirkland Lake, Wash., defeated Portland 3-2 and 2-0 Sunday to win the northwest regional Connie Mack baseball championship.

Newest Weathership To Aid Ocean Study

The new weathership to be built by Burrard Drydock Ltd. will provide information for the Pacific Oceanographic Group at Nanaimo, the federal transport department has announced.

It will be the largest weathership in the Canadian Coast Guard fleet and will be used in the Pacific to provide information for meterological, telecommunications and electronics branches, as well as the department of mines and technical surveys.

Vicotria Machinery Depot and Yarrows Ltd. submitted bids last May, but Burrard Drydock was awarded the contract Friday.

The turbo-electric twin-screw ship will replace one of the Coast Guard weather ships at Ocean Station "Papa," 900 miles off the coast.

The ship will be 404 feet long, 50 feet across the beam, and will have a cruising range of 8,400 miles at 14 knots.

It is scheduled for completion in 1966.

Saanich to Smash Building Records

The value of building permits issued by the four Greater Victoria municipalies to the end of July is $22,609,035.

This is nearly $3,500,000 over last year's total at this time.

Saanich, about $3,000,000 over last year's total to the end of July, is expected to break the $11,019,837 all-time record. So far $10,583,828 worth have been issued.

The city's seven-month totals also are up: $9,710,175 compared to $8,417,785 in 1962.

ABOUT SAME

Oak Bay building permit values to the end of July this year are about the same as last year, $1,245,766, compared to $1,255,574 in 1962.

Esquimalt showed the only substantial drop, issuing $1,069,264 worth of permits this year, and $1,760,541 last year.

Canadian Films End Festival Wednesday Night

Victoria's International Film Festival will wind up Wednesday with a program of three Canadian documentaries at the Cameron bandshell, Beacon Hill Park, starting at 8 p.m.

The three Canadian films to be shown are "Circle of the Sun," "Sky," and "Nahanni."

Presentation of awards will be made by Mayor R. B. Wilson; Rear Admiral W. M. Landymore, Flag Officer, Pacific Command; and G. Slater, chief information officer of the British Information Service in Canada.

Two full programs of U.S. movies will be shown tonight and Tuesday at 8 p.m. Tonight's program consists of "He is Risen," "Carl Sandburg at Gettysburg" and "A Day at Seattle World's Fair."

Tuesday's films are "The Real West," "Winterthur — an Adventure in the Past," "Timberline" and "Long Beach."

Heiress Murdered

PORTLAND (AP)—Portland detectives believe that Mrs. Irene Davis, 41, a Payette, Idaho, cattle heiress, was murdered. Her body was found last week in her room at Portland's New Hilton Hotel. The body was in a bathtub. A nylon stocking was tied around her neck.

SKINDIVER MEETS DEATH ON OWN SPEAR

NEW YORK (UPI)—A skindiver stabbed himself to death with his own spear gun yesterday when he was knocked off balance by a huge wave crashing against a stone jetty near Jones Beach.

Authorities said Robert Petty, 31, Westbury, N.Y., was adjusting his face mask and had wedged his spear gun between rocks when the wave came, impaling him on the spear.

A fisherman spotted Petty unconscious on the jetty. He was rushed in a coast guard helicopter to Meadowbrook hospital at East Meadow where he was dead on arrival.

PILGRIMS LAID LOW BY FOOD POISONING

BRANTFORD, Ont. (UPI) — About 120 religious pilgrims, en route from Michigan to Buffalo and western New York state, were overcome by food poisoning and treated during the night at hospitals in Brantford and nearby Paris, Ont.

The victims, mostly women, were returning from a religious ceremony at St. Mary's College seminary near Flint, Mich., when they were taken ill near Chatham, Ont. The group, travelling in three buses, stopped at Paris when one of the drivers became ill.

Most were released this morning and continued to Buffalo but 15 persons remained behind for further treatment and were described in fair condition. Officials said 500 more persons could suffer food poisoning en route to other destinations in the United States.

Although the cause of the outbreak was not known, a group of 600 had eaten food supplied by an outside caterer.

Political Tensions Rise Over South Korean Arrests

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean opposition leaders charged today that the arrest of former military premier Song Yo-chang, an outspoken critic of strongman Gen. Chung Hee Park, was politically inspired.

Political tensions rose in the capital after retired Lt.-Gen. Song's seizure Sunday, three days after he published a letter calling on Park to give up plans to run for president in the October election.

The military junta charged Song with responsibilities for the killing of students and citizens during the uprising against President Syngman Rhee's regime in April, 1960.

Authorities also revived an old charge accusing him of ordering the execution without trial of an army colonel during the Korean war.

QUESTIONS MOTIVE

Another former premier, Huh Chung, a leader of civilian opposition to Park's regime, said Song's arrest "so close to the election makes me wonder if the government has a hidden motive."

Huh also criticized U.S. policy toward Park and called on the United States to reaffirm "its traditional principle" that military men should stay out of politics.

Democratic party spokesman Kim Dai-chung declared: "The arrest smacks of political retaliation." Kim said that "with the election so close, the arrest has created an ominous feeling among the people."

The Central Intelligence Agency said Song was arrested because he was linked "with certain important cases." It insisted the arrest had nothing to do with Song's political behavior.

FRANCE IRKED AT NEW TANK ARRANGEMENT

BONN (AP)—France has complained that it should have been informed about negotiations leading up to the U.S.-West German agreement on joint development of a new tank, government officials said today.

The complaint was made recently to the West German ambassador in Paris.

Under their new treaty of co-operation, France and West Germany are committed to consult one another on military matters. This was not done in the case of the tank agreement, reached during U.S. Defence Secretary McNamara's visit to Bonn early this month.

The world's first practicable pneumatic tire was invented in 1888 by John Boyd Dunlop, a Belfast veterinarian.

Mill Deal Studied By Songhees Band

Chief John Albany said at the weekend his band will decide next month whether to permit a mill operation to establish in their Songhees Reserve.

He said a mill probably would bring a smoke nuisance with it but the band needed the revenue for housing, roads and welfare services in the reserve.

A waste wood burner in the nearby Esquimalt Indian Reserve has been criticized by several persons on the Island Highway as a nuisance.

Chief Albany said if a lease for a mill is given by his band, it probably would include a rider that Indians be given employment in the plant where possible.

RESISTED

"We have no mills on the Songhees Reserve," he said. "We have had offers for many years but we have turned them down.

"But now we need money to maintain housing on our reserve, and we are considering some applications.

"We have two offers. The decision is up to the councilmen of the band.

"There will be a general meeting of all members of the band in September and the offers will be discussed then."

POPE'S PEACE PRIZE GIVEN EVERY 3 YEARS

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican announced today the establishment of a Pope John XXIII Peace Foundation to award a prize every three years for efforts towards world peace.

The foundation will be set up with the $160,000 peace prize Balzan Foundation last May for his peace efforts, three weeks before his death.

The original fund is expected to be increased by contributions from donors, the Vatican press said.

At the time he received his Balzan prize Pope John said the money would go into "a perpetual fund for peace."

A five-member council headed by the Vatican secretary of state will administer the Pope John Peace Foundation. Members will be chosen every three years by the reigning pope.

Practice Run for Pickets

Dedication, determination, and two raw eggs were ingredients for picture of two Congress of Racial Equality pickets, who had training session Sunday in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. Richard Siller, left, and Lois Bonzell are two of 50 CORE members who anticipate rough treatment in possible stands to be taken for civil rights in Bay area. (AP Wirephoto)

Juvenile Charged In Death of Boy

A 17-year-old Duncan youth was charged today with manslaughter in the mysterious death last week of a 14-year-old boy near the up-island city.

Duncan RCMP laid the charge after intensive investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Hugh George Nesbitt near his Bazett Road home last Thursday night.

The accused youth appeared in Duncan juvenile court this morning and was remanded without plea for eight days.

$1,000 BAIL

He was released in the custody of his parents on $1,000 bail.

Duncan lawyer David Williams, who is acting as Crown prosecutor, said after court he will apply at the next hearing to have the case tranferred to a higher court.

Mr. Williams said he will also ask the attorney-general's department to cancel the inquest which has already begun into the cause of Nesbitt's death.

The body of the victim was to be cremated today. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Peter's Anglican Church with Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh officiating.

ON WAY HOME

Nesbitt died only 100 yards from his home after an altercation with some older youths from the area. He and a 16-year-old friend, Conrad Wohler, had been for a swim at Maple Bay and were on their way home when the incident occurred.

It is understood a car passed them on the road, then stopped and one of the occupants asked them what they had shouted at them as they passed. There were two boys and two girls in the car.

RAN AWAY

According to Wohler, the youths in the car got out and he and Nesbitt tried to get away. Wohler ran off and as he did so he saw Nesbitt trying to climb a fence to get on to his home property.

Wohler said he heard one of the girls in the car shout "Leave him alone" as he ran away. Wohler hid and when the car had gone he returned to the scene.

NO MARKS

He found his friend dying in the grass beside the road. Police said there were no outer marks of violence on Nesbitt's body.

It is understood an autopsy has revealed brain injury.

Nesbitt was a student at Shawnigan Lake Boys' School. He lived with his mother, grandmother and 11-year-old sister.

'SELL MORE IN B.C.' BENNETT URGES U.K.

By DOUG MARSHALL

LONDON (CP)—Premier Bennett of British Columbia today opened a drive to persuade British manufacturers to sell more goods in his province.

Bennett told a press conference that B.C. last year sold more than $128,000,000 worth of goods to Britain and bought only $50,000,000 worth in return. He said he wanted a 100-per-cent increase in British sales to B.C. to even the balance.

"We're having a trade fair in Vancouver in 1964 and are anxious that British firms display their goods there and send their salesmen," he said.

The salmon fishing, fruit growing and mining industries in B.C. all are eager to buy British goods, he said, and there are considerable sales opportunities for British marine and railway equipment.

Bennett noted that the Panama Canal made freight costs from Britain cheaper than they are from central Canada. He also hoped that some British firms would set up subsidiaries in B.C. because they would be nearer the primary products and could sell up and down the Pacific coast and to the Far East.

Bennett, who arrived last week after attending the provincial premiers' meeting in Nova Scotia, said he plans to stay "just a few days."

'Everybody Richer, Nobody Gets Poorer'

LONDON (CP) — Premier W. A. C. Bennett painted a glowing picture for U.K. newsmen today of British Columbia's dynamic and prospering financial position.

"Social Credit is genuine competitive free enterprise in action aimed at making everybody richer and nobody poorer," the premier said at a press conference.

"We operate in peacetime as other capitalist systems operate in war."

He described the provincial takeover of the B.C. Electric as a "fair evaluation for shares" that should cause prospective British exporters no concern.

REPERCUSSION?

Bank Raises Lending Rate

OTTAWA (CP) — The Bank of Canada increased its lending rate to four per cent from 3½ Sunday in what may have been another indirect repercussion from the proposed United States tax on American purchases of foreign securities.

Louis Rasminsky, governor of the bank, said in a statement that the rate increase "should not restrict the availability of credit in Canada."

The central bank's lending rate applies to infrequent advances to the eight chartered banks and is considered the leading indicator of the cost of credit in Canada.

In an indirect reference to the aftermath of the July 18 tax proposal to Congress by President Kennedy, the statement said:

"In announcing the change, the governor of the bank described it as a technical adjustment related to the increased uncertainty and upward pressure on interest rates which had developed in Canadian securities markets during the past few weeks."

RESERVES DROP

Last Tuesday, Finance Minister Gordon announced that Canada's foreign exchange reserves declined sharply in July, particularly on July 18 and 19 immediately after the U.S. tax proposal was unveiled.

Canada's holdings of gold and U.S. dollars dropped by $190,600,000 to $2,501,000,000 in July. This comprised a drain of $110,900,000 in ordinary foreign exchange dealings and repayment of $79,700,000 to the International Monetary Fund on a loan received during the 1962 foreign exchange crisis.

Mr. Gordon said Wednesday that the drain in the exchange fund did not represent a run on the Canadian dollar. "It was a walk—perhaps a fast walk, but it didn't reach the danger level," he told reporters.

Sunday's announcement about the bank rate stressed that the change is not intended to signal a basic shift in the central bank's monetary policy. The bank was still aiming at pro-

Singer Having Ward's Baby

LONDON (AP) — Julie Gulliver says she is going to have a baby by the late Dr. Stephen Ward, the weekly newspaper The People reports.

The copyrighted article in the Sunday newspaper said the 22-year-old singer met Ward, a central figure in the Profumo sex-and-security scandal, four months before he died from an overdose of sleeping pills he took as a jury was about to convict him of living off the earnings of prostitutes.

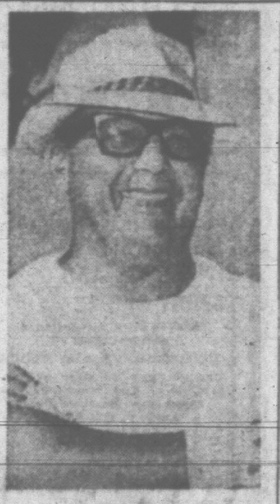
"All I wanted to do was to give him peace of mind," Miss Gulliver said. "My baby is due to be born in March. If it is a boy, I shall call him Stephen."

Meanwhile, Ward's lawyer cast doubt on the value of evidence offered by Joe Wade, a professional gambler who came forward after Ward's trial and said he could have cleared him.

Wade was reported recovering near Oxford from an overdose of sleeping pills taken Saturday at his hotel. He was in hospital for a time but walked out Saturday night—against medical advice, his wife said.

The nature of Wade's evidence has not been made public. However, Wade spoke to Ward's lawyer, Jack Wheatley, who told reporters Sunday:

"I did not think he had any evidence which could have been of use."



EXTRADITION of former Venezuelan dictator Marcos Perez Jiminez from the U.S. is to be approved by U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk, it was announced today. Perez has been in jail in Miami since Dec. 12 pending outcome of Venezuela's request for extradition on charges of embezzling more than $13,000,000 in government funds and for committing four political murders.

MAIL ROBBERY TIPSTER SPURS SEARCH FOR 5

LONDON (AP) — An informer's tip sent detectives combing London's sleazy East End today for five criminals reported missing from their homes since history's greatest train robbery.

No arrests were made, but Scotland Yard posted a watch at each of the five addresses.

About 15 masked men halted the Glasgow-London mail train last Thursday and made off with bags of registered mail worth more than the equivalent of $7,500,000. Most of the loot was old currency being returned to London for destruction.

The precision with which the gang worked aroused speculation that the master mind was a former military man.

Spurred by reward offers totalling £260,000, hundreds of Britons called police stations claiming to have information that might help the police.

PLEA TO SENATE

Rusk Opens N-Pact Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk urged the U.S. Senate today to ratify the test-ban treaty, saying it should slow the arms race without damage to the security of the United States.

Rusk testified before the Senate foreign relations committee as the first witness in the Kennedy administration's drive for Senate approval of the U.S.-British-Soviet pact to outlaw all nuclear explosions except those under ground.

Invited to the session were members of the Senate armed services and joint atomic energy committees, both of which have an interest in the test-ban issue.

Rusk, seeking to counter possible arguments against the pact that some senators might raise, emphasized that the signing of the treaty by East Germany will in no way imply U.S. recognition of that Communist East German regime.

He said East German authorities will subscribe to the treaty in Moscow, and added:

"The Soviet Union may notify us of that act. We are under no obligation to accept that notification and we have no intention of doing so, but the East German regime would have committed itself to abide by the provisions of the treaty."

TREATY SIGNIFICANT

Telling the senators that this treaty may prove to be one of the most significant since the founding of the United States, Rusk said:

"The United States and the Soviet Union already have enough nuclear power to inflict enormous destruction on each other. Still, the search for bigger, more destructive weapons goes on. . . .

"Yet greater armament has not demonstrably brought greater security. The treaty, if observed, should slow this spiral, without damage to our relative strength.

Rusk expressed confidence that if any nation tries sneak testing in violation of the treaty, "we will know about it—and we will be ready at all times to resume testing in all environments, and promptly. . . ."

REDUCE POLLUTION

The state secretary also said the pact will help deter the spread of atomic weapons and reduce the radioactive pollution of this planet.

"If the promise of this treaty can be realized, if we can now take even this one step along a new course, the frail and fearful mankind may find another step and another until confidence replaces terror and hope takes over from despair. . . .

Storm Disrupts Seafair Race

SEATTLE (AP) — A tumultuous thunder and rain storm swirled across Seattle and Lake Washington Sunday, disrupting the Seafair Trophy hydroplane race and taxing emergency services in the area to capacity.

(For local storm story see Page 13).

Several boats were overturned on the big lake just east of the city as wind gusts up to 30 miles an hour swept across the packed area where the course for the unlimited hydroplane race is laid out.

A log boom where hundreds of pleasure boats were moored to view the race broke in several places.

No deaths or severe injuries were reported despite the confusion from the rush to cover from the crowded beaches and along the log boom.

In the Vancouver area the wind hit when hundreds of persons were fishing in small boats. A marina operator at Horseshoe Bay in suburban West Vancouver said there must have been 200 boats in the area when the wind struck.

Many boats were swamped in the rising seas caused by the sudden wind.

The storm swept on into the B.C. interior and fears were expressed that the associated lightning would start fires in forests that have not had appreciable rain this month.

More than 200 small forest fires were started by lightning in Washington and Oregon.

Whites Cheer Mau Mau Head

NAIROBI (AP) — White European farmers who lived through the Mau Mau emergency applauded Prime Minister Joma Kenyatta today when he urged them to forgive and forget and work with African natives for a new Kenya.

"If I have made a mistake I ask you to forgive me and vice versa," Kenyatta told the settlers. This was the first time white farmers had attended a Kenyatta meeting since his release form a seven-year jail sentence for organizing and being a member of the terrorist Mau Mau.

Many said before going to today's meeting that Kenyatta's speech would enable them to decide whether to stay in Kenya.

Kenyatta was loudly applauded when he said:

"We want you to stay and to farm well in this country. Let us try to join hands for the benefit of Kenya. This is the policy of the government. All of us — white, black and yellow — are going to join hands and look forward to the future. In agriculture, finance and the civil service we need your continued co-operation."

GIRLS OF AFRICAN NATIONS SHOWING WAY

Bra-Less Swims in Europe by '73?

LONDON (Reuters) — European women by 1973 probably will think nothing of sunbathing on a beach in bare bosoms, an authoritative British fashion magazine predicted today.

Tailor and Cutter, which usually confines itself to men's fashions, said increased travel and sun worshipping all tended toward the nude upper half.

An article called Keeping Abreast of Fashion said that with the rising importance of the Negro races the traditional styles of African tribes may set future fashions.

It quoted one of Italy's leading couturiers, Emilio Pucci, as saying recently he thought European women would find nothing strange or scandalous in leaving off their bras in public.

"The less artificial and far more natural scope of the physical life of the girl in the African interior means that she will inevitably shape up a deal more happily without bust support than does her white sister," the article said.

"Devoid of a bra since first she needed one, the African girl is as good as a male: Firm, muscular and shaped as nature intended.

"Debilitated by centuries of artificial civilization, cramped into the peculiar shapes. . . which hinder their natural development, white women may need a century or two of freedom before their idle chest muscles can once again overcome the effects of near-atrophy . . ."

WEEK IN BUSINESS

Wall Street Upsetting Even Flow

NEW YORK (AP) — The mainstream of U.S. commerce flowed smoothly last week but there were disturbances in two important tributaries — Wall Street and world trade.

Wall Streeters received the third and final installment of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission report on market activity, finding some things they liked and some they considered controversial.

And in world trade, the threat of back-and-forth tariff retaliation was raised at the same time that debate continued over the problem of assuring that there is enough money-credit to support growing commerce.

Domestic business sentiment was cheered, meanwhile, by the way major indicators keep pointing upward.

PROBLEMS EASING

Also, new assessments suggest that two domestic problems may be easing. The threat of a rail strike Aug. 29 continues, but meetings by union leaders over contract proposals are slated for Tuesday and some drew hope that a hold-off plan could emerge. Also, though steel production continued to fall, encouragement grew that this decline will be reversed soon to meet construction and fall auto demands.

CONTENT WELCOMED

The SEC report on the stock market didn't cause a big initial stir. Wall Streeters welcomed its comments that there was apparently no manipulation or illegal activity in the big market break of May, 1962. Still, some frowned at the idea of tighter control of mutual funds and at the closer supervision requested for other areas.

PLAN RETALIATION

International trade circles were set abuzz by the U.S. announcement that it would retaliate against European Common Market imports if the market persists in its refusal to lower levies against U.S. poultry. Some thought this hard line by the United States might shake loose concessions from the Common Market. Many others feared, however, that this would spark a retaliatory mood in Europe.

The balance of payments question, meanwhile, drew the attention of four leading international bankers. They lauded existing world systems for keeping money and credit available. But they said that the United States must remedy its balance of payments deficit or run the risk of long-term, widespread consequences.

AUTOMOTIVE GLOW

Domestic business, meanwhile, continues to reflect the glow cast by the automotive industry even as it shuts down for model changeover. New reports list sales of new cars in July at 603,000, against 511,700 a year previous and close to the all-time July record of 624,000 set in 1955.

Shipbuilding In Britain Gets a Boost

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain's shipbuilding industry has received a stimulating shot in the arm.

It came from the government in the release of £30,000,000 ($90,000,000) or more available over the next 12 months for loans at five per cent, repayable over 10 years, to British shipowners placing orders with British yards.

This official move was welcomed by an industry which does not hide its present difficult position.

There now are 35,000 men employed on building new merchant ships in British yards, compared with 60,000 in 1960.

Orders for new ships in the last two years have been received at less than half the rate of completions.

ORDERS FALL

The British shipbuilding industry's order book at the end of March this year was down to 1,850,000 tons, compared with more than 7,000,000 tons six years ago.

This amounts to about 16 months' production and is the smallest tonnage under construction in British yards at any one time since 1940.

It is against this gloomy background that the new loans plan went into immediate operation.

In effect, it will allow British shipowners, who normally account for four-fifths of orders in British yards, the same favorable terms foreign owners can already obtain in Britain.

The scheme offers to many British shipowners, if they want new ships, an opportunity to modernize their fleets in British yards on good terms instead of having to go abroad to Japanese or European yards.

The new plan, it is estimated, could give British yards anything up to £50,000,000 ($150,000,000) worth of new business during the next year.

B.C. SAFETY COUNCIL award of merit was presented by president J. C. F. Stewart to employees of Victoria gas department, B.C. Hydro and Power Authority, in recognition of outstanding achievement in accident prevention — 1,010,089 man hours without a lost-time accident (starting Oct. 6, 1952). Illuminated scroll is held by George Kennedy of gas department's safety committee, with other employees of the department looking on.

WEEK ON MARKETS

Uncertainty in Toronto

By MARK MEREDITH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Investors sat out another week of uncertainty as the stock markets recorded lean volume and thinning prices.

The Toronto industrial index, buoyed up by a long weekend, climbed 2.27 Tuesday to reach the highest point and roll up the greatest volume since the U.S. proposed interest-equalization tax hit the market in mid-July. A 2¾-point loss on Wednesday, however, erased the gain. With a further dip Thursday and a feeble effort at recovery Friday, the market finished down fractionally for the week.

Last week saw 53 stocks in Toronto hit 1963 highs. Of 835 shares traded, 348 dropped, 304 advanced and 183 remained unchanged. Both dollar values and volumes on the week were slightly higher.

Analysts noted that the quarterly earnings reports did not stir up much confidence among investors, and some saw short-term bearishness in them. Although most firms reported gains, there was a decline in the rate of improvement.

Two lower quarterly earnings announcements accounted for much of Tuesday's souring of prices. Aluminium lost $1 on the week to $25.75 and British American Oil slipped 75 cents to $26.75, a 1963 low.

Banks, which some regard as market indicators, remained down for the second week. Toronto-Dominion dipped 75 cents to $60.50; royal 50 cents to $73: and Montreal 37' cents to $62.62½.

As the market plodded on most of the activity centred about speculative mines which often catch fire when industrials are idle.

Lake Dufault started popping Tuesday when it announced new underground drillings. On the week it gained $1.20 to $7.75 reaching a 1963 high of $8.25 Thursday. Neighbouring Wiltsey and Black Bay were also active.

Among featured industrials, B.C. Power, which remained at the top of the most active list for the whole week, continued to make gains, rising $1.25 on the week to $24.

Canadian Vickers rose $1.50 to $20.50 on the week following word of a contract for cars for Montreal's new subway.

Dome mines was an outstanding winner in an otherwise dull group of gold stocks, rising $4.37 on the week to $33.62½.

On index in Toronto, industrials slipped .94 to 617.31; golds fell .71 to 90.08; base metal advanced .27 to 203.10 and western oils dipped .54 to 113.25.

Volume for the week was 1,725,205 shares compared with 9,123,167 the previous week; dollar values $23,390,758 compared with $23,136,621.

Textiles Hurt By Red China Wheat Deal

Times Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA — Complaints have been made to the federal government by the Canadian textile industry that its future has been placed in jeopardy in order to make possible the new long-term wheat sale to Communist China.

The textile industry is complaining about major adjustments made by the national revenue department in customs valuation which has the effect of opening up the Canadian market for Chinese textiles.

This is part of the package deal for the sale of wheat to China.

Trade and Commerce Minister Mitchell Sharp announcing the deal, said: "In order to promote mutually advantageous trade the Chinese state trading corporations will, of course, seek to maintain and develop their market in Canada for various items. It is in our mutual interest to provide them with an opportunity to do so, subject to appropriate safeguards to avoid market disruption and damage to Canadian producers. In this connection the Chinese state trading corporations have undertaken to limit their exports of sensitive items, including textiles, to Canada."

In the past China, a state trading country, has had its goods valued at the prices put on goods coming into Canada from the United States or the United Kingdom.

In future the Japanese price level will be applied to Chinese textile imports into Canada.

This means China will be able to export goods to Canada and move them onto the Canadian market at a much lower price.

There are other countries such as Japan, Taiwan, Macao and Hong Kong that have agreed to restrictive quotas on their textile exports to Canada.

SPOKESMAN IRKED

It is understood the agreement to limit textile exports from Communist China to Canada was reached between the Wheat Board and the China National Cereals Corporation.

JAPAN BIDS TO SHARE FOREIGN CAR MARKET

MONTREAL (UPI) — Japan is going to try to gain a place in the Canadien foreign car market.

The first of the vehicles arrived here Friday aboard the freighter Mikishima Maru, from Yokohama, Japan.

The cars were the Nissan-Datsun. Twenty-five of the vehicles arrived in a shipment of Japanese cars to Canada. Some of the vehicles are also being circulated in Western Canada to coincide with the eastern shipment.

Romeo Koussaya, a representative of Nissan-Datsun Automobile (Que.) Ltd., says the 60-h.p. cars will average 42 miles per gallon of gas. He said their standard transmission has three synchronized gears.

They will retail at $1,975, fully equipped.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Banks Decline in Wavering Market

Increase in the Bank of Canada discount rate was reflected in declines in bank stocks today while prices in other stocks wavered uncertainly.

International Nickel, with a rise of 1⅜ to 65½ helped pull up the Toronto industrial index fractionally.

There was a special transaction in Toronto of 5,000 shares of B.C. Power at 24 with the stock easing off to 23⅞.

AT TORONTO prices wavered uncertainly during light mid-afternoon trading. Golds advanced.

Royal Bank fell 1¼ to 71½ and Bank of Nova Scotia was down 1 to 68½. Other losers were Bank of Montreal ⅝, Toronto-Dominion ½ and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ¼.

Among industrial gainers Canada Chemical, DuPont and Investors Syndicate A picked up ¼. Texaco was up ½ and Weston A ahead ⅜. Gains of ⅛ went to BA Oil, Shell Canada and Steel Company of Canada.

Abitibi fell ⅞ and Dominion Foundries and Steel dipped ⅛ among industrial losers. CPR off ⅜ and Imperial Oil and Interprovincial Pipe Line both down ¼.

In speculative mines Lake Dufault dropped 30 cents to $7.45, Wiltsey fell 1½ to 16 cents and Satellite dipped ½ to 21½ cents.

Medallion was down 10 cents to $3.55 and Northcal picked up 1½ to 45 cents among western oils.

Toronto industrial index closed off .56 and at New York the Dow-Jones industrial closed up 1.88.

AT MONTREAL banks continued to suffer heavy losses toward 2 p.m. today. Trading remained moderate.

Royal Bank dropped 1⅛ and Bank of Montreal was down ¾.

Bell Telephone dropped ¼ and Noranda and Power Corp. lost ⅛ each.

International Nickel led the gainers, climbing 2¼. CIL rose ½, Hollinger added ¼ and Steel Co. and Fraser were both better by ⅛.

In mining issues, Interprovincial Mining and South Dufault lost ½ a cent each. Jubilee dropped 30 cents and Lingside fell one.

AT NEW YORK steels rallied in an irregularly higher stock market late this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5,000,000 shares compared with 4,040,000 Friday.

Gains of fractions to about a point among key stocks outnumbered losers, but the margin was not great and there were plenty of soft spots.

Parke, Davis, up more than 2, looked the volume leader for the third straight session. Other drugs were mostly down on news of price-fixing charges.

As steels came up, Youngstown Sheet rose about 2, Crucible and Jones and Laughlin more than a point each, U.S. Steel and Republic about a point.

Chrysler, ahead more than a point, was outstanding in a narrow-mixed auto section.

Goodrich and International Nickel rose about a point each.

Rails moved upward fractionally on a broad front. Tobaccos and most of the nonferrous metals were fractional losers. Oils were narrowly mixed, aerospace issues slightly higher.

Burroughs was active and added 2⅛ at 28¾ on a block of 10,000 shares.

AT LONDON with sentiment cheered by a particularly encouraging report from the National Institute of Economic Social Research on the economic position and prospects, London stock markets got off to a good start and equities showed useful gains today.

Some price rises are the result of favorable weekend investment comment but last week's firm tone was maintained and the advance could well continue.

Dollar stocks were firm although Canadians were restrained by the rise to four per cent in Canadian bank rate. Canadian bank shares were dull.

Oils were harder but there was little movement in mines so far although goldfields were an isolated firm spot.

Gilt-edged opened steady, a feature in equities was a sharp rise in Oxendale.

AT VANCOUVER trading was light. Bethlehem Copper was up at $4.90, and Granduc at $4.25. Western Mines was at $3.25, and A-1 Steel "A" at 8. Cowichan Copper was down at $1.09 and B.C. Power at $23 7-8.

Drug Company Linked With Price-Fixing?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Federal Trade Commission ruled Sunday that Chas. Pfizer & Company, Incorporated, used unfair methods to obtain a patent on an antibiotic and that this set the stage for monopoly and price-fixing in a $100,000,000 market.

Reversing a hearing examiner's decision, the commission said prices of tetracycline, probably the leading antibiotic on the market, were rigged by Pfizer, American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Bristol Laboratories, Incorporated, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Squibb, and the Upjohn Company.

Spokesmen for Pfizer, Cyanamid and Bristol Laboratories denied the charges and said the ruling would be appealed to the courts. In case of appeal, the commission's order would be delayed until after final court action.

The commission said sales of the drug involved might run substantially more than $1,000,000,000 over the 17-year life of the Pfizer patent.

ORDERED TO CEASE

The commission ordered the companies to cease any conspiracy, exchange of information, or other acts designed to set prices of antibiotics.

The five commissioners agreed on the general finding in the case, although commissioner Philip Elman thought the commission should revoke Pfizer's patent privileges and commissioner Sigurd Anderson held that the cease-and-desist order should not have covered all antibiotics.

The ruling said both Cyanamid and Pfizer either withheld information or gave false information in proceedings before the patent office.

At one point, Cyanamid withdrew its contest of Pfizer's patent. Cyanamid holds a patent on 55 chlorotetracycline, known as aureomycin, another valuable antibiotic and one from which tetracycline can be produced.

Commissioner A. Leon Higginbotham Jr. wrote in the commission's main opinion that the record showed price uniformity, identical bidding and identical dosage forms, coupled with frequent contacts among the firms including the exchange of up-to-date price lists.

TODAY'S GRAIN

WINNIPEG (CP) — Prices showed an easier tone and some irregularity in moderately active trade near the close today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

TIME OUT! BY JEFF KEATE

"Wow! Saved a stroke by playing it! That'll give me a sure 12 on this hole!"

City Minor Boxla Clubs Have Rough Weekend

It was almost a lost weekend for Victoria clubs competing in provincial minor lacrosse playoffs at New Westminster.

All they could collect in five tries was half a title.

The half crown was earned by Saanich Employees, who battled through two tremendous overtime periods Sunday to finish in an 11-11 deadlock with Vancouver Legion in the two-game total-goals series for the juvenile "A" championship.

Both clubs will hold the championship trophy for six months.

One other playoff—for the peewee title—also went into overtime, but in that one Victoria City was edged by one goal, losing a thrill-packed two-game series to North Burnaby 21-20.

In Sunday's windup of the bantam boxla final, Saanich Butler Brothers played to a 7-7 deadlock with Sapperton but a five-goal edge earned in Saturday's opener gave Sapperton the title by an 18-13 count.

Sapperton's juvenile "B" squad followed up Saturday's 8-5 triumph with a 16-6 victory Sunday to trim Butlers 24-14 in the series.

The midget title was decided in one game Sunday and North Burnaby grabbed the crown with a 10-3 win over Victoria City.

In what some lacrosse officials rated the best peewee game ever played in the B.C. finals, Norburns bagged their winning tally with less than a minute remaining in the 10-minute overtime session.

BOUNCED BACK

Norburns, who had edged Victoria 11-10 Saturday, forged into a 3-0 lead in Sunday's first period and appeared headed for an easy win. But Victoria bounced back to trail by only one goal at half time and then evened the count at 6-6 after three quarters.

Victoria finished the game with a 9-8 lead but all square on the series.

Mike Beaulac sent Victoria ahead in overtime but D. Taylor tied it up and M. Crook fired the Burnaby winner in the final minute.

PLAYERS INJURED

Victoria was hampered by the loss of Tom Somner, who suffered a fractured arm on Saturday, and defenceman Graham Arthur, who went out with a leg injury in Sunday's second period.

Officials have arranged for the peewee finalists to play preliminaries at two Victoria-New Westminster senior Inter-City League playoffs this week at Westminster Wednesday and at Victoria Friday.

Packing a two-goal lead after Saturday's 6-4 win in the juvenile "A" series, Saanich forged into an 8-5 second period lead in Sunday's game. Then Legion surged back to score six straight goals and barely missed a series victory when Victoria's Ron Zilkie broke away for a goal in the final minute of regulation time to make the Legion margin 7-5 and square the series at 11-11.

Neither club could score in the two overtime sessions.

B.C. SOFTBALL

Imps Bow Out In Semifinals

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver Pattisons retained the B.C. major men's open softball title Sunday night, blanking Vancouver Realtors 5-0 behind the stellar piching of Buster Moberg.

Pattisons now advance to the western Canada finals in Calgary, beginning Friday.

The club came off the floor to defeat a surprisingly-strong Victoria Imperials team 3-2 in a semifinal game Sunday afternoon. Victoria had beaten Vancouver Eldorados 5-1 in a quarter-final contest while the previously-undefeated Pattisons dropped a 5-3 decision to the realtors.

The Pattisons quarter-final loss in the double-knockout tournament necessitated their beating Realtors 1-0 in a Sunday night contest to give the clubs 4-1 records and pit them together again for the final.

Moberg, a 27-year-old mechanic, hurled a two-hitter in the 1-0 victory and gave up only four hits in the final game.

The Victoria team was the surprise of the tournament. They held the lead twice in the semifinal game, forcing Pattisons to come from behind.

ANGLING LUCK WAS JUST PLAIN LOUSY

NEW YORK (AP) — Michael Rampino, 28, his son Frank, 4, and 12-year-old brother-in-law, Richard Malfitan, went fishing off Brooklyn Saturday. Their luck was lousy, no matter how you look at it.

Rampino, who had not caught a fish all day, hooked a wad of paper. He reeled it in and unrolled 49 $100 bills.

Showers Halt Incogs In Bid for Top Berth

Rain wrecked Sunday's battle at Duncan for first place in the Victoria and District Cricket Association.

Incogs, trailing front-running Cowichan by two points in league standings, had scored 66 runs for three wickets against Cowichan bowling when thunder showers washed out further play.

The match will be scored as a draw.

Rain also stopped play at Beacon Hill, early in the match between Five C's and Alcos.

On Saturday, Jack Sparks took three Albion wickets for 17 runs and batted for 15, not out, to pace Oak Bay to a six-wicket win.

Despite 27 by Keith Bickmore, Albions managed only 48 runs and Oak Bay replied with 49 for four wickets.

McLarens Get Extra Rest

McLarens will be more rested than expected when they resume Senior Men's Softball League playoffs at Heywood Avenue tonight.

Meeting a squad of oldtimers at Central Park Sunday in a benefit tussle, McLarens had to work for only 2½ innings. They were trailing the veterans 2-0 when rain washed out play.

The frisky oldsters have requested and been granted a replay at a later date.

A collection raised $53 for injured players Tony Gee and Eddie Loo.

McLarens meet Imperials at 6:30 tonight. Both clubs have lost once in the double-loss elimination playoff and tonight's winner goes up against unbeaten Sooke Tuesday night.

Next game: Tonight — New Westminster at VICTORIA, 8:30, Memorial Arena.

Vancouver clinched first place and a bye into the playoff final last week, New Westminster is safe in second spot, and Shamrocks have wrapped up third position.

The best-of-seven semi-final series gets under way in New Westminster Wednesday, then moves to Victoria for the second game Friday at Memorial Arena.

Nanaimo ended their season Saturday night in Nanaimo with a 16-5 trouncing of Shamrocks.

BIONDA HAS 103

Jack Ferguson picked up two goals to finish the season with 52 goals, 42 assists for 94 points, second only to New Westminster's Jack Bionda.

Bionda has now clinched the individual scoring race with 50 goals and 53 assists for 103 points.

Shamrocks were never in contention after the first 20 minutes as Tom McVie sparked the Coaltowners with four goals.

Ron Jay scored three of Victoria's tallies, Sohen Gill collected the other two.

ON BISLEY TEAM

One B.C. Shot In First 18

CONNAUGHT RANGES, Ont. —J. W. Lightburn of Peachland is the only one from British Columbia among 18 Canadian marksmen who will be invited to make up the 1964 Bisley team.

The team, which will represent Canada at the National Rifle Association matches in England, is chosen from the top scorers in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association matches that wound up here Saturday.

Major B. E. (Bert) Besteck of Winnipeg, a member of the 39th Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, won the Governor-General's match.

The 45-year-old sharpshooter fired 215 out of a possible 225 to win the major award. Ralph Grant, an 18-year-old cadet from Dartmouth, N.S., was second, just one point behind.

FIGHT RESULTS

MANILA—Marcel Juban, 118, Manila, outpointed Curly Aquirre, 117½, Manila, 12.

Gene Delays Decision Despite Cruel Beating

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene Fullmer, mauled, bruised and badly beaten in his effort to regain the world middleweight boxing title, returned to the United States to mull over the possibility of retirement.

"I have no plans for retiring and no plans for going on," Fullmer said Sunday night en route to his home in West Jordan, Utah. "I'm going home to talk it over with my family."

The 32-year-old boxer was cut and battered and drenched with his own blood Saturday before suffering a seventh round TKO at the hands of champion Dick Tiger in Ibadan, Nigeria in West Africa.

He returned to the U.S. by plane Sunday night and planned to go on to Utah today.

FAVORS QUITTING

His wife, Delores, said in West Jordan shortly after the fight that she hopes Gene, a former champion, will call it quits. Mrs. Fullmer, who has refused to watch her husband fight, also repeated that he had promised to retire if he failed to beat the Nigerian champion. Fullmer was non-commital.

"He was a great champion," Mrs. Fullmer said of her husband, "but we feel he should quit now."

The fight, the first title bout ever held in Nigeria, was scheduled for 15 rounds but Marv Jenson, Fullmer's manager, asked that it be stopped at the end of the seventh when the bleeding Fullmer was virtually defenceless against Tiger's two-handed attack.

"I wanted to stop it in the fifth," Jenson said, "But Gene insisted on going on."

There were no knockdowns, but Fullmer was cut over the bridge of the nose and blinded in the later rounds by a cut over the right eye that bled freely. His body was marked by angry, red welts and the bruises still showed on his face when he returned to the U.S.

"I was going to come out fighting," the 32-year-old mink rancher said. "But he was sharper than I was. I guess he caught me a couple of times in the early rounds which must have knocked the sharpness out of me. But right until the end I thought I had a chance."

UNDERWROTE BOUT

The Nigerian government underwrote the bout, putting up $280,000 in guarantees. Fullmer was guarranteed $50,000 and $10,000 in expenses and Tiger $100,000. The bout drew a crowd of about 30,000 to the outdoor Liberty Stadium, but there was no announcement from promoter Jack Solomons on total attendance or receipts.

The fight was the third between Tiger and Fullmer. Tiger lifted the title from Gene with a 15-round decision in San Francisco last year and they fought to a 15-round draw in Las Vegas earlier this year.

There was no immediate comment from the Tiger camp as to further title bouts, but European champion Lazlo Papp of Hungary, Joey Giardello and welterweight champion Emile Griffith of the U.S. have been mentioned as possibilities.

Griffith Wins

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — World welterweight champion Emile Griffith piled up an early lead on his youth and speed and withstood two late rallies by veteran Holly Mims to score a unanimous 10-round decision in a non-title bout Saturday night.

U.S. Has Monopoly On Wightman Cup

CLEVELAND (AP) — The United States Wightman Cup team, led by Darlene Hard of Los Angeles, soared to a 4-1 lead over Britain Sunday and captured the international tennis trophy for the 29th time. Britain has won it six times.

Miss Hard, ranked No. 1 in the United States, clinched the trophy with a 6-3, 6-0 victory over Christine Truman, Britain's No. 2 player.

CORN!
It's corn time again at Berryland! Corn must be super-fresh to be good and that is what it is at Berryland. That is also why all the 10,000 Victorians bought their corn at our road stand last year. From now on, and we hope until past Thanksgiving, we will have lots of good corn for all Victoria. We welcome all our old and new friends to come and get the best corn that can be grown in B.C. We have corn for your daily needs, for your parties and for your freezer. In one word Berryland is "The Place" for good corn! Come one—come all!

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE LAID AGAINST YOUTH

★ ★ ★ ★ BULLETINS

Up-Island Crash

An unidentified man is in serious condition in hospital following a three-car head-on crash four miles north of Nanaimo this afternoon.

The crash occurred as one south-bound car apparently was attempting to pass another.

The north-bound car carried Nova Scotia plates.

RCMP have not released the name of the injured man.

'Shoe' Cleared

CHICAGO (AP)—Stewards of Arlington Park today absolved jockey Bill Shoemaker in the disqualification Saturday of Hellenic Hero from second to third placing in the Arlington Handicap.

Crothers Winner

OSLO, Norway (Reuters) — Bill Crothers of Toronto won the 800-metre race at an international track meet at Bislet Stadium here tonight in one minute, 47.9 seconds.

British runners took the next two places. John Boulter was second in 1:48.4 and Derek Johnson third in 1:53.6.

Warrants Issued

RED ROCK, Ont. (CP)—Police today issued warrants for two Red Rock youths, charging them with armed robbery.

The Red Rock branch of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce was robbed shortly before closing time Friday. Police said the robbers were armed, and estimated $45,000 was taken.

Woman Dives Into Sea To Save Man

A young woman jumped more than 15 feet off the Ogden Point breakwater to rescue a man who fell into the water at about 2:15 p.m. today.

The man, an elderly Chinese, was walking alone near the water level when he fell.

He was reported still unconscious in St. Joseph's Hospital at 3 p.m.

A woman, believed to be a nurse at the same hospital, saw the man fall and dived in after him.

Bystanders said the man was carried some distance from the concrete breakwater by waves.

The woman and boys who were fishing off the wall, applied artificial respiration until the ambulance arrived.

Juvenile Accused In Duncan Death

A 17-year-old Duncan youth was charged toda with manslaughter in the mysterious death last wee of a 14-year-old boy near the up-island city.

Duncan RCMP laid the charge after intensive investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Hugh George Nesbitt near his Bazett Road home last Thursday night.

The accused youth appeared in Duncan juvenile court this morning and was remanded without plea for eight days.

$1,000 BAIL

He was released in the custody of his parents on $1,000 bail.

Duncan lawyer David Williams, who is acting as Crown prosecutor, said after court he will apply at the next hearing to have the case transferred to a higher court.

Mr. Williams said he will also ask the attorney-general's department to cancel the inquest which has already begun into the cause of Nesbitt's death.

The body of the victim was to be cremated today. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Peter's Anglican Church with Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh officiating.

ON WAY HOME

Nesbitt died only 100 yards from his home after an altercation with some older youths from the area. He and a 16-year-old friend, Conrad Wohler, had been for a swim at Maple Bay and were on their way home when the incident occurred.

It is understood a car passed them on the road, then stopped and one of the occupants asked them what they had shouted at them as they passed. There were two boys and two girls in the car.

RAN AWAY

According to Wohler, the youths in the car got out and he and Nesbitt tried to get away. Wohler ran off and as he did so he saw Nesbitt trying to climb a fence to get on to his home property.

Wohler said he heard one of the girls in the car shout "Leave him alone" as he ran away. Wohler hid and when the car had gone he returned to the scene.

NO MARKS

He found his friend dying in the grass beside the road. Police said there were no outer marks of violence on Nesbitt's body.

Whites Cheer Mau Mau Head

NAIROBI (AP) — Whit European farmers who live through the Mau Mau emer ency applauded Prime Minis ter Joma Kenyatta today whe he urged them to forgive an forget and work with Africa natives for a new Kenya.

"If I have made a mistake ask you to forgive me and vic versa," Kenyatta told the set tlers. This was the first tim white farmers had attended Kenyatta meeting since his re lease form a seven-year ja sentence for organizing an being a member of the terror ist Mau Mau.

Many said before going t today's meeting that Kenyat ta's speech would enable them to decide whether to stay i Kenya.

Kenyatta was loudly ap plauded when he said:

"We want you to stay and to farm well in this country. Let us try to join hands fo the benefit of Kenya. This i the policy of the government. All of us — white, black and yellow — are going to join hands and look forward to the future. In agriculture, finance and the civil service we need your continued co-operation."

REPERCUSSION?

Bank Raises Lending Rate

OTTAWA (CP) — The Bank of Canada increased its lending rate to four per cent from 3½ Sunday in what may have been another indirect repercussion from the proposed United States tax on American purchases of foreign securities.

Louis Rasminsky, governor of the bank, said in a statement that the rate increase "should not restrict the availability of credit in Canada."

The central bank's lending rate applies to infrequent advances to the eight chartered banks and is considered the leading indicator of the cost of credit in Canada.

In an indirect reference to the aftermath of the July 18 tax proposal to Congress by President Kennedy, the statement said:

"In announcing the change, the governor of the bank described it as a technical adjustment related to the increased uncertainty and upward pressure on interest rates which had developed in Canadian securities markets during the past few weeks."

RESERVES DROP

Last Tuesday, Finance Minister Gordon announced that Canada's foreign exchange reserves declined sharply in July, particularly on July 18 and 19 immediately after the U.S. tax proposal was unveiled.

Canada's holdings of gold and U.S. dollars dropped by $190,600,000 to $2,501,000,000 in July. This comprised a drain of $110,900,000 in ordinary foreign exchange dealings and repayment of $79,700,000 to the International Monetary Fund on a loan received during the 1962 foreign exchange crisis.

Sunday's announcement about the bank rate stressed that the change is not intended to signal a basic shift in the central bank's monetary policy. The bank was still aiming at pro-

Singer Having Ward's Baby

LONDON (AP) — Julie Gulliver says she is going to have a baby by the late Dr. Stephen Ward, the weekly newspaper The People reports.

The copyrighted article in the Sunday newspaper said the 22-year-old singer met Ward, a central figure in the Profumo sex-and-security scandal, four months before he died from an overdose of sleeping pills he took as a jury was about to convict him of living off the earnings of prostitutes.

"All I wanted to do was to give him peace of mind," Miss Gulliver said. "My baby is due to be born in March. If it is a boy, I shall call him Stephen."

Meanwhile, Ward's lawyer cast doubt on the value of evidence offered by Joe Wade, a professional gambler who came forward after Ward's trial and said he could have cleared him.

MAIL ROBBERY TIPSTER SPURS SEARCH FOR 5

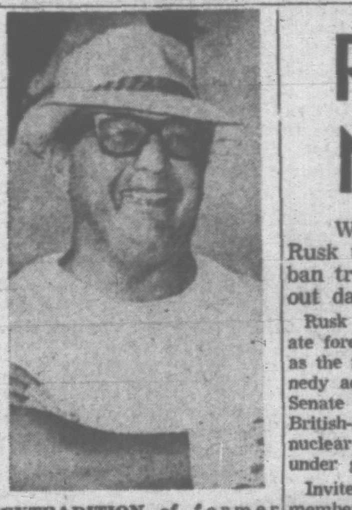
LONDON (AP) — An informer's tip sent detectives combing London's sleazy East End today for five criminals reported missing from their homes since history's greatest train robbery.

No arrests were made, but Scotland Yard posted a watch at each of the five addresses.

About 15 masked men halted the Glasgow-London mail train last Thursday and made off with bags of registered mail worth more than the equivalent of $7,500,000. Most of the loot was old currency being returned to London for destruction.

The precision with which the gang worked aroused speculation that the master mind was a former military man.

Spurred by reward offers totalling £260,000, hundreds of Britons called police stations claiming to have information that might help the police.



EXTRADITION of former Venezuelan dictator Marcos Perez Jiminez from the U.S. is to be approved by U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk, it was announced today. Perez has been in jail in Miami since Dec. 12 pending outcome of Venezuela's request for extradition on charges of embezzling more than $13,000,000 in government funds and for committing four political murders.

Rusk Opens N-Pact Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk urged the U.S. Senate today to ratify the test-ban treaty, saying it should slow the arms race without damage to the security of the United States.

Rusk testified before the Senate foreign relations committee as the first witness in the Kennedy administration's drive for Senate approval of the U.S.-British-Soviet pact to outlaw all nuclear explosions except those under ground.

Invited to the session were members of the Senate armed services and joint atomic energy committees, both of which have an interest in the test-ban issue.

Rusk, seeking to counter possible arguments against the pact that some senators might raise, emphasized that the signing of the treaty by East Germany will in no way imply U.S. recognition of that Communist East German regime.

He said East German authorities will subscribe to the treaty in Moscow, and added:

"The Soviet Union may notify us of that act. We are under no obligation to accept that notification and we have no intention of doing so, but the East German regime would have committed itself to abide by the provisions of the treaty."

Telling the senators that this treaty may prove to be one of the most significant since the founding of the United States, Rusk said:

"The United States and the Soviet Union already have enough nuclear power to inflict enormous destruction on each other. Still, the search for bigger, more destructive weapons goes on. . . .

"Yet greater armament has not demonstrably brought greater security. The treaty, if observed, should slow this spiral, without damage to our relative strength.

Rusk expressed confidence that if any nation tries sneak testing in violation of the treaty, "we will know about it—and we will be ready at all times to resume testing in all environments, and promptly. . . ."

The state secretary also said the pact will help deter the spread of atomic weapons and reduce the radioactive pollution of this planet.

'SELL MORE IN B.C.' BENNETT URGES U.K.

By DOUG MARSHALL

LONDON (CP)—Premier Bennett of British Columbia today opened a drive to persuade British manufacturers to sell more goods in his province.

Bennett told a press conference that B.C. last year sold more than $128,000,000 worth of goods to Britain and bought only $50,000,000 worth in return. He said he wanted a 100-per-cent increase in British sales to B.C. to even the balance.

"We're having a trade fair in Vancouver in 1964 and are anxious that British firms display their goods there and send their salesmen," he said.

The salmon fishing, fruit growing and mining industries in B.C. all are eager to buy British goods, he said, and there are considerable sales opportunities for British marine and railway equipment.

Bennett noted that the Panama Canal made freight costs from Britain cheaper than they are from central Canada. He also hoped that some British firms would set up subsidiaries in B.C. because they would be nearer the primary products and could sell up and down the Pacific coast and to the Far East.

Bennett, who arrived last week after attending the provincial premiers' meeting in Nova Scotia, said he plans to stay "just a few days."

'Everybody Richer, Nobody Gets Poorer'

LONDON (CP) — Premier W. A. C. Bennett painted a glowing picture for U.K. newsmen today of British Columbia's dynamic and prospering financial position.

"Social Credit is genuine competitive free enterprise in action aimed at making everybody richer and nobody poorer," the premier said at a press conference.

"We operate in peacetime as other capitalist systems operate in war."

He described the provincial takeover of the B.C. Electric as a "fair evaluation for shares" that should cause prospective British exporters no concern.

GIRLS OF AFRICAN NATIONS SHOWING WAY

Bra-Less Swims in Europe by '73?

LONDON (Reuters) — European women by 1973 probably will think nothing of sunbathing on a beach in bare bosoms, an authoritative British fashion magazine predicted today.

Tailor and Cutter, which usually confines itself to men's fashions, said increased travel and sun worshipping all tended toward the nude upper half.

An article called Keeping Abreast of Fashion said that with the rising importance of the Negro races the traditional styles of African tribes may set future fashions.

It quoted one of Italy's leading couturiers, Emilio Pucci, as saying recently he thought European women would find nothing strange or scandalous in leaving off their bras in public.

"The less artificial and far more natural scope of the physical life of the girl in the African interior means that she will inevitably shape up a deal more happily without bust support than does her white sister," the article said.

"Devoid of a bra since first she needed one, the African girl is as good as a male: Firm, muscular and shaped as nature intended.

"Debilitated by centuries of artificial civilization, cramped into the peculiar shapes. . . which hinder their natural development, white women may need a century or two of freedom before their idle chest muscles can once again overcome the effects of near-atrophy . . ."

Skopje Plans Prefab City

SKOPJE, Yulgoslavia (Reuters) — Building teams from all parts of Yugoslavia today started planning the reconstruction of this city which was shattered by an earthquake 17 days ago.

They will first build fabricated houses containing 10,500 apartments and hope to complete them in two or three months.

All republics of Yugoslavia and the capital of Belgrade each will be responsible for building one housing development.

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF ESQUIMALT

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT NOTICE OF INITIATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

The Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt, in pursuance of the powers contained in Section 589 of the "Municipal Act," intends to construct under local improvement the following sidewalks:

1. A concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly boundary of Canteen Road to the westerly boundary of Lot 174 of Plan 2854, and a concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Lot A of Plan 13654 to a point thirty-six feet west of the easterly boundary of Lot 1 of Plan 7445, the cost in respect of which is to be borne by the owners abutting. The total estimated cost of the work is $5,688.00.

2. A concrete sidewalk five feet wide on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Lot 243 of Plan 2854 to the westerly boundary of Lampson Street, and a concrete sidewalk ten feet wide on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the westerly boundary of Thornton Street to the westerly boundary of Lot A of Plan 13195 and from the westerly boundary of Lot 1 of Plan 8233 to the westerly boundary of Lampson Street, the cost in respect of the width in excess of five feet on the south side to be borne by the Corporation. The total estimated cost of the work is $9,045.00, of which an estimated cost of $6,086.00 will be assessed upon the properties abutting on the said work and an estimated amount of $2,959.00 will be borne by the Corporation.

3. A concrete sidewalk of varying widths on the north side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly boundary of Lot B of Plan 15294 to the westerly boundary of Lot 11 of Plan 1385 and a concrete sidewalk of varying widths on the south side of Esquimalt Road from the easterly property line of Lot 10, Block D of Plan 292 to the easterly property line of Lot 2 of Plan 330, the cost in respect of the widths in excess of five feet on both sides to be borne by the Corporation. The total estimated cost of the work is $13,828.00, of which an estimated cost of $7,683.00 will be assessed upon the properties abutting on the said work and an estimated amount of $6,145.00 will be borne by the Corporation.

Repayment of the portion of the cost of the works to be assessed upon the lots abutting on the said works may be paid in cash without interest within thirty (30) days after the special assessment rolls have been certified by the Court of Revision or with interest in 15 annual instalments.

Persons desiring to petition against undertaking the said work must do so on or before 4:00 p.m. on September 13th, 1963.

P. CAIRNS,
Acting Municipal Clerk.

FORMULA FOR SUCCESS in teen-age marriage is to delay having a family until the couple is well established. That's the opinion of Bobby and Clara Mims who were 16 and 14 when they were married more than seven years ago. Last week they had their first child. Mims said he would discourage his son from marrying a 14-year-old—". . . especially if they planned to have children immediately."

Association Won't Budge In Fish Fight

Fisheries Association of B.C. is adamant that only the price of pink salmon should be included in arbitration terms of reference to settle the salmon fishing dispute.

United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union, on the other hand, holds that the arbiter, Mr. Justice Victor L. Dryer, should establish terms and scope of arbitration and wants the association to sign a document agreeing to this.

VETO EXPECTED

The association's decision—expected within a day or two—likely will veto the union suggestion, leaving settlement of the dispute as much up in the air as during the actual strike, which ended a week ago.

The parties are agreed only that an arbiter should deal with the matter.

The union wants all matters in dispute originally to come before the Supreme Court justice, or to let him decide his own terms, and claims the fisheries association at one point agreed verbally to the same thing.

"There is only the one matter in dispute" (pink salmon price), association secretary Kenneth M. Campbell said today.

He was replying to the question of why the association holds to this reasoning when prices of three other species, shore workers' and tendermen's wages and hours, and fishermen's welfare benefits were also in dispute.

AGREED UPON

Mr. Campbell said the association feels these other matters have been agreed upon directly or indirectly.

"A better question might be why is the union not recognizing that?" he said.

"The shore workers and tendermen have settled with our offer, and there is also the fact that the union agreed on the other fish prices," Mr. Campbell said.

He referred to a sealed offer submitted by the union July 19 to conciliation officer R. G. Clements, in which the prices of sockeye, coho and chums came down to the last association offer. The sealed envelope was never opened, but fishermen were made aware of its contents before they voted to end the strike.

Since welfare benefits were never a major item in dispute, this leaves only the price of pink salmon unsettled, the association insists.

CONTROL MOVE

Meanwhile, federal fisheries authorities have cancelled trolling for salmon at the mouth of the Fraser between Sunday midnight and midnight Oct. 12, except during net fishing for sockeye and pinks in the area.

This is a control measure for the fall spawning season.

Newest Weathership To Aid Ocean Study

The new weathership to be built by Burrard Drydock Ltd. will provide information for the Pacific Oceanographic Group at Nanaimo, the federal transport department has announced.

It will be the largest weathership in the Canadian Coast Guard fleet and will be used in the Pacific to provide information for meterological, telecommunications and electronics branches, as well as the department of mines and technical surveys.

Vicotria Machinery Depot and Yarrows Ltd. submitted bids last May, but Burrard Drydock was awarded the contract Friday.

The turbo-electric twin-screw ship will replace one of the Coast Guard weather ships at Ocean Station "Papa," 900 miles off the coast.

The ship will be 404 feet long, 50 feet across the beam, and will have a cruising range of 8,400 miles at 14 knots.

It is scheduled for completion in 1966.

Saanich to Smash Building Records

The value of building permits issued by the four Greater Victoria municipalies to the end of July is $22,609,035.

This is nearly $3,500,000 over last year's total at this time.

Saanich, about $3,000,000 over last year's total to the end of July, is expected to break the $11,019,837 all-time record. So far $10,583,828 worth have been issued.

The city's seven-month totals also are up: $9,710,175 compared to $8,417,785 in 1962.

ABOUT SAME

Oak Bay building permit values to the end of July this year are about the same as last year, $1,245,766, compared to $1,255,574 in 1962.

Esquimalt showed the only substantial drop, issuing $1,069,264 worth of permits this year, and $1,760,541 last year.

Canadian Films End Festival Wednesday Night

Victoria's International Film Festival will wind up Wednesday with a program of three Canadian documentaries at the Cameron bandshell, Beacon Hill Park, starting at 8 p.m.

The three Canadian films to be shown are "Circle of the Sun," "Sky," and "Nahanni."

Presentation of awards will be made by Mayor R. B. Wilson; Rear Admiral W. M. Landymore, Flag Officer, Pacific Command; and G. Slater, chief information officer of the British Information Service in Canada.

Two full programs of U.S. movies will be shown tonight and Tuesday at 8 p.m. Tonight's program consists of "He is Risen," "Carl Sandburg at Gettysburg" and "A Day at Seattle World's Fair."

Tuesday's films are "The Real West," "Winterthur — an Adventure in the Past," "Timberline" and "Long Beach."

Heiress Murdered

PORTLAND (AP)—Portland detectives believe that Mrs. Irene Davis, 41, a Payette, Idaho, cattle heiress, was murdered. Her body was found last week in her room at Portland's New Hilton Hotel. The body was in a bathtub. A nylon stocking was tied around her neck.

SKINDIVER MEETS DEATH ON OWN SPEAR

NEW YORK (UPI)—A skindiver stabbed himself to death with his own spear gun yesterday when he was knocked off balance by a huge wave crashing against a stone jetty near Jones Beach.

Authorities said Robert Petty, 31, Westbury, N.Y., was adjusting his face mask and had wedged his spear gun between rocks when the wave came, impaling him on the spear.

A fisherman spotted Petty unconscious on the jetty. He was rushed in a coast guard helicopter to Meadowbrook hospital at East Meadow where he was dead on arrival.
